

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The I. O. O. F. held their anniversary meeting in their hall in this place last Thursday night and after the regular order of business was disposed of the doors were open for the admission of the Rebekas and of course they had to have one of their big feasts and from the reports that came to me and the time that the participants returned to the Sunnyside they must have had a good time, in fact this little village of ours is noted for having the best little socials of any place in the country.

On Friday night, the 26th inst., the Parent-Teachers Association had their regular monthly meeting and there seems to be a growing interest in the move and the people are waking up to the fact that there is something higher than the simple pleasures of everyday life.

One day last week as our neighbor, Wm. G. Knighton, was walking along the street a large bull dog belonging to some of the Natwick family grabbed by the wrist, forcing two of his teeth into the flesh, but fortunately did not result in any thing very serious except causing Mr. K. to suffer from a sore wrist. The marshal immediately ordered the dog kept confined. If our town council would levy a town tax of one or two dollars on the dogs that infest our town it would help the tax payer and rid us of a plague of dogs that are of little or no use in the town.

D. E. Whitley, who has been up in the Prospect country visiting his parents, past through here last week on his way to Walla Walla. He reports that his friends up in that section gave him a farewell party the night before he left.

Len Charley and wife, who have been in Medford on business for a few days, came out on the P. & E. Friday and so was Mr. Dunlap of Derby, A. Peck of Lake Creek, Mr. Bonquist, who has a farm west of town, J. A. Howard, Horn Watkins and wife, Pete Petz and wife and J. Britson, former on the C. Veghte farm.

S. H. Harnish & Son, our lively stable men, took a span of horses to Medford one day last week and traded them off for a Ford car and now when they have a customer who wants to go in a hurry they can accommodate him. John W. Smith, one of our local carpenters, is engaged today (Tuesday) arranging a garage adjoining their lively stable.

Emmit Neolan, one of the progressive young men of Table Rock, came over last Friday after his sister, Miss Rose who is teaching in the Reese creek district.

Last Saturday night according to previous arrangements about all of the Minter family, including Frank Gustor and wife, and your correspondent, wife and daughter, Jud Edsall and two of the Minter girls, went with us over to Table Rock to witness the rendering of the play "What Happened to Jones," and when we reached there we found the large school house well filled, but my friend Emmit Neolan had reserved two seats for my wife and I so that I could see and hear all that was said and done. I would like to give the names of the actors in the play but suppose that your Table Rock correspondent will give them in his report, but I must add that it was one of the best rendered plays I have witnessed for many years. Everyone of the thirteen had their parts perfect so that there was not a bubble in the play, although it took two and a half hours to render it.

Miss Rose Neolan, Mrs. Esau Merriman, Irvin Daley and L. P. Harrington, one of the assistants of the state superintendent of schools, came in on the P. & E. Monday morning. Miss Neolan was on her way to her school on Reese creek and Mr. H. was to visit her school Monday afternoon and Mr. Merriman was on her way to Trail to visit relatives, and Irvin went up to his father, W. C. Daley.

taken to the Todd & McDonald place on Rogue river near Elk creek, I wish to make a correction, as they are simply renters and the place belongs to N. T. McDonald, and one of his brothers and Mr. Todd are working it on the shares. I am requested to make the correction.

Last Saturday Miss Gertrude Shoultz, who is teaching on Elk Creek and her aunt, Mrs. Mae Dew, both of Trail, N. T. McDonald, also of Trail, Fred Crews, Jr., of Grants Pass, H. Reed of Greenmans, Utah, and L. H. Dewese, also from Utah, arrived at the Sunnyside for the night and Mr. Crews remained until Tuesday morning and went to Butte Falls on the P. & E.

Sunday Wm. Von der Hellen and wife and J. V. McIntyre and wife came in for dinner and there were also two strangers came with them besides those who ate at the first table. Business is looking up.

J. F. Ditsworth of Prospect came out Monday and brought Miss Clara Sklyman, one of the teachers on Trail creek. She went on the train but Mr. D. remained at the Sunnyside over night.

Mr. Peterson, one of the school supervisors, went up to the Crater Lake school Tuesday morning and he and Mr. Herrington will spend the week in the hills visiting rural schools.

Wm. Nichols of Lake Creek and a stranger took dinner Tuesday at the Sunnyside. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dewese, who has been stopping at the Sunnyside, have rented rooms of Mrs. A. M. Thomas and have gone to house-keeping.

Miss Mabel Hanson, who has just closed a six months' school in the Florence Rock district, came out Tuesday and spent the night at the Sunnyside. She reports that they had a fine program and very pleasant time last Friday, the last day of school. The board have hired her to teach again next fall—that tells the story.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Exit another city employe. Percy Grisez has resigned as driver of the fire department truck. Percy says the department assignment proved too monotonous for him. He is an expert chauffeur and it won't be long before he will be filling another job along these lines. Paul Guiley has taken over the place on probation.

Funeral services of F. C. Homes, Sr., were held at the family residence, in the Bellevue district, Saturday forenoon, conducted by the Christian Scientists, Mrs. Ed Thornton being reader. Interment was in Ashland cemetery. Mrs. Homes and four children survive husband father. The sons are Fred and Charley, and the daughters are Susanne and Mary, all residents of this vicinity. Mr. Homes was a native of Illinois, formerly residing at Springfield, and was a near neighbor of Abraham Lincoln in the early days. He was in his 71st year.

D. M. Lowe reached home Saturday evening from San Francisco where he has been supervising the installation of a big exhibit in the Oregon building. He reports a strenuous time in getting the display in order, but says that since things are in shape Oregon headquarters are thronged with sightseers and that Jackson county's share in the show is notable. It is understood that Lowe's appearance here is for the purpose of testifying in the Loris Martin case. He contemplates returning to the exposition in June.

The Moose will hold a social dancing party at their hall on Monday evening, March 8. It will be particularly for the elderly members. The tango will be tabbed, but Squire Parker with other bull moose will give practical demonstrations in the execution of a number of reels, minnets and polkas of the old colonial period. J. B. Saunders will be referee.

Royal Cambers of this city was among those who recently passed the civil service examination at Medford for a position in the forest service. His assignment as a ranger will follow later on. He has had experience along these lines for sometime past.

C. R. Lamkin left for Montague Saturday to investigate conditions on the big grain ranch which he and his brothers own over in Siskiyou county territory, embracing more than 600 acres. A half section of this tract has been seeded to wheat.

John F. Patty left for the north Thursday evening to take a look at property in the vicinity of Sultan, in the Sishomish river section of Washington, for which he has received an offer in the way of exchanging his merchandise stock here.

E. N. Smith, a familiar figure about the depot for some time past in the capacity of hack driver, is seriously ill at his home on Morton street, suffering from a paralytic stroke.

Harry Butterfield, proprietor of the Elegant tonorial parlors in the Enders block, also local distributor of the Portland Journal in this territory, has recently moved into the Shaw residence, corner of First avenue and C street.

Willis Caldwell of Sublimity, Ore., arrived here Friday, accompanied by his wife and two children, and has taken possession of the Bressler property on Allison street, recently vacated by Fred Bressler. Mr. Caldwell has for years been a Marion county rancher, and lately exchanged his farm there for Ashland realty.

Miss Marva Ardley, principal, and Miss Mabel Gardner, teacher of domestic art in the Holt schools, were week-end visitors in Ashland, doing a little shopping and renewing the acquaintance of Miss Eleanor Greer, who has been occupying a homestead in that section of Siskiyou county.

S. B. Power and wife of Albany, who have been occupying the Wimer place on the Boulevard since last summer, coming here on account of health consideration, returned Saturday, planning to visit Ashland again at the first opportunity. Mr. Power is a native of the Willamette and has been a rancher and dairyman in Linn county since young manhood. Climatically considered, he thinks the environment here hard to beat anywhere.

The horticultural chiropodist is abroad in the land and pruning and spraying are in order. The Ashland district is still without an inspector and interested parties are wondering why this appointment has not been made. Applications for the place were filed sometime ago. The appointment seems to rest with District Commissioner Allen.

Chief of Police Porter was on the streets Saturday after a brief vacation.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Mrs. Henry French returned to her home from Medford Saturday.

There were over a dozen vehicles of people went down the first of the week as witnesses and spectators to Jack-sonville to the trial of Loris Martin.

eighteen shares and ten were sold at the meeting.

Steve Smith went to Medford and bought a team a few days ago.

Among the Central Point visitors Saturday were Harry Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. Belcher and Mr. Murray. Perry Foster is having some wire fence put up.
