

INFANT SONS OF VANDERBILT GET FORTUNE'S BULK

Worth Estimated at $50,000,000 Left in Trust by Will of Lusitania Victim—Son by First Wife Bequeathed $5,000,000—Widow Given Legacy and English Estates.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The bulk of the estate of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who perished on the Lusitania, and which has been estimated at more than $50,000,000, is left in trust to his infant sons by his second wife, Margaret Emerson Vanderbilt. They are Alfred G. Jr. and George. Mr. Vanderbilt's will was filed for probate today.

William H. Vanderbilt, his son by his first wife, Elsie French Vanderbilt, who was divorced from him, resolves a trust fund of $5,000,000 and the Vanderbilt properties, known as Oakland Farm. He is 13 years old. The widow receives $3,000,000 and the income of $5,000,000 in trust, together with the Vanderbilt estates in the Adirondacks and Gloucester house in London, England.

Relatives and friends receive bequests ranging from $1000 to $1,500,000. The two infant sons share alike in the rest. Their legacies will be held in trust for them until they are twenty-one.

The bulk of the Vanderbilt millions came into the possession of Alfred G. Vanderbilt upon the death of his father, Cornelius Vanderbilt, in 1899. At that time young Vanderbilt, just out of Yale, was in Japan on a tour of the world he had planned to last two years.

He hurried home and, reading the will of his father, learned that he would have to wait until he was 30 before he would come into any appreciable part of the fortune. Then he was to receive half. At 35 he was to receive the other half. Mr. Vanderbilt was 37 last October. Cornelius, the older brother, cut off in the will with only a million dollars, received $6,000,000 more as a gift from Alfred. Cornelius was not mentioned in the will filed today.

BOOSEY, LINE FENCE LITIGANT, DEAD

W. J. Boosey, Jackson county's best known litigant, died at Sacred Heart hospital May 4, age 76 years, and his body shipped to Roseburg for burial. Relatives made application Friday of the county court for the shipment of the body to Canada at county expense. Boosey was born in Kent county, England, and the news of his death was not given the usual publicity, at the request of relatives. He is survived by two daughters and a son.

Boosey owned a strip of land five miles northwest of Medford. In a pioneer survey a strip of valueless land bordered on the section that was used as a road. Boosey claimed this strip and moved his fence to embrace it. His action was contested and for five years the fight for the land was carried through the justice and civil courts and finally to the state supreme court. Boosey lost in every court, and he then tried to invoke the aid of the British ambassador at Washington, without success. Assault and contempt proceedings were side issues in the long-drawn-out "line fence" fight, and the county court involved. Boosey to the last never gave up hope of winning the disputed land whose value was practically nil. Of late the controversy ebbed, but for months it was a burning issue, and was southern Oregon's greatest fence dispute.

MUSICAL GIVEN MONDAY BY MRS. HALLIDAY HAIGHT

The song recital given by Mrs. Florence Halliday-Haight at the First Baptist church Monday evening in which she presented Miss Margaret Jacks of Albany, assisted by Miss Florence Trowbridge. Mr. Forrest Edmeades and Mr. Louis Bennett, pupils of Mrs. Haight; also Miss Genevieve Wortman, piano, and Miss Carolita Jacks, reader, was a pronounced success. The audience was large and most appreciative.

Miss Jacks has studied under Mrs. Haight seven months. In that comparatively short time she has by her aptitude and studiousness accomplished what the average vocal pupil takes at least two years to attain. In every number she rendered, whether oratorio, songs or opera, the beautiful quality of her lyric soprano voice showed to advantage. Her last solo, the difficult polonaise from "Mignon," by Thomas, was almost faultless in execution, the most difficult passages being sung with the greatest ease and facility. There was some doubt expressed by one or two persons in the audience as to the high note in the foregoing number—E flat in alt. Miss Jacks sang it with such clearness of attack that it sounded even to some musicians present more like the average soprano high C.

Miss Jacks' excellent training was again shown in the beautiful duet "Quis est Homo," from "The Stabat Mater" by Rossini, sung with Mrs. Haight.

Miss Jacks, though the steller attraction, divided the honors with those who assisted. Mr. Louis Bennett, who possesses a splendid bass voice, sang with fine feeling the Dudley Buck number "Judge Me, O God." Mr. Forrest Edmeades, a popular singer and successful choir director, caused considerable comment by his rendering of the exquisite tenor solo, "Ah! Moon of My Delight," from "In a Persian Garden," and McDowell's "Thy Beaming Eyes." His high tones were rich and velvety, another example of well-placed upper tones, while his interpretation was excellent.

Miss Florence Trowbridge, a young girl of thirteen, offered the real surprise of the evening's recital. She has the necessary requisites, besides a fine voice, to become a successful public singer, namely, modesty and assurance, individuality and tractability, a good physique. Her solo,

"A Gipsy Maiden," by Parker, was given in a manner worthy of a mature singer. These pupils have studied only a short time with Mrs. Haight but already show the stamp of the masters. Mrs. Haight's experience as a successful concert vocalist since the age of fifteen combined with her years of study under four of the greatest European and American vocal teachers enables her to impart not only technical but positive knowledge of the great art of singing.

The program was agreeably varied with a piano solo by Miss Genevieve Wortman, "Impromptu" by Rheinhold and readings by Miss Carolita Jacks. Miss Wortman is certainly coming forward as one of our best local pianists; while Miss Carolita Jacks was so well received that she responded with an encore. Mr. Fred Alton Haight acted as accompanist in his usual artistic manner.

FIRST WEEK OF BIG SALE WONDERFUL SUCCESS

The first week of the going out of the clothing business sale at Deuel's closed last night and over half of the big stock has been disposed of. There are many wonderful bargains left all over the store however and the sale will continue this week.

B. W. Craig who has charge of the sale, is one of the most successful sales managers on the Pacific coast, and as an evidence of his ability and square dealing this is the fourth sale he has conducted for Mr. Deuel, who says it is the largest and most satisfactory ever held. Mr. Craig has a number of customers on the coast that he conducts sales for every year. He is a great believer in advertising and says a sale without the liberal use of printers ink is like a Fourth of July without fire crackers.

ST. MARY'S PUPILS TO PRESENT BIBLICAL DRAMA MONDAY

Mary Magdalen, an interesting and beautiful drama, will be given by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy in the auditorium of the academy Monday night, May 31st. The play represents the lovely penitent of the Gospel, first in her luxurious home entertaining the distinguished Romans living in Judea and accepting with pleasure the favors of King Herod. The second act is in the throne room of Herod's palace; a quarrel takes place, he reproaches Torodias for bringing ruin and trouble upon him in asking for the head of John the Baptist. In a fit of jealous rage she declares she will leave the palace, Herod's displeasure is greater than she had supposed, however, and she finds flight impossible. Despairing of escape from the well known cruelty of the king, she mingles poison with a glass of wine, drinks it and dies.

In the third act, Magdalen hears of the death of her little friend Ruth, the daughter of the rich ruler, Jairus. Deeply grieved she reviews her own life and finds no comfort in it. Ruth restored to life by the holy prophet finds her in this state and urges her to see the holy one. Martha, Magdalen's sister, adds her entreaties to those of Ruth. They hear the Hosannas of the crowd that accompanies the approaching Master who is about to pass the garden where Magdalen sits. Looking up she beholds His sacred face and surrendering to the love in the glance that falls upon her, kneels and yields.

The deep and tender interest of the gospel narrative is well kept in the beautiful scenes which are full of unusual and sustained charm. The cast of characters is as follows:
