LAUGHS
Good Prospect
 "If I could get some one to invest a thousand pounds in that scheme of mine I could make some money."
 "How much could you make?"
 "Why, a thousand pounds."

The Man Knows
 She—A proverb says that fruit is gold in the morning and lead at night, meaning that it's bad for one

Something Wrong
 "I thought you advertised that this place was a health resort?" said the fat man.
 "It is," replied the hotel clerk.
 "What is the matter with it?"
 "Lots the matter," replied the fat man. "I've been here two days, and I never saw such an unhealthy bunch of people in my life."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Too Finicky
 "Why are you fooling so long with that clock, Hortense?"
 "I am cleaning its hands, madam."
 "Well, just wipe 'em. You need not manure 'em."—Judge.

Woman's Logic

JINGO GARDNER GETS WILSONIAN REBUFF

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Representative Gerard, while at the white house today getting permission for some constituents to visit the parlors of the mansion, issued a statement on the Lusitania disaster, urging that President Wilson deal firmly with Germany and giving his ideas of what Colonel Roosevelt would do.
 When Secretary Tumulty heard of it, he issued a statement saying the white house resented Mr. Gardner's "using the executive office as an annex to his press bureau."

Steward Tells of Last Seconds of Lu-siania—Victims Die Like Rats—Saw Death Agent's Track—Says Three Shells Struck Cunarder—Scenes Indescribable.

QUEENSTOWN, May 8, 3:55 p. m.— A cabin steward of the Lusitania today gave the following account of the sinking of the vessel:
 "The passengers, a large number of whom were seriously injured by the explosion of the torpedoes and by splinters from the wreckage were all at luncheon. The weather was beautifully clear and calm. We were going at about 16 knots and were seven or eight miles south of Galley Head when we were struck by one torpedo and in a minute or two after by two more.

"The first explosion staggered us and the others finished us, shattering the gigantic ship. The Lusitania disappeared in 20 minutes after the first torpedo struck.

"The passengers were surprisingly cool. Nearly all the first class passengers were drowned. Most of those saved were second and third class passengers.

"We did not get a moment's notice from the submarine. It appeared suddenly above the surface on our starboard bow and discharged a torpedo at us. The submarine disappeared as suddenly as it came into view. We saw the track the torpedo made in the water and we got it fairly amidships. The Lusitania listed forward and started to settle. Then the submerged submarine discharged two more torpedoes which also struck us and our ship sank in 20 minutes.

"After the submarine dived it was not seen again. It went off after accomplishing its work and did not attempt to save men, women and children, but left them to drown like rats in a trap.
 "The scene was frightful as the ship went down. A great many persons were carried down at once by the suction of the big vessel. About 100 persons jumped overboard and clung to floating wreckage or upturned boats which were blown off the ship by the explosion."

CUNARD'S CLASS ATTACK 'MURDER'

LIVERPOOL, May 8, 1:52 p. m.— Alfred Booth, manager-director of the Cunard Steamship company, made the following statement today:
 "I desire to send my heartfelt sympathy, wherein all the Cunard directors and managers join, to relatives and friends of the American passengers murdered by the German submarines.
 "I am certain the whole civilized world is as one in grief for the sorrow and suffering caused, and in loathing for this treacherous attack on innocent lives, so many of whom were women and children."

FROHMAN, KING OF PLAYWRIGHTS, LOST

QUEENSTOWN, May 8.—The body of Charles Frohman, the theatrical manager of New York, has been recovered and brought to Queenstown, where it is now being embalmed.
 While officials explained that only the names of Charles Frohman, Mrs.
 Amelia McDonald and Patrick Callon had been reported as positively known to have perished, little hope was entertained that any of the Americans of whom no word has come, have been saved.

A. G. Vanderbilt Perished LONDON, May 8, 10:24 a. m.—Alfred Gwaine Vanderbilt apparently perished when the Lusitania went down, according to a message to Ambassador Page from the United States consul at Queenstown.

SAW PERISCOPE OF SEAWOLF 1000 YDS.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 8.—Mrs.
 Ernest Cooper of Toronto, Can., who is visiting here, received a cablegram from her husband at Queenstown today announcing that he was safe and that he had saved a little girl after the Lusitania had been torpedoed.
 Mr. Cooper, a newspaperman, in a story cabled from Queenstown last night by the Associated Press, said he saw the periscope of the submarine while he was chatting with a friend at the rail of the Lusitania, and later the conning tower of the submarine about 1000 yards away.
 Immediately after he saw the track of the torpedo. He mentions Miss Helena Smith as the girl he put in a boat.

REQUEST GERMANS FOR FULL REPORT

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The United States government today directed Ambassador Gerard to make inquiry of the German government for its report of the facts concerning the sinking of the Lusitania. This became known after conferences between high officials.
 The ambassador will be instructed to make his preliminary inquiry as a basis for steps that may be eventually taken. Officials privately said the situation was grave.

CABLE LIST SAVED SHOWS 43 YANKEES

LONDON, May 8, 10:28 a. m.—
 The American consul at Queenstown in a telegram to the United States embassy said that he had cabled to the state department at Washington a list containing the names of forty-three Americans who have been saved.
 The message adds: "There may be another dozen Americans not in touch with me. I also believe that one tender load of survivors landed at Clonakilty. The survivors will proceed at noon or later this afternoon.
 The total survivors at Queenstown number 634. About 63 bodies remain unidentified."

MRS. CARMAN MURDER TRIAL GIVEN JURY

MINEOLA, N. Y., May 8.—The case of Mrs. Florence C. Carman, on trial for the second time on the charge of murdering Mrs. Louise Bailey, in Dr. Carman's office at Freeport the night of June 30 last, went to the jury late this afternoon.

More Survivors Saved
 LONDON, May 8, 1:50 p. m.—A further telegram has just been received by the British officials from Cork stating that forty-five more survivors from the Lusitania have been landed at Queenstown from a drifter.

CAPT. TURNER IS AMONG SAVED

LONDON, May 8, 8:02 a. m.— Captain Turner of the Lusitania stood at his post on the bridge until his ship went down and was rescued three hours afterward, wearing a life belt, according to D. A. Thomas, the Cardiff, Wales, coal magnate.
 "Our course was shaped for shore immediately after the torpedo struck," he said. "There is a difference of opinion as to whether the steamer was struck by more than one torpedo, but I heard only one."

Samuel London's World-Renowned Photo-Play in Five Big Thrilling Reels
The Most Graphic Exposure of the White Slave Traffic Ever Attempted.
 Produced at a Cost of $20,000

This is the photoplay that was seized and stopped by the Seattle police at the Melbourne theater last week. It was afterward released without prejudice, and at the urgent solicitation of reform workers in that city it has been engaged for a return date at the same theater.
 If you sympathize with crooked police work and the ruin of innocent young girls DON'T COME. You will be offended. If you would know the trail of the serpent from homes like your own to the gateways of hell in a city's "restricted district" go to the It Theater tonight and see a powerful sermon without words. You will come away a cleaner-minded man or woman.

Hejen Knight, physician in charge of the Magdalene Home, New York City, says of this film: "The presentation of your picture, 'The Inside of the White Slave Traffic,' in every town and hamlet in the United States would mean the elimination of white slavery."
