No Remorse Displayed

"The weeks that Martin spent in the county jail did not soften his heart, or cause remorse. Upon the witness stand yesterday, he was as he was that fateful day on the trail. Did you notice how his eyes gleamed, how his neck swelled with hate and passion, and how he answered by question, 'Did you shoot to kill' with a "Certainly I shot to kill." It was not necessary for Martin to kill Hubbard in self defense. He could have shot a button off Ms coat, he could have picked a button from his coat, he could have broken his arm, as he says he reached for his pistol. He can pierce the heart of a deer at 100 yards-his aim is deadly, yet, with his victim a bare three feet away, he shoots to kill." (T

Thus from another authoritative medical source comes justification for the use of time in the treatment of tuberculosis.
Since this is one of the ingredients of Eckman's Alferative, much of the success attending the widespread use of this remedy doubtless is due to the combination of this salt in such a way as to render it easily assimilable. It causes no stomech disturbance, and since it contains neither opintes, narcoties nor habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try.
