

Change of Management Sale

Now that we are through with our invoice and the stock has been turned over to the new concern, we are out for business and to make our mark among the shopping public of Medford

CROWDED TO THE GUARDS THE FIRST DAY

Sale Opened Today and Will Continue the Remainder of the Week and as an introduction we launch this big Change of Management Sale, realizing well that the first impression is the important and lasting one, we have spared no effort in making this the banner event of the season

NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE

In taking this stock we find that a great portion of it has just recently been purchased in the eastern markets--Summer Materials which you have not had occasion to want as yet, Ready-to-wear Garments, such as you will need for the next six months to come, and all this is included in this sale. Every garment in the store, every yard of material, for we have many changes to make in every department. Some to be closed out entirely, others reduced

ALL READY-TO-WEAR and MILLINERY

MUST GO AT SOME PRICE

This being seasonable merchandise naturally gets the biggest cut.
Millinery divided in just four big lots---the entire stock.
