Last Sunday Mrs. Paul Opdyke came out from the hospital in Medford and took a room at the Sunnyside, remaining until Tuesday afternoon, when she was taken to her home, the old Stonehouse ranch, on Rogue river, by Dr. W. W. P. Holt. They were accompanied by John Foster and Fred L. Heath, one of our K, but on the way back they had a regular downpour of rain that filled the mud holes with water, and they had considerable difficulty at one place they ran into a hole of water that stopped the machine, and they had to throw in a log of wood to walk on to crank the machine. They reached home at 1 a. m. Wednesday.

Sunday evening W. W. Willits and his son, Roy, drove in from their home on Elk creek to the Sunnyside, and after eating their supper went with me to church to see the Easter Sunday exercises. The house was properly decorated and the way the children rendered their pieces showed that they had been well trained, and the entertainment seemed to be highly appreciated by the large audience that filled the church building.

Your Eagle Point correspondent took a hurried trip to Medford Tuesday afternoon, but as the train was a little slow starting and had to make several stops on the route and slowed up to distribute a lot of ties along the way, etc., was way behind time when we reached Medford, and as we have only three-quarters of an hour to attend to business there in the afternoon, I did not have time to pay my respects to the Mail Tribune office. While on the train I fell in company with Rev. Smith, who is traveling in the Sunday school interests, and he reports that on Sunday evening they had a very hard William S. Dwinnell, Virginia rainsform on Big Butte. And on my way home I met Mrs. Elsie Head of Agate, nee Elsie Beeby, and she said that she expected to start in a few days for Weed, Cal., to join her husband, who is one of the engineers in a sawmill in that section.
