The second meeting for the purpose of making arrangements for the annual creamery picnic and Applegate valley field meet will be held in the schoolhouse Wednesday evening, March 3, at 7:30. These meetings, which will be held each month from now until May 20, are open to the public and it is hoped that a large number will be present. Bring in your suggestions and help boost this event.

S. L. Benson of Humbug made a trip down the river Sunday.

Richard Rock came down from Steamboat Sunday.

Rev. Long held services at the schoolhouse last Sunday evening.

John Pernell drove to Jacksonville last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Beckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kubli and Edith Kubli were visitors in Jacksonville Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Kuntzen has been absent from school on account of sickness. Helen and Charlie Mee came from Central Point Friday afternoon to visit their parents.

Mrs. Head and Mrs. Wright were on the sick list last week.

Mr. and Mrs. March Baldwin and daughter Louise went to Medford on Monday to visit Mrs. Baldwin's mother.

James O'Brien and Fred Offenbacher attended the telephone meeting at Rush Sunday.

Don't forget the dance at the socialist hall Saturday night, March 6. The three basketball games played at Rose's hall last Saturday night were very exciting. The girls of Murphy and the girls of Applegate played the first game of the evening. The latter won, the score being 7 to 5. The first boys' teams of Murphy and Applegate then played, with a score of 30 to 14 in favor of Murphy. The Rush team and Applegate's second team played, Applegate winning, the score being 14 to 13.

Leon Lance Offenbacher, Edward Kubli and Beatrice O'Brien were visitors at the Mee home Sunday.

EDEN PRECINCT

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gleims of Talent were Medford business visitors Saturday.

Miss Salter, teacher in North Phoenix school, spent Saturday in Medford in the interest of the improvement of the children's play grounds. We regret to chronicle the death of the infant child of Professor and Mrs. Scooby of Phoenix last Friday.

Among those from Phoenix who shopped in Medford Saturday were: Mrs. Dr. Malengren, Mrs. Scooby, Mrs. Geseigh, Mrs. C. Carey, Miss Janet Farry, Miss Myron Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson.

Mr. Eilers of Phoenix and Mr. Brennen of Medford were callers at Carey's Monday.

Miss Sarah Henry came out to her parents' home in North Talent Saturday evening to attend the dance given at Phoenix by the W. O. W. boys.

Mrs. Callie Hutton, one of the old-time residents of the valley, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. John Graffia, for a short time, while returning to her home in eastern Oregon from a trip to Mexico and San Francisco.

Mrs. G. C. McClain of Phoenix went to Ashland Saturday to visit her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harvey.

Another of the dear old pioneer ladies has been numbered with the departed—Auntie Stout, as she was known and called by every old resident of the valley. Mrs. Stout was among the very earliest settlers of the Rogue River valley, and for over forty years has lived in Phoenix, loved and respected by all who knew her.

Last Saturday evening was one long to be remembered by many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of North Phoenix, the occasion being Mr. Anderson's birthday. Fifty-three of their friends had planned a surprise and at half past eight gathered at his home and took possession. Many of them were laden with good things to eat. With games and amusements swiftly the moments sped, until 11 o'clock, when refreshments were served, and at 12 the guests departed, wishing Mr. Anderson many happy returns of the day.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Frank Massimo of Beagle was trading in Medford recently.

Mr. Burch of Beagle passed through Antioch Friday on his way to the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chapman of Beagle were visiting Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, in Medford a few days this week.

At the last meeting of the Antioch Literary society the majority of its members voted in favor of changing the place of meeting to the Chapparral schoolhouse, as it would be more convenient for most of the members. The meeting will be held next Friday night, March 5. Come and join the society and help with the program.

L. B. Brown of Medford will soon commence to build a seven-room bungalow on his fine Antioch ranch. This will add a big improvement to the place and make it one of the best in the valley. Mr. Shultz of Moonville was visiting his relatives and friends in Medford a few days this week.

Steve Moore of Medford was visiting his brother Rube Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar Rodgers and Miss Blanche were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Chapman Sunday.

D. Russell of Medford and Mr. Hoon were visitors at the Russell dairy farm at Beagle recently.

Jim Dinkens and William Pomeroy of the Meadows were visiting and trading in Medford this week.

Jeese Glass, one of Antioch's prosperous farmers, is hauling grain to the Medford orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas of Beagle were trading in Medford Saturday.

The rains have made our roads in bad shape for auto travel. Better wait for a few days' sunshine to pay us a visit.

TALENT TALK

Among those who attended the banquet at Ashland Friday evening were Messrs. Burgan, Adamson, Bagley and Thomas.

The local theater was opened again this week under the management of Mr. Hall of Central Point. The theater will be open every Wednesday evening.

Dr. Hart and family moved last of the week into the Sleppy house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Luke. One of the front rooms will be used for an office, thus doing away with the rooms previously occupied in the Ames building.

Mrs. D. Works returned Sunday from a three week's visit with her sister at Glendale.

Mrs. B. J. Coleman and daughters Delphia and Elva visited over Sunday with relatives in Jacksonville.

Mrs. C. M. Thomas entertained a number of Medford and Central Point friends at 500 Wednesday afternoon.

Jay Terrill is taking care of the rural mail route this week as Mr. Bowman has not been feeling very well.

A preliminary try-out for the Talent-Phoenix declamatory contest was held Friday afternoon at the high school. Competition was keen in every case except the humorous and in some cases scores were so close that the judges had a hard time to make decisions.

In the dramatic section Maude McCaslin speaking the "Raven," and Helen Adamson speaking "The Bridge Keeper" won. In the oratorical section Kilmer Bagley in "Eulogy on Wendell Phillips," and Lloyd Turner in "Mark Anthony" were successful. Opal Bacus spoke "Terra Anne," Alta Scott was not able to be out but will speak "The Ruggleses" and with Opal Bacus will represent the Talent school in the humorous section. Mrs. Chas. Brown, Mrs. Lewis Brown and Rev. Adams acted as judges.

Friday evening, March 5 at the Talent high school auditorium has been set for the first contest with Phoenix. In this contest six students from each school will compete. Two from each town in each of the three divisions, oratorical, dramatic and humorous. The second contest will be held Friday evening, March 12 at Phoenix at which time decisions will be announced and three engraved gold medals will be awarded to the ones making the highest aggregate scores at both contests. Three judges will make a careful score of all deliveries at each of the contests but decisions will not be announced until at the final contest at Phoenix March 12.

In marking general delivery counts 50 per cent. articulation and pronunciation 25 per cent, gesture 15 per cent and carriage 10 per cent. The teachers of the different schools are training the students, it being agreed that no prize be awarded to one obtaining aid from a professional elocutionist not connected with the schools. All contestants are working hard and competition will be close as considerable rivalry already exists between the two schools. An unusually large per cent of the pupils are out at the present time nursing colds. The disease is having a demoralizing effect upon the school as so many have been compelled to miss their regular class work.

A Likely Charge

Lawyer—You say that the defendant ran his automobile into the show window of a millinery store, but that doesn't show he was intoxicated, does it?

Officer—Well, no; but when I arrested him he was trying on the hats. —New York Globe.
