Raymond Walters of Ashland visited with friends and relatives in this city Friday afternoon.

Get it at DeVoe's. Harold Cochran and William Vawter who have been spending their spring vacation visiting friends and relatives in this city will return to their studies at the U. of O. at Eugene tomorrow.

Why not get it at DeVoe's? The warm sunshine of the last two days has melted the snow in the mountains rapidly, causing a slight raise in most of the streams. Owing to the dry winter there has been less placer mining operations in Jackson county than at any time in years.

See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office Mail Tribune Bldg.

Sugar Bowl. Heavy traffic is noticeable the last three days of this week on the Southern Pacific, the morning trains being hauled by two engines due to the heavy exposition traffic. Eastern papers are beginning to carry advertisements to attract visitors to the fair. One in the Chicago Tribune of April 14 advises a trip to Portland and "see Mt. Hood and the Columbia River." Oregon is called the "wonder state." Most of the railroad advertisements to date tout a trip through the southwest as the best. Matinee, the Page today.

W. D. McBride, William Crawford and party of friends spent Friday fishing in Evans creek, making the journey by auto. A good catch of trout was the net result of their journey.

Mr. Armstrong was formerly engaged in the bakery and grocery business in this city.

The police and prosecuting attorney's office are looking for an Overland car that crashed into a farmer's wagon on the Pacific highway two nights ago, and sped on without stopping. It was first reported that a jitney belonging to Vrooman brothers, caused the accident, but later developments show that the jitney ran off the grade to prevent a collision, and that the unidentified Overland sped in between the wagon and jitney, upsetting the wagon, and continuing on its way. After the crash, the jitney driver sped after the Overland in an effort to catch it, but was outdistanced.

Candy, candy; get it at DeVoe's. Sugar Bowl. "My Man and Lady" was presented at the Star theater last night by the University of Oregon Dramatic club to a fair sized house under the auspices of the junior class of the high school. The collegians made a creditable showing, and were received with good favor by the audience.

The Wimer consolidated school district held an election Saturday to vote bonds for the erection of a school building near Wimer. There were 69 votes cast, 24 in favor of bonds and 26 against bonds. It is too bad that this matter cannot be settled without all this friction. The consolidated school will be a benefit to every person on the lower half of Evans valley and the quicker it is settled the better for all.—Argus.

Sugar Bowl. Another farm house was burned last Friday at about 12:30 noon. Prof Van Scoy was living in a house just across the creek from the Mayes creek school. Miss Hazel Moore was doing the house work as Mrs. Van Scoy is an invalid. The professor had just finished dinner when Hazel heard a crackling over head and rushing out doors found every crack pouring out smoke. Her first thought was to get the invalid out and as they got out she called to the professor. The school children and one neighbor heard the call and the many hands saved most of the goods. The only real loss to the professor and his wife were a number of presents and keepsakes.—Rogue River Argus.

The sale of seats started off lively this morning for the Monday's performance to be given by the Andrews Opera company. Every indication points to a great house and the performance will undoubtedly be the most complete operatic production that Medford has seen for many a day. Since the company's first appearance here they have been working together and everything goes smoothly both with singers and orchestra. The very low prices should be an inducement for everyone who loves music to avail themselves of this opportunity.

BIDS WANTED Bids will be received to April 22, 1915, for moving and erecting targets and cleaning brush from range one mile south of Medford. For particulars call on undersigned.

You Can Help In This Without Costing You Anything

Every time you ask for and get the article made in Oregon you help put an unemployed man, woman, boy or girl at work—you help increase the size of Oregon's payroll—you help encourage the growth and success of the factories we already have here—and you help attract more factories to Oregon. All of this develops Oregon. And what develops Oregon will also make you prosperous. Therefore patronize Oregon industry, and especially remember the following concerns who have subscribed to this campaign:
