The Greater Medford club musical will be held at the Star Theater next Monday, April 12th, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Thieroff, who was to have been the hostess prepared a fine program before leaving for San Francisco.

Mrs. Thieroff is one of our best known and most popular solo singers and we congratulate her on her chance for studying voice under Herman Genes.

Mrs. Vernon Vaster will take charge of the program next Monday. The violin solo played by Mr. James is written by Greig, and is a great composition requiring unusual technical skill and delicacy of perception to interpret.

The vocal duet between Mrs. Anderson and Miss Hazelrigg is a burlesque on club women. The two ladies are drinking tea together and are protesting against the new rector's wife who has moved at the club that the ladies titles be taken from and they be simply called plain Mrs.

This duet is a mirth raising selection and will please every one.

The reading by Miss Doris Sullivan called a scene from a ministers wooing, has a very dramatic situation and holds the interest to the end.

Don't forget the date, April 12th at the Star Theater. The program is as follows:

- Piano Duet "Overture Ray Blac" Op. 95 Mendelssohn
- Fern Hutchinson Venita Hamilton
- Solo (a) "Beloved"
- (b) "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" Tate
- Miss Florence Hazelrigg
- Violin solo "Sonata" No. 3 Op. 45 Grieg
- Mr. Carlton James
- Mrs. H. E. Marsh, Accompanist
- Solo "Burst Ye Apple Buds" Emery
- Mrs. Bert Anderson
- Moving Picture
- Courtesy of Mr. Bernard
- Reading, Selected Miss Doris Sullivan
- Duet "Mrs. Doctor and Mrs. Proctor" A. Schaffer
- Mrs. Bert Anderson, Miss Florence Hazelrigg
- Madam Zumwalt of Andrews Opera company will sing in the city.

Mrs. J. T. Conrad, 632 Palm St., entertained the Missionary society of the M. E. church South Wednesday afternoon. The program was as follows:

- Song "Yield Not to Temptation"
- Prayer by Mrs. H. S. Branham.
- Bible lesson Matt. 8 chapter, Mrs. F. S. Brandon.
- Paper, A Nurse and Her Work at Antwerp, Mrs. Eugene Whipple.
- Reading, "A Single Soul," Mrs. Riley D. Henson.
- Vocal solo, "My Mother's Prayer" Mrs. John Hubler.
- Paper, Right Use of Stewardship, Mrs. H. M. Branham.
- Vocal duet, "The Bridge," Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Mrs. J. T. Conrad.
- Paper, The Reform of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. B. F. Fifer.
- Vocal solo, "Sing Me to Sleep," Mrs. John Hubler.
- Benediction.

At the close of the program Mrs. Conrad served dainty refreshments. Fourteen were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Coffin entertained Friday evening with a dancing party in honor of Miss Ruby Bilger of Seattle.

The rooms were prettily decorated with manzanita and wild sunflowers, while Japanese lanterns and candles lighted the yard and house. Punch was served from a booth on the porch which was a bower of flowers.

After dancing dainty refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Ruby Bilger, Dot Berry, Lois Estes, May Hoke, Ruth Paxon, Ione Flynn, Francis Kinney, Mrs. Wayne Leever and Mrs. Bert Coffin; Messrs. Herbert Deuel, Ray Bullis, Lounsbury Black, Edson Jerome, Horace Bronley, Elmer Foss, Frank Farrell, Mr. Leever and Mr. Coffin.

Mrs. Bingham of South Central was agreeably surprised by a number of the G. A. R. Post and W. R. C. last Wednesday evening it being her birthday anniversary. Luncheon was served and a social time was had. Every one present feeling they had been well repaid for being there.

Friday afternoon the Parent-Teachers' circle of the Washington school held its meeting in the high school assembly room, to which were invited the members of all the circles to listen to a special program. Mrs. Holmer, the president, opened the session by introducing Miss Coffin, who, as supervisor of music in city schools, showed the good work she was doing through the exercises in solmization and word singing given by pupils of the fifth grades from the Lincoln and the Washington schools, closing with a whistling chorus which was well received. The president at this time made announcements: The manual training department under Professor Hull would remain open through the summer. That the joint Parent-Teachers' circles would in May hold a reception for Professor Collins, appreciative of his efficiency during the years he has been the head of our schools; a farewell reception to him, and in the fall a welcoming one to teachers.

The chairman then announced that Dr. E. G. Riddell would talk to us on the subject, "Teeth and Mouth," illustrating with stereoscopic views. He began by happily hoping to make his part of the program as entertaining as the musical number. His lecture was replete with instructive facts on the formation and care of the teeth, gave simple rules for eating, said teachers may instruct, but mothers must see the instructions are carried out; that statistics showed that children with good teeth surpassed those with poor teeth, both physically and mentally. He spoke of adenoids and other diseases of mouth and throat, their cause, bad effects and corrections. In conclusion, he suggested that the Parent-Teachers' circles might discuss the question of free dental inspection for children of Medford, stating that members of the dental profession would be ready to meet with them to discuss such a plan. His talk was much enjoyed and very beneficial.

The Women's College club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Porter J. Neff, 516 Belmont. The house was artistically decorated to represent a Holland home. The subject for the day was "The Schools of Holland," which was ably handled by Mrs. T. J. Malmgren of Phoenix, who for several years taught in the high schools of Holland. Later a Dutch lunch was served. Each member came away feeling as if she had really spent the afternoon in Holland. The committee in charge was: Mrs. Torney, chairman; Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Haskins, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Malmgren.

Mrs. Wilmer Cartwright entertained informally on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. G. Helwig, who leaves soon for San Francisco. The different rooms were artistically decorated with apple blossoms and five hundred was played. Mrs. Albert Orr won first prize, while Mrs. Basil Gregory won the consolation. Mrs. Helwig was presented with a hand-painted tea set as a souvenir from her Medford friends. Those present were: Mesdames King, Gregory, Smith, Wagner, Schmidt, Orr, Helwig and Cartwright.

The Wednesday Study club enjoyed "an afternoon of music" at the last meeting April 7. Mrs. Vawter had charge of the program and read an excellent paper on "Music of England and Wales," illustrating the music of the different composers by records played on the Victrola. Mrs. Page in "Musical Events" read very interesting items of current events in the musical world. The music was a pleasant variation of the usual program and was greatly enjoyed.

A very enjoyable time was had Tuesday night at the informal dance given by the Elks for the members and friends of the lodge. The committee in charge of the evening was composed of Messrs. O. O. Alenderfer, A. S. Rosenbaum, Earl Gaddis, John Harnburg and Sam Richards.

Cole Holmes entertained at an informal party Friday evening for Earl Trowbridge, who leaves soon for his home in Hancock, Mich. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Springer, Miss June Homan, Laurin Homan and Earl Trowbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith, Misses Helen Yockey and Ethel Curry attended "A Modern Eve" at Ashland Thursday evening.

The Saturday College club met at the home of Mrs. Porter J. Neff on Belmont avenue this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hittle of Gold Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stennett last Sunday.

Miss Mary Trowbridge entertained at her home Thursday evening with a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Edith Wilson.

The guests were requested to come in kitchen aprons, those who did not being penalized.

After the arrival of the guests, the guest of honor was given a dishpan and requested to demonstrate her skill at bread baking, on lifting the cover discovered the gifts. There was much merriment as each package was opened and disclosed some article of kitchen war.

The rest of the evening was spent in music and conversation after which a chaffing dish supper was served. The house was prettily decorated with wild flowers.

The invited guests were Misses Edith Wilson, Marie and Ruby Lofland, Elizabeth and Laura Richards, Laura Treichler, Genevieve Wortman, Alice Forbes, Hazel Putney and Mrs. Root.

A very pleasant surprise party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Garrettsen, 519 South Central Friday evening, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Garrettsen.

The evening was spent at cards, and music, and at 11 o'clock, a dainty two course luncheon was served, and the guests departed for their respective homes.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Garrettsen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Searle, Ethel Price, Lewiston, Idaho, Margaret Allen, Dora Smock, Vera Merriman, Myrtle Hlakeley, Alfretha Garrettsen, Florence McCoy, and little Thelma McCoy, Miles Stewart, John Moffatt, Bert Lawrence, Herbert Launspach, Ike Fridegar.

Mrs. Arthur Newman of the West-erland orchards, entertained a number of friends at her beautiful home Saturday night. The occasion being in honor of Mr. Newman's birthday. A sumptuous dinner was served at 8 o'clock, after which music and games was enjoyed until a late hour after which the guests departed wishing Mr. Newman much happiness and a long life.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson, Messrs. Harry Anderson, Lloyd Anderson, Arthur Hinkle, Theodore Anderson, Leonard Carlson, Richard and Sutton Anderson, D. S. Wood and Miss Ella Anderson, James and Stanley Rise Henson.

Commencing Saturday, April 17, at 2:15 p. m., the Star theater will give a series of photoplays, especially arranged for children and young people. The program for April 17 will appear at a later date. These entertainments are recommended by a committee representing the Greater Medford club, the College Women's club, the Drama league and all of the Parent-Teachers' circles of the city.

Miss May Hoke entertained Tuesday afternoon for Miss Ruby Bilger of Seattle and Mrs. Bert Coffin. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in fancy work and music. Those present were: Mrs. Wayne Leever, Mrs. Agnes Merrill, Mrs. Bert Coffin, Miss Bilger, Miss Dot Berry, Miss Catharine Black, Miss Ruth Paxon, Miss Lois Estes, Miss Ione Flynn, Miss Anna Purucker and Mrs. Hoke.

Miss Loraine Bliton entertained Tuesday evening at her home on West Main street for Earl Trowbridge, who leaves soon for his home at Hancock, Mich.

Mrs. Albert Hoppin and Miss Julia Hoppin returned Friday from a two months' trip to Honolulu.

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the cities there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages must prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Such helps as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future.

In a little book for such women these points are more thoroughly brought out and a copy will be mailed to anyone who will send us their name and address. "Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores and highly recommended for its timely usefulness. Its usefulness and the real help it affords. Ask for it at the store and write us for the book. Bradford Regulator Co., 211 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

The Baptist Young People's Union Association of the Rogue river valley met at the Baptist church on Friday. Delegates from Ashland, Eagle Point and Grants Pass, were in attendance. After the business session, refreshments were served followed by an address by Rev. S. A. Douglas of Grants Pass. After the address a delightful program was rendered.

Several numbers were played by the Ashland Sunday school orchestra.

Reading, Mrs. Louis Bennett. Selection, Ashland male quartet. Reading, Miss Grace Bratney. Selection, male quartet of the Medford Baptist church.

Piano duet, Misses Stewart and Blackford.

Solo, Miss Florence Hazelrigg.

Song, Dr. Carlow. The evening was enjoyed by all and a hearty welcome was extended the visitors to come again.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Clancy on Medford Heights. Mrs. Roscoe Johnson had charge of the program and gave a paper on "The Mountaineers." Mrs. Torney led the devotional exercise. Very interesting letters were read from missionaries of the mountain regions of Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Missouri, which were very much enjoyed.

Rev. and Mrs. Vader of Grants Pass were guests of the society for the afternoon. There was a very good attendance and a most delicious luncheon was served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walter of Ross Lane gave a surprise birthday party Friday evening, April 2, in honor of James Walter. The evening was spent with games and a contest. A two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Grant Alder and Mrs. H. Belle Loomis assisted the hostess.

A linen shower was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis, 1021 West Ninth street, in honor of Miss Eva Warren, thirty-seven guests being present. Refreshments were served.

A large crowd attended the dance at the Natatorium given by the young and married ladies of the Catholic church Monday evening. The music was furnished by Hazelrigg's orchestra.

Mrs. Jap Andrews entertained the Nullo Bridge club at her home on South Orange street Thursday afternoon.

The Girls' Thursday club was entertained at the home of Miss Fern Hutchinson on South Orange street.

"WHY MARRY WHEN THE ACTING IS GOOD?" ASKS QUAKER GIRL

Ina Claire, the "Quaker Girl," whose hand and heart have been sought by scions of the houses of Astor and Vanderbilt, declares that single life's the life for her. "Why marry a millionaire when you can be a star in vaudeville?" she would like to know.

Parts are being assigned and work is progressing at a rapid rate in the operetta, "A Nautical Knot, or the Belle of Barnstapole," to be produced by the Medford high school chorus under the direction of Miss Inez Coffin, in the near future. This operetta by William Rhys Herbert and Maud Elizabeth Inch is one of their most popular numbers, abounding as it does in music of exceptional beauty and piquancy and dialogue, which for cleverness and humor could not be surpassed. The supervising feels that one of the most pleasing merits of its production will be the chorus work, consisting as it will of work in one, two, three and occasionally four parts in both male and female voices. The production is interspersed with solos, duets, trios, etc. Thirty-five girls and twenty boys have enrolled for this work. The title role will be sung by Miss Marie Elfert. You can't afford to miss it.

Mrs. Hanna Cantwell and Miss Agnes Hicks, who have been spending the winter with E. E. Kelly and family, left Thursday for their home in Indianapolis, Ind.

The Roosevelt school will give "Midsummer Night's Dream" at the Page theater, Friday, May 7. They have been reading and rehearsing since February.

The Alumni informal, which is to take place Tuesday evening, promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. It will be given in the small Natatorium hall, the music being furnished by Messrs. Hazelrigg and Curms. Invitations have been extended to all alumni, high school students and a few outsiders. From all present indications it is thought that a most excellent crowd will attend.

Mrs. W. H. McGowan entertained the Wednesday Bridge club at her home on Mistletoe street, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ruby Bilger of Seattle is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Bert Coffin and Miss Dot Berry.
