WAR FEVER STRIKES ITALY (Continued from Page One.) of the opinion that the king will probably choose a new cabinet composed of men who have not taken part in the heated exchanges of the last week.

Another suggestion advanced is that the day has arrived for the formation of a great national cabinet similar to that of France, a ministry to include the leading figures of all parties to which there shall be entrusted the momentous decision now before the country.

War Fever Spreads ROME, May 14.—The war fever continues to spread throughout Italy and the manifestations in the capital are particularly impressive. A crowd which favored Italy's intervention went to the hotel at which Gabriele d'Annunzio is stopping until he appeared on a balcony and spoke fervently in favor of war. From d'Annunzio's hotel the crowd went to the palace of Dowager Queen Margherita and acclaimed her wildly.

Pro-war enthusiasts engaged in a brief struggle with neutralists who were holding a meeting in the Place San Silvestro. In the clash the windows of a German cafe and another establishment were broken. Mounted police cleared the square, but the demonstration was continued for some time in the central part of the city.

ROME, via Paris, May 14, 5:20 a. m.—The meeting of ministers yesterday afternoon was not, strictly speaking, a cabinet council, according to the Giornale d'Italia. Newspaper Comments Portland (Or.) Telegram: The protest which the government has sent to Germany will meet with the fullest measure of enlightened expectation upon the part of the American people.

Boise (Ida.) Statesman: It is a "showdown." If the president's words mean anything it is that Germany must abandon its policy of naval anarchy or accept the consequences of our "other action."

Tacoma, (Wash.) News: The note is most courageous but patterned in restraint. If rebuffed, and that is by no means unlikely what then? Probably it means a state of war, if not actual warfare; it means in either event a united nation.

Salt Lake Herald Republican: It is gratifying to observe the president it at last correctly interpreting public opinion. Wherever these demands may ultimately take the country, even to the last resource of which the president hints, the people will cheerfully follow.

NOTE TO GERMANY PRAISED BY CLARK

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., May 14.—Speaker Champ Clark in a prepared statement said today:

"The American note in all human probability will rank as a great state paper. . . . While many of our people are prone to look upon diplomacy as of little value, nevertheless the fact remains that diplomacy has hitherto ironed out several quarrels and entanglements which seemed to preface our entrance into war.

"I have no doubt that President Wilson will succeed in this case in preserving peace with honor."

SOCIALIST PARTY CONCLUDES SESSION

DR. BERNHARDT DENBURG REFUSES TO TALK WAR

NEW YORK, May 14.—Replying to a written question asking for his views on the American note to Germany, Dr. Bernhard Denburg, former colonial secretary of the German empire, sent back to interviewers a paper on which was written above his signature:

"Ever since my arrival here I have made it a point not to mix with any matter under official discussion between the United States and Germany. I think it wise not to deviate from this policy and I have no statement to make."

Seattle Times: It is a temperate and meaningful note. Ninety percent of the American people will stand behind the president in his efforts to carry out those real American declarations of true patriotism.

CARLETON EMERY, ONE OF THE FORTY CLOWNS WITH SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS

Speaking of clowns, brings forth the fact that the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West is to visit this city Monday, May 17, and when it comes the genus clown will be present in forty species. As to their fashions— Time was when the clown merely had to be funny. His work was that of the impromptu. He followed the principal riding act around the ring and made faces, or tumbled on his left eye as his fancy bade—and the audience liked it. But that time is gone now. For now the clown must be a sort of theatrical magnate on a small scale. He must have his set acts, which he and his assistants perform for the promotion of mirth beneath the spreading "white tops."
