

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Rosa Cline was here Thursday looking over the blight situation and reports that our orchardists are doing all they can to control the disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton attended the picnic at Applegate last Monday and reported a pleasant time.

The children's day exercises for the Sunday school in this vicinity will be held at Tolo near the site of old Fort Lane on the 15th of June.

The Arrow Head's presented their popular play for the second time at the school house last Saturday night and were greeted by a crowded house.

John Fredinburg of Sam's valley was through here last Friday looking for two young horses that had strayed from his pasture.

Miss Marion Towne, Jackson county's lady representative, made our school a pleasant call last Friday morning and talked to the pupils for some length on the mysteries of law making and other things connected with our government.

Miss Towne shows by her talk that she is well qualified for the position she holds.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pelton were among those from Sam's valley who attended the play here Saturday night.

The Table Rock school will close next Friday, June 4th, for the summer vacation and the children are preparing a program to be rendered that evening.

School Supervisors Peterson and Chiles were doing business in these parts last Friday and Saturday.

Will Lydiard and sister Helen motored out from Medford Sunday and spent the day with home folks.

Oliver Pendland and family are moving to Talent this week where they expect to make their home for some time. Mr. Pendland having a large ranch leased in that vicinity.

Rev. Mark C. Davis of Wolf Creek held services at the school house last Sunday evening. He was accompanied by "Father" Howlett of the "Eagles," who though he has passed his 83rd mile stone is hale and hearty, and claims to have as good an appetite as any one.

We have received notice of the marriage of Miss Ruth Hall and Mr. Frederick Roberts, which occurred in Sacramento on the 15th of the month. Miss Hall resided here for several years and during that time won for herself the title of being one of our most charming young ladies. We all join in wishing the happy couple a pleasant voyage on the matrimonial sea, and extend our congratulations to the lucky man.

The Arrow Heads are preparing to present the play "What Happened to Jones," at the Willow Springs school house Saturday night and the following Wednesday night at Gold Hill.

The ball game Sunday between our boys and the Central Point team at that place was not finished owing to rain. The Table Rock boys were on grounds at the appointed time, but it was some two hours before the Central Point bunch made an appearance and by that time it had started to rain.

Several from here attended the commencement exercises at Central Point last Friday night and were well pleased with the program.

W. R. Dickinson and son, C. A. Dickinson, and wife, of Portland, are spending a few days in the valley attending to business matters and visiting old friends.

The Dickinsons resided in this neighborhood for many years where they owned a large tract of land and made warm friends. They are on their way home from the San Diego and San Francisco fairs, which they say are well worth seeing.

The rains of Sunday and Tuesday were worth thousands of dollars to the farmers of this vicinity, who have taken on the smile that won't wear off.
