NOW IS TIME TO SPRAY FIRST BROOD OF CODDLING MOTH

The first adult codling moth of which we have any record for this season emerged on the 13th of April Since that time the moths have been coming out very irregularly, no general emergence as yet having taken place. During the short warm periods from the 15th to the 19th, and from the 26th to the 29th of April, the evening temperatures were such as to favor egg deposition. The moths however, were not out in sufficient numbers to cause concern, especially Since the fifth of May, the evening three requirements for a physical ef. home in North Talent, or twilight temperatures have been ficient boy or girl will be presented have reason to suppose that eggs are consequently being deposited, although we have not yet discovered tioned association, and any child who them on the foliage. Allowing for copulation and incubation periods, ation to win in any undertaking will the first "worms" are due to appear about the 15th to 20th of May.

To intercept this brood of "worms" the next arsenate of lead spray, at the rate of four pounds to 100 gallons, should be applied between the 15th and 20th of this month.

The damp weather which has intervened since the last scab spray makes another application for the control of this disease necessary at this time.
