TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Harry Hays is hauling lumber from Central Point to construct a barn.

Claud Chapman of Antioch was a Table Rock visitor Sunday. He had just returned from Klamath county.

Inspector Kline made several friendly calls in this vicinity Tuesday. He says our orchards are the cleanest in the valley. Let's keep our record.

John Vincent and wife of Jacksonville Forded over to these parts Sunday to visit relatives, as also did Will Lydiard of Medford.

Decoration day was fully observed in this district, school being closed and flags floating at half mast.

John Nealon closed a successful term of school in the Trout district last Friday, returning home Saturday. He will teach the fall term in the Roosevelt district.

H. O. Norwick is having a road built from his farm buildings to the county road, a distance of some 80 rods.

The second spraying for roiling moth was finished in this vicinity this week.

Miss Lydiard returned to her home Sunday for a much-needed rest, she being the last of Table Rock's teachers to complete her work.
