With movies and Jitneys so popular—what chance has a guy to save his neckles?

LAUGHS

One Benefit: Mistress—Good gracious, Susan, the house is on fire! Susan (overworked)—Well mum, it's comfortin' to think that at last there's a fire in the 'ouse I 'ave'n't 'ad to light!

Congenial: Mrs. Nextdoor—I suppose your daughter is happily married? Mrs. Nagsby—Indeed she is. Why her husband is actually afraid to open his mouth in her presence.—Princeton Tiger.

Sure Rule: "How can they tell when a woman is only shopping?" "When they intend to buy they ask to see something cheaper. When they're shopping they ask if you haven't something more expensive in stock."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Getting At It: "Mrs. O'Rooney, why do I never see Patrick at church now?" Mrs. O'Rooney shook her head sadly. "Is it socialism?" "Worse than that, your reverence." "Is it atheism?" "Worse, your reverence." "What is it then?" "Rheumatism!"

Owned Him: A woman mounted the step of a car carrying an umbrella like a reversed saucer, says the Chicago Post. The conductor touched her lightly, saying: "Excuse me, madam, but you are likely to put out an eye of the man behind you." "He's my husband," she snapped with the tone of full proprietorship.

More Frills: Johnny handed the following note from his mother to the teacher one morning: "Dere Teecher,—You keep tellin' my boy to breathe with his diafram. Maybe rich children have diaframs, but how about when their father only makes a dollar a day and has got five children to keep? First it's one thing, then it's another, and now it's diaframs. That's the worst yet."

Not Chronic: Irritable old Man—Say, does this car always make this racket? Chauffeur—No, sir only when it's running.—Buffalo Express.

He—I invited your mother to go sailing this morning. She—Did she become seasick? He—No; I took pity on her and didn't go.

OKLAHOMA BANDITS REPORTED SURROUNDED

CHANDLER, Okla., March 30.—Sheriff Wilder said today he had located the five robbers who escaped after looting the two banks at Stroud last Saturday. The outlaws are in the Osage hills, about fourteen miles from Stroud, and have been completely surrounded, he said.

A SKILLFUL PILOT

A WASHINGTON dispatch states that the White House is flooded with letters from persons of responsibility and organizations representing substantial business interests commending the president for the manner in which he has maintained neutrality between the United States and the warring nations, while protecting American trade interests.

Among the letters quoted is one from George Cope, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, an organization that bitterly opposed Wilson's election. The following is an excerpt:

As president of the National Association of Manufacturers, the largest national body of manufacturers in the United States, I feel called upon to express to you my appreciation of your prompt action and firm attitude with respect to the various orders by the belligerent governments in Europe which affect all neutral commerce and particularly of this country. I, therefore, wish to assure you of the sympathy and steady support of this association in your energetic efforts to protect the rights of this country.

Coming from political enemies, this is sufficient proof of the wisdom of the president's foreign policy, which is modelled along the lines followed during the Napoleonic wars by George Washington.

No president since Washington has faced such a grave foreign situation as President Wilson has had to face, with a civil war devastating Mexico and a world-wide struggle raging among the civilized nations of the globe. Yet through this maelstrom of trouble and turmoil the president is calmly and serenely, with even poise, guiding the ship of state, firm for the nation's right, but skillfully avoiding pitfalls of disaster.

We are so close to the events that are remaking the map of the world that we necessarily lack the perspective essential to view events or men in their right proportions, but there seems little doubt but that unimpassioned history will assign a very large niche in the hall of fame to Woodrow Wilson as one of the greatest presidents of the republic.

ATLANTIC FLEET TO BE REVIEWED AT NEW YORK

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Atlantic fleet, Admiral Fletcher, has reported to Secretary Daniels, is preparing to leave the Guantanamo drill grounds and start for Hampton Roads about April 1.

Details of the review at New York in May or June after maneuvers in Narragansett bay will not be settled until Secretary Daniels has conferred with Admiral Fletcher, but the secretary announced today that President Wilson hopes to attend.

Secretary Daniels said today that a fitting close of the review would be the departure of the fleet for the Panama-Pacific exposition through the Panama canal. The present plan is to take at least three divisions of the battleship fleet to San Francisco and it is not unlikely the cruisers, destroyers and other craft will provide a place in the naval procession which will pass through the canal on July 4 if possible.

Before returning east Secretary Daniels will accompany a division of battleships to Honolulu and to Seattle.

Secretary Daniels believes he has answered those who charge lack of efficiency in the Atlantic reserve fleet by getting the battleship Alabama into commission at Philadelphia and on her way to Hampton Roads within thirty-six hours after the order was issued.

SHERIDAN FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

PORTLAND, March 30.—Thomas R. Sheridan, ex-president of the First National bank of Roseburg, Or., was today found guilty of misapplying funds of depositors. The jury which went out yesterday afternoon, found the aged banker guilty on two counts—of abstracting $230 from David Hall and $5000 from Mrs. Laura Verrih. The minimum penalty is five years in prison on each count. Thirty days was allowed for motion for a new trial.

LAWFUL TO LABEL GLUCOSE AS SYRUP

MADISON, Wis., March 30.—A decision restraining, so far as interstate commerce is concerned, the enforcement against the Corn Products Refining company of the Wisconsin law requiring the labeling of syrup packages to show the ingredients used was handed down today by Judge A. L. Sanborn of the federal district court. The court held that the application of the law would interfere with interstate commerce. The decision, however, declared the statute valid as to commerce within the state.

PUGILISTS EASE ON TRAINING FOR MONDAY'S BATTLE

HAVANA, March 30.—With the battle for the world's heavyweight championship less than one week away—it is set for April 5—Jack Johnson and Jess Willard today began reducing their training routine. Willard was so fit that he virtually laid off and planned no work aside from a walk and run of a few miles. The remainder of the day was spent in resting and sightseeing.

Johnson took short sprints on the road and went through his regular public training in the stadium in the afternoon. Both men say that the climatic conditions of Havana have helped them arrive at an edge quickly.

The pugilists were examined and measured by physicians against last night. Each man is said to be in splendid condition with regard to organs and muscles. One doctor said Johnson had the smallest heart of any man he had ever examined. These latest measurements show that the champion is today heavier and more muscled than when he was at Reno in 1910.

Nevertheless Willard is the bigger man in almost every particular.

LEGAL TO REFUSE LIQUOR TO WOMEN

SALEM, Or., March 30.—An ordinance forbidding women from frequenting places where intoxicants are sold cannot be pronounced unconstitutional on the ground that it interferes with individual liberties of women citizens, according to a decision by the supreme court today in the case of E. F. Laughlin vs. Tillamook City. The opinion was a reversal of a decision by Circuit Judge Galloway. Laughlin was engaged in the saloon business in Tillamook and was convicted in police court of violating an ordinance by permitting a woman to visit his place. He appealed to the circuit court and won on the ground the ordinance was unconstitutional.

FORGER SWALLOWS POISON WHEN CAUGHT

BOSTON, March 30.—Willard C. Wallace, known also as C. K. Hitchcox, charged with the larceny of money from banks at New Orleans, San Francisco and Portland, Or., who was arrested last night as a fugitive from justice, swallowed poison at the city prison today. He was taken to the relief hospital, where it was said that death was only a matter of a few hours. He had concealed the poison in his clothing. Hitchcox is said by the police to have admitted to be the man wanted for defrauding banks by means of fraudulent drafts.

ENGLISH ACTRESS FINDS PEACE AND WORK IN U. S.

Alexandra Carlisle, loveliest of the English ingenues, is spending a "war-time" vacation in America—not in idleness, to be sure, but in touring the country as John Drew's leading woman. In Drew's revival of his old-time success Miss Carlisle plays the role of the heroine, Dorothy.

ITALY EXPECTS NO TROUBLE WITH POPE IN CASE OF WAR

ROME, March 30.—The Giornale D'Italia says it considers futile the discussion regarding alleged private negotiations between the Vatican and the Italian government concerning the status of diplomats accredited to the Holy See in case Italy joins the war.

The paper reproduces the law governing the prerogatives of the Pope and the diplomats accredited to him, together with the debate in parliament when the bill was passed to prove that it was designed to cover only times of peace.

The prudence of the men ruling Italy and those residing at the Vatican, the Giornale D'Italia says, renders superfluous any discussion. In times of war, it declared, the Italian government would not hesitate to remove ambassadors accredited even to the Vatican without in so doing, however, attempting to interfere with the independence of the pontiff, while the Vatican certainly would not create difficulties for Italy in time of war.

DOING ALL POSSIBLE TO PROTECT BORDER

WASHINGTON, March 30.—President Wilson told callers today that he believed the administration was doing everything possible to protect Americans along the Mexican border. A suggestion that General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, might be sent to Brownsville to stop the fighting near the border at Matamoros, was met with a statement by the president that there was no plan for that.

AMERICAN REPLY TO GREAT BRITAIN READY TO SEND

WASHINGTON, March 30.—President Wilson announced today that the American note to Great Britain concerning the order in council was practically complete and would be forwarded to London within the next 24 hours.

The president told callers that the text of the note will be made public as soon as it has reached the British foreign office. Out of courtesy to Great Britain he asked that there be no speculation about its contents until it had been received in London.

No note will be sent at present to Germany regarding the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye by the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. The president said the government had not yet received all the information it desires concerning the ownership of the cargo of the Frye.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all maxims, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation. At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitches of the limbs and so on. It is applied externally. Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 296 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over twenty years. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

VON DER GOLTZ SAYS DARDANELLES CAN'T BE FORCED

BUCHAREST, March 30.—Field Marshal Von Der Goltz, the German military commander of Constantinople, interviewed by the Adevart, declared the defenses of the Dardanelles had proved more effective than had been expected and that he now would affirm that the allied fleet would not force a passage. "We await a new attack without fear," the field marshal is reported to have averred. "The more ships there are, the better satisfied we will be. Turkish industry has been sufficiently developed to equip a fresh army of 500,000 which it will be easy to mobilize. Constantinople is calm and the sultan still is in his Bosphorus palace. Enver Pasha, minister of war, is most optimistic and we are convinced we shall win." Field Marshal Von Der Goltz has left Bucharest for Berlin.

Announcement that Field Marshal Von Der Goltz had left Constantinople for Sofia, Bulgaria, was made from Athens, March 26. His departure was believed to have an important bearing on the developments in

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down-town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and can now be had at all leading drug stores. It is sold with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.—Adv.
