

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Charles McArthur and little daughter are spending a few days with Mrs. P. Corlies of Eagle Point.

Misses Maud Corlies, Gladys Natwick and Mr. Robert Strang were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McArthur Thursday evening.

Have your lawn mower sharpened by J. W. Mitchell, phone 320-J.

Richard Verrier of this city, has been awarded the contract to do the carpenter work on the new federal building and commenced the work of frame setting Monday morning.

Mr. Verrier resides at 512 West Jackson street but has been contracting in Seattle for several months.

Another five hundred pound shipment of those delicious chocolate creams going at thirty cents a pound at DeVoe's.

Earl Trowbridge, who has been in Medford for the past two years, will leave this week for his old home in Hancock, Michigan, where he expects to remain and where his parents reside.

Oregonian agency at DeVoe's. A meeting of the M. H. S. alumni will be held this evening on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Medford.

See new time card of Interurban in advertising columns. Jacob Berg of Wolf Creek is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

C. A. DeVoe for subscriptions. J. B. Embrey of Prospect spent Saturday and Sunday in Medford attending to business matters.

Sweet cider at DeVoe's. George W. Lance of Gold Hill spent Saturday in Medford attending to business and visiting friends and acquaintances.

"Grown in Medford" vegetable plants for sale. Many varieties. Order now for future delivery.

Rodney Calvert of Grants Pass spent Sunday in Medford visiting friends and relatives.

If you C. A. DeVoe, you can get The Country Gentleman for one dollar.

William Thurston of Jacksonville spent Saturday in Medford attending to business matters.

See Shapleigh hardware Co., for fishing tackle, especially the boys. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leever of Central Point spent Sunday in Medford visiting friends and relatives.

J. O. Gerking, the best all around photographer in southern Oregon. Always reliable. Negatives made any where, time or place. Studio 228 Main St. Phone 320-J.

Jack Harvey of Grants Pass spent Sunday in Medford attending to business matters.

Why not get it at DeVoe's? The funeral services of the late D. J. Mathew were held from the family residence Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, a large circle of friends and acquaintances paying the last tribute.

James Olson of Watkins is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

Wonderful Cubiria Page Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Alfred Owen, versatile vocalist, just from Frisco, and the Fisher, Levey circuit, at the It theater tonight with usual picture program, 5 Kodak finishing the best, at Weston's Camera Shop. Opposite Book Store.

Andrew Jeldness expects to leave in a few days for his claims in the Blue Ledge district.

Get Pan Dandy bread at DeVoe's. The victory of Jess Willard over Jack Johnson caused the unleashing of a few war whoops around the Mail Tribune office when the news was received.

Considerable local interest was manifested in the championship bout. Many of the local fans who picked Willard to win, also picked Jeffries and found revenge in the result.

Very little local coin was placed on the result. The bout attracted considerable attention locally.

Wonderful Cubiria Page Wednesday and Thursday. Attorney Gus Newbury attended to business matters in the county seat today.

When your feet hurt don't try to put up with it. Have them cared for by a skilled Marinella operator. The comfort it brings is worth many times the cost of treatment.

The Marinello Hair Shop, Cora E. Utley, 407 Garnett-Correy building. H. G. Grant of Roseburg is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

Mrs. Bert Thieroff left Sunday for San Francisco where she will spend the next three months.

The Shakespeare club will hold a meeting this evening at the public library, Hamlet being read by B. F. Mulkey. This is the thirteenth week of the study of this play by the class under the direction of Mr. Mulkey.

Merle Kellogg is suffering from a slight touch of blood poison in his left foot.

B. K. Potter of Minnemucca, Nevada, a stockman of that section is spending a few days in the city and valley attending to business matters.

A movement is on foot among patrons of the public library to keep the library open during meal hours, for the accommodation of subscribers.

Tom Fason, who is ill at his home from a touch of typhoid fever is reported as being improved today.

Wonderful Cubiria Page Wednesday and Thursday. The Rogue River Fruit and Produce association has received its consignment of arsenate of lead for the coming season.

The brand is Grasselli's, which has given satisfaction for the past four seasons. The test shows this year's product to be a 15 percent lead. The prices are lower than ever before. The goods are ready for immediate delivery.

E. W. Rollins of Boston of the old established band and brokerage house of E. H. Rollins & Sons, is visiting Medford and the valley. His firm handles the bonds of the local power company.

It was reported in this city Sunday afternoon that Andrew Poole, a forest ranger in the Trail district had been shot and killed. Poole was one of the chief witnesses for the state in the Loris Martin murder trial.

The information was brought to this city by Undertaker Stack of Ashland, who was en route to the Trail district on a burial case. According to street gossip Poole "had been plunked."

TERRIFIC RIGHT FLOORS CHAMPION

(Continued from Page One.)

Willard's cut lip at every opportunity. The negro landed three crushing blows to Willard's unprotected body. At the bell Johnson was hammering hard at Willard's body. The cowboy's left cheek was cut.

Round Seven Johnson was using every artifice to force the fighting. He rushed Willard to the ropes, slugging with both hands repeatedly. Willard's long left temporarily blinded the negro's left eye. Johnson came back with a series of swings to Willard's body. It was a very clean fight so far.

Round Eight Willard was gaining confidence and tried his hand at forcing the pace. Johnson accepted his challenge. The pugilists battered each other across the ring, the negro having the better of it. Willard landed on Johnson's mouth. Then Johnson upped Willard over the heart. Willard bounced off the ropes and landed a left to the jaw. The round ended with the negro swinging blows to Willard's head.

Round Nine Willard assumed the aggressive. Johnson started one of the cowboy's ears bleeding. The champion landed frequently, but his blows appeared to lack their old-time power. Amidst jeering, the crowd shouted, "Kill the black bear." Johnson immediately started a rally by driving three hard hooks to Willard's stomach. A left by Willard started the negro's mouth bleeding. The latter slugged the white man to the ropes.

Round Ten Johnson was slow in coming from his corner. Willard scored two lefts to the face. Jess was blocking better as his nervousness wore off. Johnson swung a left to Willard's ribs and sent half a dozen blows to Willard's body and jaw. The negro knocked Willard to the ropes with right and left swings to the stomach. A hard right chop staggered Willard.

Round Eleven The crowd derided Johnson, who was fighting and answering the sallies at the same time. Willard drove a left to the negro's mouth and took a right hook to the body in return. Johnson smashed the cowboy with a left to the jaw. Jess blocked several swings. Johnson then tried to rattle Willard by talking. The latter angrily replied in kind. Johnson tapped the giant's shoulder at the bell. It was a slow round.

Round Twelve The negro opened with a left to the body and a right to the jaw. In a clinch he smashed Willard three times with his left. Johnson then drove a right to the body and a left to the head. His blows apparently had no effect on Willard. Johnson drove Willard to corner with a swing to the head. Willard's left ear and cheek were bleeding. He walked friskily to his corner at the bell.

Round Thirteen Willard's body was now red from the effects of the punishment. The negro, ducking under his opponent's leads, continued to play for the stomach. Willard drove Johnson into a corner and landed straight left to Johnson's face. The negro japed Willard with a left hook to the jaw in return. He next looked his left to the white man's body, repeating this blow a minute later. The champion landed right and left to the head as the bell rang.

Round Fourteen The round opened with Willard rushing and missing a right uppercut. The challenger was the aggressor and tried to force the fighting. Johnson snatched Willard on the mouth with a left. Jess only laughed. The negro was beginning to miss his leads. Willard drove a hard right to Johnson's ear. The negro smashed hard left to the body at the bell.

Round Fifteen The crowd kidded Johnson, who rushed Willard to the ropes and scored five hard swings, remarking: "What a grand old man." Willard grinned at the remark and also at the blows accompanying it. The bell found both pugilists fighting in the center of the ring.

Round Sixteen Johnson missed a left to the head and they clinched. The challenger blocked the negro's rush. Amid fighting, the black man said "Willard is a good kid," and then rushed Jess to the ropes, scoring two hard punches to the body. The negro drove a terrific swing to Willard's side. The challenger was a trifle unsteadily in going to his corner at the end of this round. Round Seventeen Willard landed a right to Johnson's body and a left to the head. Willard again scored a right to the body and blocked the negro's return. Jack drove Willard to a corner and landed Willard to a corner, where the negro smashed him twice on the jaw. Willard's leads were easily picked off by the champion. After several tries, Jess landed a straight left to Johnson's face and a right swing to the jaw. At the bell Johnson landed a punch to the body and another to the jaw.

Round Eighteen After playing a tattoo on Willard's chest and stomach the negro drove serving every bit of his energy. Willard again landed a left to the mouth and then repeated it. Johnson stepped around backwards at the bell and dropped heavily into his seat.

Round Nineteen Both pugilists slowed up a bit. Willard now was the aggressor. Johnson stood in the middle of the ring and blocked Willard's blows. During the minute not a single hard punch landed and Johnson seemed able to divine Willard's every lead. The negro then started a rally, landing two lefts to the body and a right to the jaw.

Round Twenty Willard opened the round with two light blows to the negro's face. The latter laughed and said: "Lead again, kid." Willard did not smile also. The crowd around the ring yelled, "Hurry up, we want to see the races." Willard stabbed and pawed the air until he landed a swing on the negro's jaw. The negro immediately cut loose and they battled across the ring. The crowd went frantic when Willard drove a hard right and left to the negro's body at the bell.

Round Twenty-one After a minute of posing and feinting Johnson hooked his left to Willard's body and sent a right swing to the head. Willard replied with a straight left to the negro's face. Jack rushed, but Willard covered himself well and they fell into a clinch. Johnson walked around the ring. Willard missed right swing and laughed. Both were fighting for an opening at the bell.

Round Twenty-two The fight at this point had degenerated into a slow sparring and clinching battle. Neither pugilist appeared particularly tired or injured by the blows of his opponent. Willard tried setting the pace. In a clinch he battered the negro's body with rights and lefts. Johnson only grinned. Willard continued working for the negro's stomach. Jack grinned at the shrieking crowd. Nevertheless Johnson was showing the effects of the pace.

Round Twenty-three Willard rushed into a clinch. Johnson held on until ordered to break by the referee. The challenger shot two lefts to the negro's face. They clinched again and wrestled about the ring. Jess added two more lefts to Jack's face and clinched. Up to this point Johnson had not struck a blow in the round.

Round Twenty-four The crowd yelled to the fighters in the ring to fight, but instead they clinched. Willard laid his weight on Johnson at every opportunity in the clinches. Johnson rushed Willard backward in the same manner as he did Jeffries at Reno. Johnson missed two weak swings. The crowd howled with disapproval. Willard then smashed the negro with a left to the face at the bell.

WHICH? ARE you looking for bargain counter glasses? Are you willing to wear cheap glasses just because they are cheap? Do you consent to having your eyes tampered with at the risk of their permanent injury? Then this message is not for you. But if you value the precious gift of sight; if you wish to retain it; if you appreciate skill, then it is for you, and you are asked to come where absolute accuracy in correcting defects is placed above every other consideration.

DR. RICKERT EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST Suite 1-2 over Deuels.

UNION FEED AND LIVERY STABLE FULL EQUIPPED LIVERY STABLE AMBULANCE SERVICE 112 South Riverside Phone 150

GAUNYAW & BOSTWICK Proprietor.

Round Twenty-five Johnson's actions might have indicated that he thought he could not knock Willard out and was trying to get the decision on points at the end of the fairly-fifth round. Willard shook the negro with a right to the heart. He then clipped Johnson on the jaw with a feeble left and started forcing the pace. Johnson was scored two swings to the head. Johnson hooked a left to his opponent's jaw and followed it up with two punches to the head.

Round Twenty-six Willard opened with a smash to Johnson's body. The referee forced them to break from a clinch. Willard rushed and slammed right and left to Johnson's body. In a clinch the latter looked over his shoulder to his wife's seat. Willard smashed Johnson a terrific right to the jaw, which floored the champion for the count.

Portland Livestock Market PORTLAND, Ore., April 5.—Cattle—Receipts 663; easy. Steers, mixed, $7.25@7.75; prime light, $7.00@7.20; cows, prime, $6.00@6.50; choice, $5.75@6.00; heifers, prime, $3.75@4.25; bulls, $3.25@3.75; stags, prime, $6.00@6.25.

Hogs—Receipts 1521; 10c higher. Prime light, $7.30@7.50; choice medium, $7.00@7.25; light, $6.50@7.00; rough, $6.25@6.50.

Sheep—Receipts 925; steady to higher. Wethers, best yearlings, $7.75@8.25; old, $7.00@7.75; ewes, best, $6.75@7.00; choice, $6.25@6.75; mixed sheep, $6.50@7.50; lambs, spring, $1.12@1.50; prime, $8.50@9.25; choice, $8.00@8.50.

Shearings, $1 less in all lines. NOTICE Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council at its meeting to be held April 6th, 1915, for a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors in quantities less than a gallon on its place of business at 12 South Front street, city of Medford for a period of six months. C. J. CARSTENS, Dated March 24th, 1915.

When Glands Swell Blood Needs Attention Even a Sweat Gland May Result in Severe Consequence.

In our intricate body the use of S. S. S. for the blood has a most remarkable influence. We little realize our glandular system. It may be a tiny bulb no bigger than a pin point, and yet if a disease germ gets into it, there is a tremendous swelling. It becomes a boil, a carbuncle, it may be a "blood rising," and it is often a source of continuous misery if not checked. Many of the most excruciating forms of torture begin with the swelling of a tiny gland, caused by a disease germ. And it is S. S. S. that spreads throughout the blood circulation to prevent just such conditions. Or if they have already started, S. S. S. will soon put the blood in such a state of health as to overcome the tendency to glandular swellings. It is a natural medicine for the blood, just as essential to health as if the blood be impure, as are the meats, fats, grains and sugars of our daily food. It contains one ingredient the active purpose of which is to stimulate the exchange of new flesh for dead or waste matter. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist, and if your case is stubborn, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 198 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. This department is in charge of a noted physician.

Trees Cherry and Shade ROSES

A few dozen first class six foot cherry trees—regular $20 goods—20c each while they last. 240 High Dickson roses, 3 yr., $1.50 per bunch of ten. Still have a good line of shade trees, rose bushes, flowering shrubbery and Loganberry plants, Rhubarb, Apparat, Vines, Dahlias, Gladiolus, and hundreds of other useful and ornamental trees, plants and bulbs. GET BUSY. EDEN VALLEY NURSERY 610 1/2 East Main Street, Phone 102 Free Delivery to any part of the city

NEW CHAMPION'S PREVIOUS RECORD

- 1912 May 20—John Young, knockout, 6 rounds. June 29—Frank Bowers, knockout, 3 rounds. July 2—John Young, knockout, 5 rounds. July 29—Arthur Pelkey, no decision, 10 rounds. August 19—L. McCarthy, no decision, 10 rounds. December 2—Sailor White, knockout, 2 rounds. December 27—Soldier Kearns, knockout, 8 rounds. 1913 January 22—Frank Bauer, knockout, 5 rounds. March 3—Jack Leon, knockout, 4 rounds. May 26—Gilbert Smith, lost, 20 rounds. June 27—Charley Miller, draw, 4 rounds. July 1—Al Williams, won, 8 rounds. August 22—Bill Young, knockout, 11 rounds. November 17—George Rodel, no decision, 10 rounds. November 24—Jack Reed, won, 2 rounds. December 3—Carl Morris, won, 10 rounds. December 12—George Davis, knockout, 2 rounds. December 29—George Rodel, knockout, 9 rounds. 1914 March 27—Tom McMahon, no decision, 12 rounds. April 13—Tom Daly, knockout, 9 rounds. April 28—George Rodel, knockout, 6 rounds.

HAVE YOU A CHILD?

Many women long for children, but because of some curable physical defect are deprived of the greatest of all blessings.

"I took your Compound and have a fine, strong baby."—Mrs. JOHN MERRILL, Mass., N. Y. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine for expectant mothers."—Mrs. A. M. MYERS, Gardenville, Mo. "I highly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before child birth, it has done so much for me."—Mrs. E. M. DORR, R. R. 1, Conohochan, Pa. "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build up my system and have the dearest baby girl in the world."—Mrs. MORGAN BLAKEY, Coalinga, Pa. "I praise the Compound whenever I have a chance. It did so much for me before my little girl was born."—Mrs. E. W. SANDERS, Rowlesburg, W. Va. "I took your Compound before baby was born and fed I owe my life to it."—Mrs. WINNIE TILLEY, Winter Haven, Florida.

For That New EASTER SUIT Tailored to Fit SEE KLEIN 128 East MAIN Upstairs

THE JACKSON COUNTY BANK MEDFORD OREGON THOUSANDS of people have acquired the habit of economy and have reached success by the saving road. Can you also reach it? Yes—an account with us will help you. 4 Percent Paid on Savings Accounts. OVER 27 YEARS UNDER ONE MANAGEMENT

Montraville Wood Scientist and Inventor — AT — Natatorium Hall Wednesday Evening April 7th, 8 o'clock This is the last number of the Medford Entertainment Course. Mr. Wood is one of the most widely known Scientific Lecturers. He carries with him a large amount of wonderful scientific apparatus. Seats on sale at Haskin's. Single admission 50c. Reserved seats 75c.

"Cut Price" Roofing Means "Cut Price" Quality Buy materials that last Certain-teed Roofing The General says: Trying to save money by purchasing cheap roofing is penny-wise foolishness. A man in Iowa saved $3.00 on a cheap roofing and lost 32 tons of hay. Ask your dealer for product made by us—they'll lead you out. Asphalt Roofing (all grades and prices) Slate Surfaced Shingles Asphalt Felt Densifying Felt Tarred Felt Building Paper 1-ply guaranteed 5 years 2-ply guaranteed 10 years 3-ply guaranteed 15 years World's largest manufacturer of Roofing and Building Papers. New York City Boston Chicago Pittsburgh Philadelphia Atlanta Cleveland Detroit St. Louis Cincinnati Kansas City Minneapolis San Francisco Seattle London Hamburg Sydney