

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There's a new face in the Portland bureau. It's the smiling and classic phiz of James R. Kelly, late of Medford, "the best town in the U. S.," according to James himself. Kelly was unanimously elected circuit chairman of the San Francisco North to succeed Smith. You'll have to be good now; the Irishman carries a big stick.—Telegraphers Journal.

To fill the vacancy in the San Francisco relay office, we have that well-known Falstaffian guy, Roy ("Pat") Bain. Previous to signing up with U. P., "Pat" had achieved considerable fame as a jitney bus driver. If he could drive a whizz buggy half as fast and accurately as he can telegraph, he must have been some pilot, says the Telegrapher's Journal. Mr. Bain was formerly manager of a brokers office in Medford.

Medford baseball enthusiasts are making an effort to secure the return of Pitcher Batiste, who played a few games with the team last year, and was drafted by the Portland Colts, only to be shunted to a league in Montana. Batiste is tired of the perpetual wind of that section, and wants to return to this valley. The line-up of the Medford team is strong with the exception of the pitcher's box, and the addition of a man like Batiste, would put all departments on a par. It is expected that the first game will be played with an amateur team from Portland early in May, and that afterwards a schedule of games will be arranged with Butte Falls, Eagle Point, Table Rock, Agate and Gold Hill.

LAWSON DETAILS STRIKE HISTORY

TRINIDAD, Colo., April 30.—John R. Lawson, on trial for the alleged murder of John Nimmo, took the stand as a witness in his own defense today. It was announced that his testimony would close the case for the defense.

Lawson testified that he had counseled the striking coal miners to obey the laws and refrain from violence. He said he had imported arms into the Ludlow tent colony for defense, after being advised by attorneys that such action was legal. Lawson gave in detail his connection with the strike.

VANCOUVER BRIDGE FIRES INCENDIARY

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 30.—City Engineer Fellows today made a careful examination of Cambie street and Granville street bridges, where fires occurred yesterday and announced that he was satisfied that the fires could not have been accidental. The only watchman at Granville street, which took fire at 6 o'clock, was the swing tender, who was called to Cambie street at 5:30 and did not return for an hour. City Engineer Fellows says that the fire at Granville street, lighted during the absence of the watchman, was started with a blazing handful of waste, apparently soaked in oil.

DUKE NICHOLAS IN PERFECT HEALTH

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Russian ambassador today received the following cablegram from the minister of foreign affairs in Petrograd: "Please contradict, most categorically, false reports spread by the German press, according to which the Grand Duke Nicholas was said to be ill. The grand duke, commander-in-chief, is in perfect health, and has been accompanying his majesty, the emperor, in his recent visit to Galicia."

TRY TO AGREE ON RAILROAD WAGES

CHICAGO, April 30.—Members of the board of arbitration in the western railroad wage case, after a curtailed night's sleep, resumed today their efforts to agree on award, the time limit for announcement of which expires at 4:00 o'clock this afternoon.

The members of the board are Judge Peter Pritchard, presiding judge of the United States court of appeals for the fourth circuit, chairman; Charles Nagel, former secretary of commerce and labor; W. L. Park, vice president of the Illinois Central; H. E. Byram, vice president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Frederick Burgess, assistant grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; and Timothy Shea, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

NORTH POWDER SWEEP BY DISASTROUS FIRE

BAKER, Ore., April 30.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed half the business section of North Powder, Ore., early today, causing a loss of about $95,000 to nearly a dozen firms. The blaze started in a large two-story warehouse of Postrom & Phlecker and spread so rapidly that the combined efforts of the fire department and citizen volunteers could not check it until it had spent itself a block and a half away. Men and women fought in the snow, bitter cold and raging wind without effect. The North Powder hotel was among the buildings destroyed.

SPITE FENCE CASE IN CIRCUIT COURT

The suit of C. C. Nelson against E. S. Campbell, both living near Talent, to compel the last named to remove two fences, alleged to be obstructing a road, is being heard before Judge F. M. Colkins in the circuit court at Jacksonville today. Fourteen neighbors of the two parties in the suit are called as witnesses. Attorney Porter J. Neff represents Campbell and Attorney Gus Newbury, Nelson.

It is alleged in the complaint that Campbell built the "spite" fences across the road, after purchasing the land adjoining, without legal action, and the plaintiff asks that the obstructions be ordered removed. Most of the witnesses are interested in the opening of the road, which has been used for years by residents of Wagner creek.

It is expected the case will be concluded today.
