

STEEL TO LECTURE ON CRATER LAKE WITH NEW VIEWS

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, March 30, Will G. Steel, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, will give a free lecture at the Presbyterian church in this city under the auspices of Tallman Lodge No. 31, K. of P. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern and a set of 200 colored plates. About fifty views by the famous artist Kiser, have never been used and will be shown here in their first trial. All these plates have been specially prepared for Mr. Steel at his own expense and many of them are high priced works of art. His thorough knowledge, coupled with great enthusiasm and love of his work makes Mr. Steel's lecture a very interesting and instructive one on this great natural wonder and doubly so when illustrated by such elegant views.

Superintendent Steel has given this lecture in various places in the northwest but this is his first lecture in Medford and as he always pleases and edifies his audiences on this popular subject, he no doubt will have a crowded house. Parents are requested to not allow children under 16 to go for they would crowd out older ones who would better appreciate the lecture than the children.

TURKS CONTINUE MISSION MASSACRE

TIFLIS, Russia, Thursday, March 25, 3 p. m., via Petrograd, March 26, 10 a. m.—Turkish troops have committed further acts of violence at the American mission in Urumiah, Persia, according to a message received by the local viceroy from Gordon Paddock, the American consul at Tabriz.

Mr. Paddock transmits a message from Missionary Robert M. Labaree at Urumiah to the effect that the Turkish consul at Urumiah forced his way into the mission compound with a number of Turkish regular troops and removed some Assyrian Christian refugees who were then massacred. The Turks also beat and insulted the American missionaries.

ALBANIAN REVOLT PROVES THREATENING

ROME, March 26.—The situation at Durazzo in Albania, would again appear to be serious, according to dispatches coming to Rome. The insurgents are bombarding the port and threatening to destroy it if the consular representatives are not successful in persuading Essad Pasha, the Turkish provisional president, to leave the country.

Several cannon shots during the bombardment struck a residence of Essad Pasha. Docks and public buildings also suffered.

GRIZZLIES CLUB HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

The Grizzlies met at the library last night and passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, there is no systematic effort being put forth in southern Oregon to collect and properly preserve historical manuscripts and relics, or to permanently mark scenes of historical interest and importance, therefore be it.

Resolved, that the executive council be instructed to make it the duty of the historian to collect historical data and relics of the settlement of the west, and more especially of the Rogue River valley, and to keep and classify such material in a fireproof building in the city of Medford for the benefit of the public. Also, be it further.

Resolved, that the executive council immediately authorize and instruct the historian to purchase materials and to erect a suitable, permanent monument on each of the following locations: Fort Lane, General Lane's conference with Indians on the sides of Table Rock and the spot in Jackson county where gold was first discovered.

Next Sunday's trip will be to Table Rock. Auto bus leaves hotel Medford 9:30 a. m. Return trip will be made so members can attend evening services.

On Thursday evening the Grizzlies will hold their first "Camp Fire" two and one-half miles west of town in the "Perrydale Woods." Members will leave Washington school 7:30 p. m.

MISS MURPHY WINS FIGHT FOR RAILROAD FARE

SALEM, March 26.—That Miss Ambrosine C. Murphy, a school teacher of Medford knows something about fighting for her rights, even though the battle be with a giant corporation, was proved today, when the Interstate Commerce Commission notified the State Railroad Commission that it had instructed the Southern Pacific company to reimburse the young woman for an overcharge in railroad fare.

The case is such a unique one that the members of the Interstate Commerce commission sat en banc at the hearing, and the verdict in favor of Miss Murphy was a unanimous one. A less determined person would have given up the fight long ago, but not the plucky Medford "school ma'am."

In a letter to the Railroad Commission last July, Miss Murphy said that in June, 1913, she purchased a ticket at Medford for Omaha and return for $69.90. The agent at Medford informed her that returning she could go by way of Douglas, Wyo., if she desired, by paying an additional $7.35, and if she did not go to that place the money would be returned. Part of the trip to Omaha was via the Union Pacific, but returning to reach Douglas she was compelled to go as far as Cheyenne over the Chicago & Northwestern and a fare of $12.60 was charged, although she objected to paying it. She, however, did not have time to stay at Douglas, and consequently, contended that the $7.35 and $12.60 should be returned to her. The Interstate Commerce Commission ordered it paid.

Miss Murphy is a sister of Joe and Will Murphy and has recently become a resident of Portland.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The track team was called out for practice Tuesday evening. A fair crowd responded. It is expected that the main body of the boys will come out the first of next week.

The Rounders will give a dance at the Natatorium this evening. The high is cordially invited.

James S. Morgan, a junior, is attending the local high school. He is from Weiser, Idaho.

A student body meeting was held at the high school Thursday afternoon and the financial returns of the basketball season was read. The expense of the season was $869.24. The high school started in with $49.61, which was left over from the foot ball season; $1012.41 was taken in during the season and after all expenses were paid the high school had $143.07 left. This was one of the best years in athletics for some time. Raymond Fish will defend his honor in the tennis tournament to be held in April.

A special course will be held in manual training during the summer.

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNE CAMERON, R. F. D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved. Hobron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, Kennebago, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MERCHANTS UNITE AT ASHLAND TO FORM ASSOCIATION

ASHLAND, March 26.—After much delay in a movement along this line, Ashland is to have a Merchants' association. Preliminary steps towards forming such an organization will be taken at a meeting to be held at Moose hall this (Friday) evening. In the wording of the announcement, "the object is the harmonizing of business interests and the welfare of Ashland." Every business man in town is invited. An association of this kind in no wise conflicts with the work of the Commercial club, inasmuch as each organization has its own problems and scope of activities. Mutual help and self-protection is its aim.

L. R. Merriek of Portland is expected to be present, also several members from Medford's contingent of live wires, who will give testimony as to the faith which is in them. A banquet and smoker will assist in whiling away the social hour. Moose hall will undoubtedly be the scene of a lively and interesting meeting.

RAIN CHECKS FIGHT ON WESTERN FRONT

PARIS, March 26.—The official statement given out today by the French war office says: "Yesterday was calm along the greater part of the front with almost continuous rain. Attempted attacks by the enemy between the Meuse and the Moselle were easily and immediately repulsed."

"The enemy made two attacks, at Bois de Consenvoye and Bois des Caures, northward of Verdun, three at Eparges and two at Bois Le Pretre."

MILLIONAIRE TIMBER OWNER JOHN STEWART PASSES AWAY

AURORA, Ill., March 26.—John Stewart, millionaire owner of great tracts of timber lands throughout the northwest, died here today, aged 89 years.

You will like the taste of Cottolene-cooked foods

In addition to making food better, Cottolene makes it taste better—gives it more appeal to the appetite—a relish that cannot be obtained with any other shortening or cooking fat.

Cottolene is itself a choice pure food product. It consists of the most highly refined cottonseed oil, combined with selected beef stearine.

Attempts to imitate Cottolene and to produce substitutes for it have failed because only a specially refined highest grade cottonseed oil is used exclusively in Cottolene, and the beef stearine is from choice leaf beef suet.

Cottolene

has for a quarter of a century been a leader among pure food products. Its supremacy over all other shortening and cooking fats remains unchallenged.

Insist upon getting real Cottolene, and satisfaction must be yours. Make your biscuits, your pies and your cakes more tempting, more pleasing to the palate, more easily digested, by using Cottolene for shortening.

For frying, use Cottolene over and over. It does not absorb tastes or odors. Always heat it slowly and use one-third less than of any other shortening or frying fat.

It is always ready for instant use. No chopping or crushing is necessary. It mixes readily with flour and creams up beautifully.

Pails of various sizes, to serve your convenience. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

Write to our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book, "HOME HELPS."
