EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Miss Mabel Hanson and Charles Mething drove in from Miss Hanson's home near Climax last Saturday, took dinner with us and then went on up to Trail, so as to attend the dance that night. W. E. Butler and son called for dinner Saturday. They had been engaged sawing with their machine a carload of wood for the county to be used on the road roller. E. A. Hildreth of Butte Falls, Thos. Honerick of Lake Creek and Nick Young and Charles Mason spent Saturday night with us. Sunday the Eagle Point ball team went to Table Rock to play against the Table Rock team, and the crowd that went from here completely stripped Sam Harnish & Son's livery stable, and Mr. Harnish had to make two trips with his Ford to carry all that wanted to go. The result of the game was that Table Rock came off second best, the game standing 6 to 26, but I heard one of the ladies remark that what beat the Table Rock boys was that Eagle Point had all the hooters and that she had yelled so much that she could hardly talk. Our boys seem to think that they are "the H" and there is some talk of their challenging the champion team of New York. I understand that the Tolo team is coming here to play next Sunday and then the fur will fly. Edward Trowbridge, wife and daughter of Medford, motored out and took dinner with Mrs. Howlett Sunday. Mrs. Henry Meyer and two of her sons came out and attended Catholic church Sunday and took dinner at the Sunnyside, and so did John W. Smith and wife, and later in the day Amos Ayres and Miss Mae Truisty. Sunday afternoon I drove out to the Reese Creek schoolhouse to hear

OSCAR AND ADOLPH

Oscar Makes a Bad Break

AT THEIR GAY PRANKS

Rev. Simmons, preach. There was a good attendance and good attention. Before preaching the Sabbath school was held and the teachers and officers seem to understand their business. At the close of the school it was announced that Miss Rose Nealon's school will close Friday, the 7th, and on Saturday night there will be an ice cream social and a program by the school for the benefit of the Sunday school, and that on Sunday the Bible class of the Methodist church of Medford were coming out to meet with the Reese Creek Sunday school.

On my way home I met John Biglan of Sams Valley. He had been up to Pool hill, near the S. E. soda springs, and reported that the snow was two inches deep up there and that the weather was very cold. At Clements was also among the cullers Sunday. I just learned today (Tuesday) that Mrs. Charlotta Brown, recently from Vancouver, B. C., was here visiting her nieces and nephews in the Brown family, and I heard Royal G. Brown say that she thought that the Rogue River valley was the most beautiful place on earth, and she has traveled some.

I went to Medford Monday to attend the funeral of one of our old neighbors and a warm friend of our family, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Murphy, of Ashland, and was glad to meet five out of seven of her sons. The pastor of the Christian church, of which she was a member, delivered a very appropriate funeral discourse in the chapel, before the interment, which seemed to be appreciated by the large number of her old friends and neighbors who met to do honor to her memory.

Fred Dutton has a mare which gave birth to a colt a few days ago that has five feet. The fifth seems to be attached to one of its forelegs, near the pastern joint. Arthur D. Moore of Elk creek came in Tuesday morning and sold to Geo. Brown & Sons 455 pounds of mohair and then I began to inquire of Frank Brown about the goat industry in the surrounding country, and he gave me the following names of persons he had bought mohair from this spring, and he said that he had already bought and shipped to Salem, Or., $2500 worth of mohair this spring. The following is the list of names he gave me: D. Walsh, L. Dorren, F. Lay, Dan Foller, A. D. Moore, E. Dabaek, William Butler, R. A. Tucker, Ed Tucker, A. Bieberstedt, F. Adler, Art Vestal, Sam Coy, W. E. Hammett, T. E. Loomis, George Austin, Charles Veight, A. McCabe and several others whose names had slipped his memory, so the reader will see that the goat industry is getting to be of considerable importance in this section, and in addition to this Ed Pottinger has been out here buying up all that he could. With this letter Mrs. Ed Woller sends an ad to the Mail Tribune offering a lot of household goods for sale. E. Hurd, our local electrician, is engaged in repairing the motor at the rock crusher, which burned out this (Tuesday) morning. I heard while looking for items for the Mail Tribune Tuesday morning that some of the dogs in the neighborhood were killing sheep, and that on Monday night they had killed quite a number of old sheep and thirty or forty lambs for one man. R. A. Holmes, the insurance man, came over Monday to see about the burning of the A. Corbin barn last week. I see that I am getting my letter too long again, so will keep the rest of the Eaglets for next time.

Each bidder shall be required to deposit with his bid five per cent of the amount of his bid, which shall be forfeited to the county in case the award is made to him, and if he fails, neglects or refuses, for a period of ten days after such award is made, to enter into the contract and file his bond in the manner required by and to the satisfaction of the county court.

WILLOW SPRINGS

Miss Bernice Smith is visiting in Ashland this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parker are the proud parents of an eight-pound baby girl, born Saturday, May 1. Messrs. William, Frank and Everett McKee were dinner guests of Miss McNasser Tuesday evening. George Iverson and family of Gold Hill enjoyed Sunday with Mrs. Porter and mother. The Messames W. D. Clarke and Harry Davison entertained the Parent-Teachers' club at the home of the former lady Saturday afternoon. The program illustrated Mothers' day and was, indeed, enjoyed by the ladies present. Election of officers was then held, re-electing Mrs. R. W. Elden president, Mrs. Julius Berkholtz vice-president, Miss Rose Jones secretary and treasurer and Miss Hazel Taylor librarian. William Thompson enjoyed a visit with Dr. Gordon McCracken of Chicago Sunday. These gentlemen are friends of twenty years' acquaintance. Dr. McCracken is well pleased with the Rogue River valley. Messrs. R. W. and J. Wordy Elden were guests of Colonel Mims Tuesday night at the Elks' smoker in Medford. Those who are orchard lovers should not miss seeing Mr. Sisty's orchard of pears and apples, which at this time of the year is very beautiful. His block of 5-year-old pears has had wonderful growth. It will be a pleasure to any one to inspect this well-kept orchard. Professor Reimer and wife were callers in this district this week. Frank Palmer and wife, Mr. Torgey and Miss Rose Jones were dinner
