

All communications should be in by Friday. Address society editor, or Phone 75.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce of Capital Hill on Sunday evening at 6:30, when their daughter, Miss Bertha May Pierce, and Eric James Bratney were married by Rev. Harry E. Tucker of the Christian church. The bride wore a beautiful gown of embroidered crepe and carried a bouquet of Marguerites. Miss Lillian Pierce in a gown of pink chiffon and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations attended her sister. Mr. Elgin Bratney, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. H. E. Tucker played the wedding march. After the ceremony luncheon was served by the Misses Mildred and Grace Myers, Mrs. Ed Pierce and Miss Helen Pierce. Mr. Bratney has recently constructed a beautiful new bungalow on his ranch, the Top Notch orchard, where the couple will be at home to their many friends after April 1. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bratney have been prominent in church circles. Mrs. Bratney being an active member of the Christian church and Mr. Bratney of the Baptist church. Mr. Bratney is also one of Medford's popular musicians, having been a member of the Page orchestra for some time past.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Baptist church entertained the members of the church and congregation with a quarterly missionary social Wednesday evening at the home of H. J. Holman, 727 S. Central avenue. The rooms were prettily decorated with shamrocks in honor of St. Patrick.

Supper was served at 6:30 and at 8:00 the following program was given: Song, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go," by all; "Our Women's Foreign Missionary Society," Mrs. Holmer; song, "The Ninety and Nine," Miss Grace Bratney; "Where Does the Missionary Dollar Go?" Mrs. S. L. Bennett; vocal duet, Misses Myrtle Davis and Myrtle Meadows; "Baptist Loyalty," Rev. Stewart, acting pastor; song, male quartet. Every one had a good time and voted the first quarterly social a great success.

Tuesday evening the Men's club of the Presbyterian church held their regular monthly meeting in the chapel of the church. A deep-sea banquet was served at 6:30. Carlton James and Miss Ruth Campbell delighted those present with a violin duet after the banquet. Rev. W. D. Bates, D. D., of the Presbyterian church of Grants Pass gave the address of the evening on "The Financing of a Church," followed by a general discussion on the subject. This was the last meeting of the club this winter, as they adjourned until the first Tuesday in September.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a mothers' meeting next Thursday afternoon, March 25, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Woods, 412 Boardman street. The following program will be given: Song, "Praise God"; Scripture reading, Mrs. Fleming; prayer, Mrs. Woods; song, "Blessed Assurance"; "The First Mothers' Meeting," Mrs. Ponting, five minute talk by all; reading, selected, Miss Leonard; song, "Bringing in the Sheaves"; talk, Mrs. Howell; reading, Mrs. Denning; solo, Velva Woods; "Lord's Prayer."

The Electric club of the California Oregon Power company held its regular monthly meeting in the club rooms of the company on the evening of March 17, St. Patrick's day. The meeting was presided over by J. D. Sinnott. The dining room was decorated in green and luncheon was served. The subject of the meeting was "Irrigation and Its Appliances" and was thoroughly discussed by the following: H. L. Walther, H. C. Stoddard, C. L. Clevengere, C. W. Martin, J. D. Sinnott, F. F. Loder, F. H. Farrar, J. J. Skinner and G. B. Conwell. D. L. Colvig presided at the piano and Messrs Moore and Buchter related humorous stories.

Mrs. H. H. Sargent entertained with a pink luncheon Thursday afternoon with fancy work and conversation, the time pleasantly spent. Those present were: Mrs. Will H. Gore, Mrs. W. F. Shields, Miss Laird, Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. H. G. Wortman, Mrs. F. E. Merrick, Mrs. R. B. Peebles and Mrs. J. P. Sargent of Illinois.

The Priscilla Circle of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church gave a St. Patrick's day social and entertainment in the church Wednesday afternoon. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Manning and invited to kiss the "blarney stone" and receive a shamrock. Mrs. S. F. Gardner had charge of the "Tour Through Ireland," which caused a great deal of merriment, as the places of interest and relics of Ireland were very original as well as laughable.

Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc sang "Kil-larney," in her usual pleasing manner and Miss Velva Woods entertained the guests with "Wearing of the Green" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," after which those present read short jokes and stories which were presented to them at the door. After the program refreshments were served of sandwiches, shamrock cookies and tea. The decorations were carried out in green and white.

The Wednesday Study club met at the library last Wednesday. Current events by Mrs. Stoddard were well chosen and caused much discussion. The subject for the afternoon, "Shakespeare," could not fail to be of interest. Mrs. Palmer, in a personally conducted tour, took her auditors back to the England of Shakespeare, adding materially to the interest by describing those buildings and places of Shakespeare's time which may be seen today. Conducting about London and through Warwickshire, at the outskirts of Stratford-on-Avon, the company was transferred to Mrs. Pickel as guide. As though personally present, Mrs. Pickel took the company through and about the Stratford-on-Avon of today, and the Stratford-on-Avon that knew Shakespeare. An interesting close to an interesting program was Mrs. Street's paper, "Appreciation of Shakespeare by His Contemporaries and Successors."

The members of Olive Rebekah lodge met in regular session Tuesday evening. After the business session the guests were invited in and all enjoyed a social session. Mrs. R. J. Lockwood sang a solo and M. L. Meadows gave a talk on "Work of Oddfellowship." All enjoyed a shamrock hunt, Mrs. Meadows winning the prize for finding the most. After securing partners by matching states and capitals, all went to the banquet room, where refreshments were served by the following committee: Mrs. N. J. Wiley, chairman, assisted by Mr. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hull, Mrs. Rosa Robbins, Mrs. Gertrude Stevenson and Fort Hubbard.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Lincoln school will play a game of basketball with the seventh and eighth grades of the Washington school on the Washington school grounds Thursday afternoon, March 25 at 4 o'clock. All are invited. No admission will be charged. The members of the Washington Parent-Teachers' Circle will serve home-made candy and popcorn balls. The proceeds will start a fund for a piano to be used in the lower grades.

Allan R. Johnston of Sacramento, salesman for a large wholesale house of that city, visited his cousin, A. W. Johnston, and family, whom he had not seen for nearly twenty years, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Many pleasant hours were spent in talking over old times. Mr. Johnston left for home Thursday.

Miss Helen Dahl entertained the Wednesday Bridge club Wednesday afternoon. The color scheme of green was carried out in the decorations and luncheon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel of the church next Tuesday afternoon.

"PURSUIT OF PHANTOM" AT STAR THEATER TONIGHT

The monthly meeting of the Medford High School Parent-Teachers' Circle was held at the high school building Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The attendance was small, but enthusiastic in continuing the work of bringing home and school into closer connection. The first number on the program was a reading by the secretary, Mrs. Powers, of the "High School and the Boy," from Professor W. D. Lewis' "Democracy's High School." Professor Lewis is principal of the Penn high school, Philadelphia, and one of the foremost educators of the country. Mr. Bowman led in a discussion of topics for the coming year's study for the circle. Refreshments, consisting of chocolate and cakes, were then served by the domestic science department. All parents of high school students are earnestly urged to take part in the work of this association.

On Good Friday, April 2nd, the vested choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, consisting of forty voices will be heard in Stainer's "Crucifixion." This is one of the most beautiful and appropriate sacred cantatas ever written to be used on Good Friday. Those who had the privilege of hearing this choir sing this last year were of the unanimous opinion it was one of the most beautiful and impressive services they ever attended. On Tuesday, March 23rd, they have arranged to go to Ashland where they will give the same cantata at the Armory. The people of both Ashland and Medford will no doubt show their appreciation of the character of work this choir is doing by attending these two renditions.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city held its annual thank offering service last Sunday. A large congregation was in attendance and an offering of $21 was received. The following program was given: Hymn, by congregation; prayer by pastor, Rev. Hawkins; anthem by choir; Scripture reading; reading, Miss Sara Van Meter; solo, Dolph Phipps; "Voices of the Women," by several young ladies; reading, Miss Dunham; paper, "India," Mrs. C. O. Power; solo, Clarence Meeker; address, Rev. Hawkins; thank offering; hymn, benediction.

Wednesday evening the Boys' Bible class of the Christian church gave a social for the members and friends of the class in the basement of the church. Games were played and refreshments served, the tables being decorated with St. Patrick's day emblems of pipes, shamrocks and hats. The party was well attended and a good time had by all.

Captain and Mrs. A. L. Riley of St. Cloud, Minn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wakeman. This is their second visit to the Rogue River valley. They will stop at the Panama exposition en route home.

Mrs. J. A. Pandy and children of Hartford, Ia., arrived in Medford on Sunday and will be the guests of Mrs. Lou D. Jones of 204 Roosevelt avenue.

Mrs. L. A. Salade entertained the Nullo Bridge Club at her ranch home near Central Point Thursday afternoon.

The Tuesday Luncheon Club met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Walters on Siskiyou Heights Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. E. Merrick entertained the Friday Bridge Club at her home on East Main street Friday afternoon.

The Five Hundred Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. A. Knight Monday evening.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed Wednesday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darby on Griffin Creek when Miss Alice V. Darby and Earl Lamb were united in marriage by Rev. James K. Hawkins of the Methodist church. The ring ceremony was used and the bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of marguerites. Mrs. John Darby attended the bride and Mr. John Darby was best man. The home of the bride was very prettily decorated with ivy and violets. After the ceremony luncheon was served.

Mrs. Lamb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Darby of Griffin creek and has a host of friends in the valley. Mr. Lamb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb of Lima, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb left Wednesday evening for a several weeks' honeymoon including San Francisco and San Diego and will be at home about April 15 at Lima, Ohio, where Mr. Lamb is associated with his father in the automobile business.

A "Hard Time Social" was given by the Epworth League in the church last Tuesday evening, the same being the celebration of St. Patrick's day. About seventy-five leaguers and friends were present. Each guest was met at the door and a fine imposed if not wearing a suitable costume. Games and amusements of the evening were in keeping with the occasion and showed credit to those having the matter in charge. Refreshments were served, carrying out the scheme of the evening.

A box social was given by the ladies of the Catholic church Wednesday evening at the parish hall, which was well attended. The evening was spent in dancing, music and games. Towards the close of the evening all drew partners and the boxes were distributed for supper.

Plans have been perfected for the week of prayer to be observed at the First Christian church this week preceding Easter, 7:30 each evening. The services will be instructive, interesting and inspirational. A general invitation is extended to you.

Miss Edith Olson and Dorothy Thorne of Medford attended a party Saturday afternoon given by Miss Grace Taylor at her home in Ashland. The afternoon was spent in needlework, pleasant conversation and music.

Mrs. M. M. Seaman of Rogue River has been spending the week with her daughters, Mrs. C. Duffield and Mrs. Marion Lance.

Mrs. Lou D. Jones has returned to her home after several weeks' trip to the Hawaiian Islands and the Panama exposition.

A SIREN OF CORSICA

"A Siren of Corsica," a beautiful photoplay with a powerful cast, is one of the features at the Page Sunday. The Corsican woman, played by Lillie Leslie, is an intense role, and the clever and beautiful actress is eminently fitted to depict the fierce-ness of the Latin race. Helen Garden appears in a two-part Vitaphone melodrama, "Snatched From a Burning Death," a picture of primitive characters with primitive emotions on the frontier. A clever comedy "Cupid's Column," features Sidney Drew as the gay deceiver.

The monthly business meeting and social of the Baptist Young People's Union was held Friday evening, March 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bennett. About fifty young people were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent in music and games, after which light refreshments were served.

Through an oversight last week, mention was not made of a delightful violin solo given by Riley Davis from "Martha," which was played at the Parent-Teachers' circle meeting at the Washington school last Friday afternoon. The solo was highly appreciated and showed much talent for a young player.

Miss Gladys Hartley arranged a delightful afternoon for a number of her girl friends on the 13th of this month in honor of her birthday. Games and music were enjoyed until luncheon was served. The table was elaborately decorated with spring flowers. The center piece being lamb tongues and violets. The favors were dressed dolls with violet colored dresses. After luncheon a peanut hunt was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Elizabeth Fusselman winning the head prize, a Colgate set, and Miss Margaret Harrison the booby prize, a violet colored vase. Those present were Miss Thelma Ganaway, Miss Lane Klum, Miss Lella Debley, Miss Cleone Pottenger, Miss Alleen Bell, Miss Lillian Robinson, Miss Margaret Harrison, Miss Dorothy Myers, Miss Gertrude Hargrave, Miss Lydia Deane, Miss Elizabeth Fusselman, Miss Lois Quisenberry, Miss Fay Dickerson, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Mable Hartley, Miss Gladys Hartley.

Delta Mu is the name of a new sorority that has been formed at the Oregon Agricultural college. Its list of members include some of the most prominent women of the institution. Miss Margaret Irene Smith of Medford and Miss Marion Hodgson of Ashland are members of the sorority. Beginning next year the organization will live in a chapter house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter entertained at dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins.

Fine Tailor Made Suits, Coats Dresses and Skirts

The New Spring and Summer Styles Are Now Ready and Await Your Most Critical Inspection

You will undoubtedly be interested in looking over the magnificent collection of beautiful styles and materials, as shown in the Fashion Book of the

Victor Ladies' Tailoring Company, Chicago

The Leading Ladies' Tailoring House in America, who make a specialty of Women's High Class to Measure Suits, Cloaks, Dresses and Skirts, made to order according to your individual measurements in any style and material of your selection or of your own material.

Also a complete line of Ready to Wear Suits, Coats, Skirts, Lingerie and Wash Dresses, Waists, Petticoats, Corsets, etc. Come and enjoy the pleasure and advantage of selecting your new Tailor Made Suit or other Garment RIGHT HERE AT HOME from a complete variety of the newest styles and materials, such as are shown only in the large cities, and have the assurance of a perfect fit and highest class workmanship at the lowest prices.

My services and assistance will cost you nothing, and you will be greatly interested in looking over the line, whether you wish to buy or not.

Mrs. M. E. Riddle

128 South Holly

AGENT FOR

Phone 587-J

VICTOR LADIES' TAILORING COMPANY, Chicago

Prompt Service, Perfect Fit and Satisfaction Guaranteed and Prices Always the Lowest.

IRRIGATION WITH ELECTRIC POWER

You insure your life, your house, your barn—WHY NOT YOUR CROPS?

Irrigation is crop insurance.

Your irrigation problem can be solved.

The electric way, if you have a water supply from well, creek or stream.

An electric pumping plant can be installed at a low cost per acre.

And at a low minimum of expense for operation.

Fill out information card and mail to our nearest office.

No. of Acres desired to irrigate
Total lift in feet from water level to highest point of land
No. of feet of pipe required
No. of feet of ditch or flume
Water supply (well or stream)
Name
Address

California-Oregon Power Company

PHONE 168

MEDFORD, OREGON