A pretty home wedding took place on June 1st, at 1:30 p. m. when Miss Fleta Blanche Ulrich, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ulrich of Jacksonville, and Mr. Rhea Chapman of Springfield, Iowa, were united in marriage by the Rev. Paul S. Bandy.

The bride wore a gown of crepe de chine and her going away gown was a beautiful brown mixture. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents. The living room was a mass of red and white carnations and La France roses and the couple were married under a beautiful canopy of native ferns, baby breath and giant blossoms of white clematis.

The dining room was artistically decorated in beautiful pink and white roses and after the ceremony an elaborate three course luncheon was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

The young couple left on their honeymoon for Iowa by the way of San Francisco where they will spend a week or more taking in the exposition and will then continue their journey to Springfield, Iowa, their future home.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert K. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Buckley, Mr. George Buckley and Master Francis Buckley.

A delightful evening was enjoyed by the Amoria class and a number of invited guests Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bessie Medley, 705 West Tenth street. The affair was in order of eighth grade school days, the beautiful lawn being transformed into a spacious school room. A program of a day in school was given by a number of the clever pupils in costume. Miss Elizabeth Blackford played the part of teacher with her usual good management. Refreshments were served lunch fashion after a jolly good time enjoyed by about thirty girls. Much credit is due to the social president of the class, Miss Nora Dalley and her assistants, Miss Elizabeth Stewart is first vice president. Mrs. E. J. Stewart will teach the lesson Sunday morning. Every member is urged to be present at the regular devotional hour. All strangers are invited to meet with this class at the First Baptist church at 9:45 o'clock every Sunday morning.

Among the happiest social events of the week was the five hundred party given by Mrs. Brydane Sanderson of Tacoma, Washington, at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Merritt of Central Point, Wednesday afternoon. The spacious rooms were admirably decked with pink sweet peas and roses. Mrs. Zella White Palley of Oakland, California, entertained the guests with several of her enjoyable violin selections. The afternoon hours were whiled away agreeably with cards and chatting. The hostess served a dainty repast at the conclusion of the pleasant hours. The congenial coterie of guests enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames Wayne Leever, Shipley Ross, George Pankey, Kenneth Beebe, James Cornutt, Percy Merritt of Buffalo, New York, Zella White Palley of Oakland, Brydane Sanderson of Tacoma, Washington, the Misses Pearl Ross, Fern Mickey, Edyth Creed, Cecil Creed and Francine McNasser.

The recital given at Phoenix in the assembly room of the high school last Monday afternoon by the pupils of Mrs. E. V. Coffin, proved a great success. The pleasing way in which the younger pupils played, some of whom had only taken lessons a few months, was quite remarkable.

The advanced pupils played with a style and finish unusual for their age. All of the pupils played with a superior touch, showing the excellence of the method used.

The vocal numbers on the program were delightful and were received with great applause.

Mrs. Coffin having pupils in both Phoenix and Medford the next recital will probably be given in Medford. It is expected to give these recitals every two or three months as they are of incalculable value to the pupils.

A few friends were entertained at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Best last Monday it being Miss Laura Best's birthday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fusselman, Mrs. Brown, the Misses Elizabeth Fusselman, Vivian Brown, Violet Bass and Clara Johnson.

An audience that filled St. Mark's hall Monday evening greeted the pupils of Mrs. George T. Wilson in elationary recital. The program was opened by Miss Venita Hamilton with Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 2, after which Mingus Aitkin rendered a dialect selection "Grandpa's Boy."

"The Boys About the House," by M. Quid (C. B. Lewis), was given with a keen appreciation by Miss Helen Brown. "Echo and the Ferry" by Jean Ingelow, was given by Miss Marjorie Meyers. Miss Mildred Neil rendered "Her First Call on the Dutchman." Mr. G. T. Wilson gave the audience a surprise in his "Nod-a-bye Town," a lullaby different than the usual sleep song. The surprise came in the fact that Medford possessed a musician who could write such music and interpret it as well. Perhaps the heaviest dramatic selection of the evening was the scene from Justin McCarthy's novel, "If I Were King." Miss Carolita Jacks' interpretation of the various characters, and especially Louis XI., were most satisfying. Miss Flora Welch's reading, "The Little God and Dickey," showed ability in the interpretation of the several characters. Miss Nydah Neil played "Oh, Evening Star" from Tannhauser. The cello solo was accompanied by Miss Mildred Neil. "Two of Them," one of James M. Barrie's most subtly written dialogues, was read by Miss Dora Sullivan as the closing number of the program.

Over 200 friends and members of the Epworth League including delegates from the different chapters in the district attended an enthusiastic rally and reception given at the Methodist church Friday evening. The church was beautifully decorated in red and white, the League colors. Clarence Meeker, president of the Medford Chapter gave a short welcome address followed by able and hearty responses from the presidents of the visiting leagues. A short informal program consisting of piano duet by Mrs. H. E. Marsh and Miss Mabel Gould, guitar solo, Dr. F. G. Carlow, reading, Mrs. J. K. Hawkins, followed by the singing of the convention hymn.

Following the program all adjourned to the large tent where a social hour was enjoyed in playing games, followed by light refreshments.

The Serious Ten entertained the women faculty of the Medford high school Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Vivian Stewart on North Oakdale.

The evening was spent with fancy work and games.

Those present were Misses Alken, Merrick, Marshall, Hanson, Mitchell, Snedcor, Myrl Davis, Myrtle Purkerson, Edna Demmer, Della Whisenot, Edna Marquis, Redieth Jones, Doris Layne, Lorena Stratton, Margaret English and Vivian Stewart.

Wednesday afternoon St. Mark's Guild met at the home of the president, Mrs. Budge. After a short business meeting Miss Jean Budge gave a delightful Scotch reading and Miss Florence Trowbridge sang in her own charming manner. Miss Fiero then spoke for more than an hour on her own experiences of last fall. Many personal and interesting incidents were related, making the hour all too short for every one. Icecream, cake and coffee were then served.

On Sunday, May 30, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Bonar entertained in their lovely home on South Holly street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Funk, the bride and groom of the day. At a late hour a picnic supper was served to a large number of invited guests. The event was an unusually enjoyable one and the guests departed wishing the bride and groom many happy returns.

St. Mark's Guild served ice cream, cake, strawberries and coffee Friday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. Purdin. Friends came and went all through the evening and altogether the evening was both pleasant and successful in every way. During the evening Miss Caroline Andrews sang and Miss Fern Wing played.

Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson of Vancouver street gave a dinner to a few invited guests Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Tomlinson's birthday anniversary. After the dinner cards were played until eleven o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Childers, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stennett were the guests.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Edwin Janner of Perrydale Thursday afternoon.

Monday evening June 21 St. Mark's Guild will serve the Merchant's Association dinner at St. Mark's Hall.

An interesting and well rendered musical and dramatic entertainment was given by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, Monday evening in the Academy Hall. The program included many pleasing vocal and instrumental selections by the older music pupils and two pretty action songs by the boys and girls of the primary grades. Miss Carolyn Andrews' rendition of "The Elegy," and "Mighty Like a Rose," was greatly applauded.

Winnifred Clancy and Helen Herbert two eleven year old pupils of the French class in pretty French songs and recitations entitled "Les Refrains des Grand Meres" demonstrated the fact that their daily hour of French had not been vainly spent and provided a number highly appreciated by lovers of French among the audience.

Mary Magdalen, a beautiful biblical drama, composed by a member of the order was given by the larger boys and girls in a manner that reflected credit on instructor and pupils alike. The grace and dignity of all was an argument in favor of the happy effects of training in the art of expression. Miss Helen Reddy in the difficult part of Mary Magdalen showed a skill and power unusual in one of her years. Miss Ruth Schuler's interpretation of the Ruth Herodias was exceptionally good. Particularly pleasing in voice and manner was Miss Lucile Krontz as Magdalen's little friend, Ruth, the daughter of Jarius, Martha, Magdalen's sister, was gracefully portrayed by Miss Minnie Owen. Diet Daley's impersonation of King Herod met with general approval. The minor parts were well taken. A cultured gentleman who was present writing in appreciation after commenting favorably on the intelligence and earnestness of the pupils says: "They seemed to have caught the spirit of the story and no doubt treasured up in their hearts lessons which will sweeten their lives and make them rich in whatever is true, lovely and of good report."

An elaborate afternoon affair was given for Miss Fleta Blanche Ulrich by her sister, Mrs. Herbert K. Hanna, Wednesday, May 26th.

The afternoon was spent in sewing for the bride and a game of flowers in which Mrs. Rudolph Hackel won the first prize, a beautiful basket filled with delicate pink roses and Mrs. Harry L. Porter, the consolation, a Kewpie bride.

An elaborate two course luncheon was served. The following were the guests: Miss Fleta Ulrich, Mrs. George Gardner, Mrs. Rudolph Hackel, Mrs. P. S. Bandy, Mrs. A. J. Eckelson, Mrs. C. Hanson, Mrs. Harry L. Porter, Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mrs. Walter Kentner, Mrs. Charles Nunan, Mrs. John Dunnington, Mrs. Minnie Kelly, Mrs. Roy Ulrich, Mrs. F. J. Pick, Mrs. Percy J. Wells, Miss Lela Prim.

Friday evening a number of friends of Mrs. Karl Knapp of South King street gave a surprise the event being her birthday.

The evening was pleasantly spent with music and social conversation, after which a delicious luncheon brought by the guests was served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Satchwell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fuson and Mrs. Helen Minkler.

The regular meeting of the Greater Medford Club will be held at the public library Monday afternoon June 7. This will be the last meeting of the year and a large attendance is desired.

Mrs. Charles Schloffelin who represented the club at the biennial held in Portland this week, will give a report at this time.

Mrs. Roy Kelsor entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Shier and daughter Jean of Portland. After a pleasant afternoon at the card table dainty refreshments were served.

A pleasant surprise party was given for Miss Eunice McLoughlin and Miss Margaret English at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kunzman Saturday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent in playing games. Those present were Misses Vera Roundtree, Hazel Wiley, Ethel Anderson, Edna Marquis, Janie Smith, Lee Haley, Lorene Stratton, Margaret English, Angy Haley and Eunice McLoughlin, Mark Maxwell, John Whisenot, Miles Power, Walter Marquis, Ora Wollam, Gerald Wollam, Ward Van De Mark, Dwain Goodman, and Curtis Darby.

Tuesday evening the Senior Class of the High School gave a reception to the Junior Class at the Natatorium.

The hall was beautifully decorated with the Junior class colors, red and green, roses, wild flowers and foliage being used, while Japanese lanterns added a beautiful glow to the surroundings.

The programs were very pretty, decorated with the senior colors. About thirty couples were present. The music for the dancing was furnished by Mr. Curran and Mr. Hazelrigg.

Miss Grace E. Stevens and Mr. Louis LeRoy Geyer were married Tuesday evening June 1st at the home of the bride's parents in Rogue River. Rev. Spencer of Rogue River performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family.

The bride has resided in Medford the past year and has many friends here. Mr. Geyer has lived in Medford the past six years and is connected with Nichols & Ashpole meat market.

The young couple will make their home in this city.

A pretty home wedding occurred last Sunday at 1:30 when Miss Hatley Weiss became the bride of Harry J. Funke. Miss Maud McCaslin attended the bride and Lester Weiss was best man. The marriage was performed by Rev. Father Powers of the Catholic church at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Weiss in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. Immediately following the ceremony luncheon was served.

JUNGLE "KINGS" AND CLOWNS GIVE REGULAR PLAYS ON FILM STAGE

(By Esther Hoffmann)

The appearance of wild animals in motion pictures, portraying "human parts," is a new type of film entertainment.

A studio has been built in Los Angeles for the purpose of taking a series of animal pictures. The animal performers are now rehearsing under the direction of M. Day.

For the first picture the directors have selected their cast of principals, giving full consideration to the type required for each part. A beautiful South African lion called Apollo has been chosen to play "hero" roles. Apollo is said to be the handsomest lion in the world.

The character leads will be played by Nero, because he is the largest lion in captivity. Tiberius, another lion, is cast for villain roles. In ordinary animal life he is known as the most ferocious but the most intelligent of the troupe so he ought to play his part in pictures well.

A chimpanzee, who has made more people laugh than any circus clown, is the first comedian and the remainder of the troupe will appear in various minor parts.

The Medford High School Alumni are making preparations for their next dance which will take place at the Natatorium Friday, June 11th. The affair will be given in the form of a tennis ball, everyone expected to appear in summer costume. At the meeting held Thursday evening committees were appointed and plans discussed for making this dance one of the most pleasing events of the season.

The invitations include all alumni, high school students and a few outsiders.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alton Haight received a telegram from the United States naval academy, Annapolis, stating their son, Stanley Haight, had graduated from the plebe class June 4 at 10 o'clock. Stanley Haight was a Medford high school boy and would have been in the graduating class this year. His rating was high in a class of 300, his relative standing being seven.

Mr. Jack Morrill entertained a party of friends at a tennis party and luncheon Tuesday afternoon at his ranch home near Gold Hill. The guests included Mrs. Fern Root, Miss Fern Hutchison, Fletcher Fish, Sprague Reigel and Ralph McCurdy.

The commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy will be held at the Academy Hall Monday evening, June 7th.

Miss Emma Borchardt entertained Friday evening at her home 329 S. Grape.

Covers were laid for ten. Music and cards formed the evening's entertainment. Mr. and Miss La Fortune of Seattle were the out of town guests.

Members of the University Club entertained at a farewell dinner for Mr. Ralph McCurdy, Tuesday evening at the club room. Mr. McCurdy will leave soon for Portland where he will locate permanently.
