OSCAR AND ADOLPH

Evidently the News Is Not Good News

AT THEIR GAY PRANKS

Sunday services will be the opening of the Question Box at the 8 p. m. service. Solid answers will be given by the pastor to the following:

Is a person justified in going to some quiet spot with his family and some good literature to spend a restful Sunday, when he has no opportunity for a vacation?

Can one live a Christian life without belonging to any special church?

Why does the Apostle's Creed say, "the Holy Catholic Church?"

What is the "Scriptural" description of the Sabbath?

Necessarily does one have to attend church to be a good Christian?

Should one follow his own belief, or that which the church teaches, providing he can not take the church standpoint?

What gender is the Holy Spirit? Was Judas created for the job, or was it thrust on him as a fit subject?

How far should we feel our faith will take us?

The subject of the morning sermon "Old Doctrines in New Light." Evening sermon, subject, "The Supremacy of Christ."

Special music by the choir with happy congregational singing will add greatly to the attractiveness of these services.
