The stage of the Star theater was banked with flowers Monday afternoon on the occasion of the Greater Medford Club musical, making a fitting setting for the musicians. Mrs. Thieroff, the hostess, being out of town, Mrs. Vernon Vawter took charge. The first number, a piano duet between Miss Fern Hutchison and Miss Venita Hamilton, was greatly appreciated, and they responded to the encore with the duet "Hungary," by Mowakowski.

Miss Florence Hazelrigg sang two songs, "Beloved," by Nettlinger, and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Tate, the latter being especially fine, and was partly repeated as an encore. In addition to the piano accompaniment by Mrs. Marsh, the violin was also played by Mr. James, making a great addition.

The violin solo by Mr. James was a sonata by Grieg, and although a long and difficult selection, was beautifully played and ably seconded by Mrs. Marsh, accompanist.

Mrs. Bert Anderson sang a delightful solo, "Burst the Apple Buds," by Emery, and responded with the popular ballad, "Bonnie Sweet Beside, the Maid of Dundee."

The accompaniment was played by Mrs. Hoke with great expression.

Mrs. Wold, the president of the musical club, was fortunate in securing Madam Zumwalt of the Andrews Opera company to sing a selection. The hearty applause brought a generous reply.

Miss Doris Sullivan's fine rendition of a scene between Aaron Burr and Mary Scudder came as a surprise to most of the audience and the response, another scene from "A Minister's Worry," was equally good.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Bernard, manager of the Star theatre, Mr. Owens sang two songs. His well trained voice made the songs especially pleasing.

The last number on the program, a vocal duet, "Mrs. Doctor and Mrs. Proctor," sung by Mrs. Bert Anderson and Miss Hazelrigg, made the hit of the afternoon, the acting and singing bringing out the comic sentiment to perfection.

The Alumni dance which was given Tuesday evening in the small Natatorium hall proved to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The music was furnished by Hazelrigg and Burns.

The following were present: The Misses Dorothy Thorne, Joan Budge, Leah Walthers, Marie Elfert, Ethyl Elfert, Dorothy Wicks, Mildred Antle, Kathryn Swam, Helen Hahl, Gladys Hinman, Blanche Hoyt, Esther Warner, Laura Gates, Hazel Brown, Mildred Wicks, Hartwig, Aileen Allen, Mabel Evans, Leah Shover, Ethel Price, Davis, Mildred Gage, and Margaret English; Messrs. Frank Ray, Horace Bromley, Ralph Pierce, Cole Holmes, Myran Powell, Carl Hartwig, Earl Hubbard, Adrian Vose, Lyle Walthers, Dick Hance, Harry Rosenberg, Elmer Foss, Virgil Strang, Carter Brandon, Geo. Gates, Milton Schuchard, Everett La Mar, Dave Rosenberg, Mr. Moore, Charles Ray, Francis Bennett, Lloyd Williamson, Bon Plymale, Edson Jerome, Roland Hubbard, Henry Sutor and Arthur Alder.

A reception was given by the St. Mark's church at the hall Tuesday evening for Bishop Sumner, who was making his first visit to Medford and the church. A very excellent program had been arranged and added much to the enjoyment of the evening, the decorations were very effective and reflected much credit upon the committee.

The bishop met everyone, both the church members and those not associated with St. Mark's, with the cordiality of an old friend, and carried away with him the high opinion and good will of all who were present.

Mrs. Max Hibbler who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. E. B. Webb of Central Point, returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y., Thursday.

Miss Isabelle Burbridge spent the week end with Miss Vera Jermata of Phoenix, where they attended the party given for Miss Elmer.

The Wednesday Study Club will meet at the library Wednesday afternoon April 28th, instead of April 21st.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Meeker. After the usual business and regular study, the topic being "Red Man's Land," a number of the ladies told briefly some of the most interesting things of the Woman's Home and Foreign Convention held at Grants Pass the 7th and 8th of April.

The notables were Miss Hestle of China and Miss Clark from Eastern Africa. They gave a very vivid description of the work being done in those countries through the foreign society. Mrs. Bodkin, field secretary for the home society illustrated what they were doing by stereopticon views showing what an extensive work is being done toward improving the moral conditions through all the countries governed by the United States.

Before adjournment it was voted to make the May meeting Mother's Jewels Day.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. W. H. Meeker and assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Root announced Wednesday evening the engagement of their daughter Miss Josephine Root to Mr. Seth M. Bullis, son of S. S. Bullis, the wedding to take place in the early summer.

Miss Root is well known in the valley and is one of the popular young ladies of the younger set. Mr. Bullis has only resided in the valley for about a year, having come here from Chicago to manage his father's mine at Sterling.

The engagement comes as a surprise to the many friends of the two young people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Piero entertained at 7 o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at their ranch home near Central Point in honor of Bishop Sumner, who is an old friend of the Piero family of Chicago. The guests were Bishop Sumner, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins, Mr. Chandler Egan, Signor Salvatore Giordano, Miss Madeline Pratt and Mrs. William Andrews. After dinner the party attended the reception given for the bishop at St. Mark's Hall in Medford.

The Shakespeare Study Club met at the library Monday evening, the leader Mr. B. F. Mulkey being absent from the city. It was unanimously voted that Miss Elizabeth Ferguson take charge of the evening. The play King Lear was begun and very ably and interestingly presented by Miss Ferguson.

Among the new names added to the roll are Mrs. Frank J. Newman, Mrs. Edward Campbell, Mrs. W. D. Welsh, Miss Welsh, Miss Ruth Coryell, and Miss Arra Harmon.

Mrs. Hendricks on Knight Street was the recipient of a surprise party given by the W. R. C. ladies Saturday afternoon, April 10. The occasion was the anniversary of her birth. After a social time refreshments were served and the guests departed for their homes wishing for more such treats.

Mrs. Helen Kent on East Main Street whose birthday was Sunday, April 11, was agreeably surprised by a number of the G. A. R. Post and W. R. C., who with refreshments met at her home Monday evening. As usual when the Post and W. R. C. meet for a social a time to be remembered is had.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frame, Mr. Fay and Miss Thomas, all visited Medford Thursday evening to attend the meeting of the Iowa club.

W. Tyler Smith and wife of San Francisco will visit friends in this city a few days next week en route to Sheridan, Oregon.

Mrs. J. E. Stewart entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home on West Tenth street Wednesday afternoon.

The Tuesday Luncheon Club met at the home of Mrs. James Dunlop on West Main Street Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. George Treichler entertained the Five Hundred Club at his home on South Holly Street Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosenberg left Monday evening for Seattle, Washington.

Mr. Kunzman's Sunday school class of girls, "The Hustlers," gave a party to Mr. Cansday's class of boys and Miss Fielder's class of girls in the big tent adjoining the M. E. church Friday evening. The tent was prettily decorated with laurel, manzanita and apple blossoms. The evening was spent in social games until 10:30, when refreshments were served, after which they dispersed, declaring they had had the best time ever. The following were present: Dorris Lane, Hazel Wiley, Irene Franks, Eunice McLaughlin, Alice Steinhart, Edna Marquis, Vera Roundtree, Pearl Stewart, Julia Wiley, Edna Stewart, Anna Robertson, Maud Steinhart, Ida Whitlock, Maybell Daniels, Georgia Whitlock, Margaret English, Blanch Maul, Virginia Carder, Ruth Daniels, Mary Tinker, Edna Gore, Mary Gore, Eva Osborne, Bernice Balcome, Myrtella Williams, Julia Fielder, Mrs. George Kunzman, Ward Van Dermark, Herbert Lunt, Mark Maxwell, George Leonard, Noto Lindley, Leon Lawton, Bernard Roberts, Robert Lindley, Dvairn Goodman, Curtis Darby, Miles Power, Geo. Maddox, William Holloway, Howard Wines, Dean Carder, Phil Armstrong, Jean Lennox, Walter Marquis, Jack Heath, H. A. Cannaday, George Kunzman.

Last Wednesday a number of the old friends from Phoenix and vicinity of Mrs. W. R. Coleman, went down in a body on the early interurban and went to her home in Medford and surprised her. It is needless to say they took baskets filled with the fat of the land, for the Phoenix bunch is noted for good eats. There were cake, salads, chickens, olives, pickles and cream by the gallon. The host supplied coffee, bread and lemon pies, and laid covers for twenty. Those present were: Messames M. Rose, L. A. Reams, F. E. and A. S. Furry, E. Reams, J. Graffis, W. E. Anderson, W. S. Stancliff, J. M. Rader, E. G. Coleman, J. E. Roberts, C. Carey, C. Hutton, W. R. Coleman; Miss Fay Carver, Messrs. Rader, Graffis, Coleman, Elbert, Russell.

A very pleasant social affair in the way of a surprise birthday party on William Davis was held at Rev. Carsten's home on West Main street Friday evening, about fifty friends and relatives being present, including the Rev. Carsters and the Baptist deacons and their wives. Those present were: Messrs. and Messames Allaway, P. H. Daily, J. G. Hibbard and children, C. W. Davis and children, Fred Pardin, Fouts, S. L. Bennett, Carlow, George Eades and children, Everett Eades, E. G. Stewart, Bowling, T. Davis and children, E. S. Stinson, Smith, H. C. Garnett, Wrisley; Miss Boyd, Rev. Carstens and Mr. and Mrs. William Davis.

Mrs. Edward Charles Root and her sister, Miss Hazel Putney, entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Root, 614 Plum street. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Edith Wilson, who is to be married next week to Thomas Gifford. The evening was spent in music and cards, after which a dainty two-course luncheon was served. Miss Wilson was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. The guests were: Misses Edith Wilson, Esther Harrison, Elizabeth Richards, Laura Richards, Stella Kribs, Ruby Lofland, Marie Lofland, Mary Trowbridge, Norma Gage, Mildred Gage, Laura Treichler and Mrs. Edna Wick.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Garretson, at 519 South Central, Friday afternoon, the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alfretha, was announced to Mr. Herbert Launspach. The wedding to take place the early part of June. A dainty luncheon was served, the decorations being apple blossoms and lilacs, with hand-painted place cards of white lilacs. Those present were: Misses Edna Jacobs, Stella Kribs, Ina Coffin, Christina Jacobs, Agness Broad, Ruby Burke, Miss Launspach, Alfretha Garretson, Thelma McCoy, Mrs. Launspach and Mrs. Garretson.

The dinner and dance given by the Iowa Club Thursday evening at St. Mark's hall, was one of the most enjoyable and best attended functions yet given by this progressive society. At the dinner, for Iowans alone, covers were laid for 130. This number was augmented during the evening to over 200. Mr. E. V. Coffin, the president, acted as toastmaster. Mr. C. W. Hoon, the retiring president, responded to "Early Recollections," which were of a most amusing nature. Attorney F. W. Mears followed with "The Hawk-eyes." Both men are able speakers and their toasts were much enjoyed. Following the dinner was a program of unusual merit. The names of those participating will be sufficient comment:

Solo, Clarence Meeker, Mrs. Meeker, accompanist. Character song, Mr. Fleming, Inez Coffin, accompanist. Reading, Mrs. Elmhurst. Solo, G. W. Wilson. Encore "Under De Soudern Moon" composed by Mr. Wilson. Great interest is being manifested in the production of "A Nautical Knot, or, The Belle of Barnstapole," an opera by William Rhys Herbert and Maud Elizabeth Inch, by the local high school, under the direction of Miss Inez Coffin, music supervisor. E. E. Andrews, who is a public spirited citizen as well as successful theatrical man, has kindly proffered his services as coach for the "Sailors' Hornpipe." It is felt that these specialty dances, combined with the beautiful music and piquant dialogue, will furnish an entertainment of unusual brilliancy.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do these knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses usually looked forward to with such concern. There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women. You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. It has helped a host of mothers to a complete recovery. It is prepared only by Bradford Regulator Co., 301 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes.

EVERY WOMAN WINING THEATRE WEDNESDAY EVE

Though the form of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," which Henry W. Savage will disclose at the Vining theatre April 21, is based on the old morality play, "Everyman," only in immediately labeling the characters does the work resemble the ancient tome. You discover upon the entrance of every character of the play exactly his intention. Abstract qualities take concrete form, but there is no preaching. When Youth enters she appears as a young girl; Age is a hoary old man; Passion, a strutting actor, and Wealth a sordid millionaire. Everywoman, herself, is young and beautiful. She represents the average young woman of our day, therefore in the adventures that befall her mothers have found a salutary lesson for their daughters. It is an illustrated transcript from life, showing the universal experience of woman who goes into the world in search of love. The fawners and flatterers she meets, the dangers she encounters, the true and false friends who pass through her life and have an influence upon it, are all graphically set forth. "I wish every young woman could see 'Everywoman' and learn the great lesson of truth it teaches," wrote Rabbi Hugo Heyman, after witnessing the play. "In 'Everywoman' you are sitting in the grandstand watching yourself go by," said Elbert Hubbard, editor of "The Philistine."

Men of all races and creeds have found inspiration in "Everywoman." "Everywoman" is the greatest play since Shakespeare," enthusiastically wrote Dr. Appleton Morgan, president of the New York Shakespeare society, while Paul Armstrong, author of "Salomy Jane" and "Alias Jimmy Valentine," said: "The greatest play I have ever seen; the best production ever given a manuscript."

The Truth About "Twilight Sleep"

Modern Miracle of Painless Childbirth

Monday's Paper Will Tell About It

Childbirth without a pang! Motherhood without the agony!

The answer of science to woman's ancient cry for relief in the hour of her travail.

Maternity with remarkable conservation of the general nerve forces so that the vital energies are not exhausted and convalescence is speedy! And the chances of invalidism minimized!

These are some of the amazing claims made for scopolamin, the drug by which "Twilight Sleep" is induced.

The Mail Tribune is enabled to give detailed information concerning this "miracle drug" to its readers through a series of special articles written by Dr. Francis B. Wakefield of San Francisco, a conceded authority on the scopolamin treatment.

Scopolamin, its effects, the methods of administering it, and what may be hoped for from "Twilight Sleep" in general practice, is discussed in a readily understood way by Dr. Wakefield.

He has treated seventy scopolamin maternity cases in his hospital without a single failure; is a member of the American Gynecological Society, is in close touch with the Freiburg clinic in Germany and many hospitals administering "Twilight Sleep" in America, and has a high professional standing.

The first article will deal with the experiences of a woman who went through the "Twilight Sleep" and the difference between a birth under that treatment and under the old way. Then will follow the first of Dr. Wakefield's articles on the drug, how it is administered, its effect and the results. These articles are of vital interest to women. The first appears Monday.
