A large number of people took possession of the Lutheran parsonage Thursday evening and gave Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Wilker a farewell reception, the first reception that the Lutheran congregation has ever had in its seventeen years of existence. Rev. Wilker has during his four years' ministry in this city conformed about thirty young people; and now young America asserted itself, disregarded German conservatism and boldly planned and executed for their beloved pastor and his wife a very successful affair. Miss Frances Greb, the chairman and promoter of the entertainment, was ably assisted by Miss Ella Witte, Miss Louise Enslie, Miss Elizabeth Wolff and Mrs. Matilda Schultz. The following program was rendered:

- Piano solo, Miss Louise Enslie.
- Remarks, in German, J. H. Huenners.
- Violin solo, Paul Enslie.
- Piano duet, Ethel and Stella Anderson.
- Vocal solo, Miss Loraine Bliton.
- As a token of friendship Rev. and Mrs. Wilker were presented with a small gift, Miss Greb making the presentation speech, which was gratefully acknowledged by Rev. Wilker. Light refreshments were served. O. N. Nelson acting as toastmaster. The party departed shortly before midnight.
- Rev. Holl of Mt. Vernon, Washington, has been called and is expected to take Rev. Wilker's place.

Thursday evening the Parent-Teachers' associations of Medford gave a farewell reception to the teachers in the high school building. The floral decorations of roses and ivy were unusually beautiful and the following program was much enjoyed and heartily endorsed: Piano solo, Miss Drew; vocal solo, Miss Hinman; reading, Mrs. Grace T. Tarbell; violin solo, Miss Flynn; farewell address to teachers, B. F. Mulkey; vocal solo, Miss Bryan. They then adjourned to the basement, where light refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. It is unusual to see such perfect harmony between parent and teacher as exists in our city, and the high standard of our schools must, in great measure, be due to this. May we have many more of these get-together meetings in the future.

A farewell party was given at the home of C. A. Adams Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Goldie Moore, who, with her brother Jack, will leave soon to join their parents in eastern Oregon. The MAZDA Index to the Proper Lighting of Homes

The letter "C" indicates ceiling fixture. "W" indicates wall brackets. When the space is marked with an "X" it means that the size of the top of that column is for the room in question. Lamps marked MAZDA regardless of brand, give three times as much light as carbon lamps for the same cost of operation.
