war. To Withdraw Gerard

The withdrawal of Ambassador Gerard without actually severing diplomatic relations, have been suggested in some quarters as one way of indicating the feeling of the American government. Other officials intimate that the complete severance of relations until complete eparation and apology is made, probably would conform to the wishes of the American public opinion, Before any such step is reached, however, certain preliminary steps most likely will be followed. As soon as Ambassador Gerard's report from the German government on the facts of the sinking of the Lusitania are received it is expected that a note will be sent demanding full reparation under the warning of the United of American vessels "or lives," The case of the American steamer Gulf- such intention at present. light, torpedoed without warning, the attack by German airmen on the
