

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. P. Rutherford will deliver a lecture at the St. Mark's Hall next Monday at 8 p. m. on the subject "Destiny of Men and Nations." This is the question of the hour as many nations are now at war and the financial and business conditions of every country on earth greatly disturbed. Many are seeking to know the cause, what will be the result and what will follow after. Mr. Rutherford, who is known throughout the English speaking world as amongst the ablest Bible lecturers, holds that the Bible long ago foretold present conditions and likewise set forth the immediate result and the final destiny of nations and men. For several years past he has traveled extensively in the various countries of Europe, Asia and Africa. He is a well known lawyer from New York City who gives his Sundays to Bible lectures. Mr. Rutherford will be introduced by Hon. W. I. Vawter.
