

POACHERS AGAIN SNAGGING FISH AT GOLDEN DRIFT DAM

(Grants Pass Courier.)

Complaint was registered today in the justice court against Ed Wallace and his two sons, Earl and Ted, and against Albert Mead and Homer Farlow, charging them with violating the law prohibiting fishing within 200 feet of a dam or fishway. The arrests were made as the result of a raid by deputy wardens at the Golden Drift dam at an early hour this morning. Wardens Walker of Medford and Applegate of Gold Hill were at the dam during the night and saw illegal fishing in progress between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock, at which time the arrests were made.

The wardens counted fifteen men and boys at the dam during the time, and when the attempt was made to take the lawbreakers into custody there was a general scattering into the brush, and the names of five men, as above, were turned into court. When the presence of the wardens was first made known one of the fishermen fired five shots with a revolver, which seemed to be the pre-arranged signal, for at it there was a general rush for cover. One of the wardens reached the river bank before being identified and assisted one of the men arrested in landing a big 30-pound chinook which he had caught with foul tackle in illegal water. All the men were using foul tackle, above the dead line, so that two charges can be placed against them, though the original complaint is of fishing above the 200-foot mark.

In making the arrests the wardens took possession of a quantity of foul hooking tackle, including gaff hooks and snag hooks, and also have at the justice's offices several sacks of chinook salmon which were confiscated. Ten or a dozen of these salmon were taken from the wagon of Ed Wallace when he appeared in court with them this morning.

The preliminary hearings of the men will be in Holman's court this afternoon. Prosecutor Miller says that he is determined to press the cases against all violators of the laws, and will lodge complaints against all for each violation of which he can get evidence.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Miss Elsie Miller spent the weekend with her friend, Miss Viola Myers at Rogue River.

Misses Juanita and Arlene Crawford, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Crawford of Medford, returned to their home last Sunday evening after spending the previous week with their grandmother, Mrs. M. S. Crawford, near Gold Hill.

Mrs. C. E. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. George Iverson, Mrs. W. H. Stichel, and Misses Edna Proctor and Florence and Marguerite Wharton, delegates and visitors at the Epworth League convention at Medford the latter part of last week, returned home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Prof. Burt A. Adams and Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Harding were southbound autoists Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Harding spent the day in Medford, Mr. Adams continuing to Talent.

Warren Coppelack, a former high school student of Gold Hill, but now of Fort Thomas, Arizona, in writing to an old classmate, says in part: "In the place, states meet, held at Salt Lake City, I took first on the high jump, at six feet; first on the fence vault, at five feet ten inches; third on the half mile, at 2:9; and tied the N. W. amateur record on the fifty-yard dash, but was given no credit, for it, as a wind was on our backs."

H. E. Darling, wife and son, returned to Gold Hill Wednesday from Oakland, California, where they have resided for almost a year. Mr. Darling will act as janitor of the high school building for the ensuing year, a position he filled for several terms previously to the satisfaction of all. While in Oakland Mr. Darling tried the itney bus business, running his own car, but found it a failure, as did many more, he says.

Miss Judith M. Balcorn, a member of the local high school faculty, left last Friday for Buffalo, N. Y., where her sister, Miss Grace Balcorn is quite seriously ill. She expects to visit at East Aurora for some time before returning.

OSCAR AND ADOLPH

C. S. Redfield moved it be accepted, and immediately G. H. Patrick seconded the motion. The petition of over seventy-five per cent of the voters of the second ward asking that A. J. T. Smith be appointed to succeed Mr. Adams, was read by the recorder. But Mr. Redfield of the first ward saw no reason for hurry in selecting the successor for the vacancy and he moved the matter be laid on the table. Mr. Patrick immediately seconded the motion. W. W. Truax, a councilman from the second ward, saying this would deprive his ward of their rights of full representation. W. H. Stichel, also of the second ward, voiced the same matter in other words. Mr. Redfield then said he would withdraw his motion and would move that Roy Cameron be appointed to fill the place, which was seconded by Mr. Patrick. Roy Cameron had served as councilman at a previous term, but lost to W. H. Stichel at the last election by one vote. Councilman Truax made a motion that Mr. Smith be elected, as per the petition. W. H. Stichel seconded the motion. At the roll call vote the result was: For Cameron—Kell, Patrick, Redfield. And for Smith—Stichel and Truax. The citizens attending the meeting immediately raised a howl, declaring that unless a change was made by the council, they would make it themselves in the form of a recall. The next morning petitions were started asking for the recall of C. S. Redfield and G. H. Patrick and that W. R. Walker and Silas Fleming be elected to their places, respectively. More than the required number of signatures were secured.

Geo. E. Sanders, president of the Rogue River Public Service Corporation, Robert E. Gaut, consulting engineer and Francis M. Favre, assistant treasurer, were in Gold Hill Wednesday from Grants Pass inspecting the power plant. Messdames Favre and Sanders also accompanied them.

Clark Collins is spending the week in Portland attending the rose carnival. H. C. Messenger is hauling lumber to the Nealon ranch. Mr. Taylor, representing the J. I. Case Threshing Machine company, and W. E. Alexandria of the Freeman Wiley company spent Monday in Table Rock interviewing our farmers in regard to placing a threshing outfit in this community.

The cutting of hay at the Washburn orchard was begun this week and Colonel Washburn reports a bumper crop, in fact, much more than he can use, allowing a considerable amount to be sold.

Last Friday evening witnessed the closing exercises of the Table Rock school, when the pupils rendered an appropriate program that was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Professor Johnson has not only been a kind and efficient teacher, but has taken an active part in everything that would be a benefit to the community.

Among the appetizing viands being served by Table Rock housewives are strawberry shortcake and cherry pie. L. E. Catin is binding barley this week at the Conner ranch. H. O. Norwick has just returned from a trip to Montana and reports that business is rather brisk there. Oliver Pendland of Talent was here on a short business trip last week.

The members of the "Athenian" Literary society are justly proud of their piano, which they received last week. This is a $400 Kohle-Campbell instrument and they have it all paid for except about $50, which they expect to raise by giving entertainments this summer.

The Table Rock Improvement council met at the home of Colonel Washburn Wednesday evening, and besides spending a very enjoyable evening, much important business was transacted. The warm weather has succeeded in bringing out many straw hats and tennis racquets in these parts.

The Arrow Heads have decided to give a musical Saturday evening, June 26, at which many good singers throughout the valley will participate, singing songs from the oldest to the newest. Also there will be many different kinds of instrumental music. A small admittance fee will be charged at the door and the public is promised a treat.

S. M. Mears and wife of Portland carried for a day at the Washburn home on their way home from the San Francisco fair. Mr. and Mrs. Mauthy and daughter of Medford were Sunday evening callers at the Lydiard home. The ball game Sunday at the county seat between the team at that place and our local team proved that the two teams were evenly matched. It was "nip" and "tuck" all through the game, and the ninth inning closed with the score tied, making it necessary to play another inning to decide the game. In the tenth Jacksonville scored, making the final score 576 in their favor.

A. L. Vincent has ordered a threshing outfit that will be shipped from Portland on the 15th of this month. This outfit consists of a twenty-horse tractor and a 24-inch separator complete. Mr. Vincent has purchased this outfit expressly for this district, and intends to thresh out of the shock, which will be something new for this valley.

On Wednesday afternoon a merry party, consisting of sixteen girls and boys, chaperoned by Misses Rose and Mary Nealon, dropped into the Pendleton home to surprise and entertain Mrs. A. P. Frierson, who, although in her 80th year and now an invalid, greatly enjoys being entertained by the little folks. A pleasing little program, consisting of readings by the children and Victrola music was carried out. Mrs. Pendleton served dainty refreshments. Those who attended report this party one of the happiest affairs of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lang of Woodburn, Ok., spent a few days with the latter's sister, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, on route from the Panama exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw were recent visitors from Gold Hill. Miss May Thompson arrived from Portland the first of the week and will visit with her sister, Mrs. C. J. Nunn.

Mrs. W. T. Kentner and children returned to their Phoenix ranch Saturday. Mrs. Harold Simpson left for Eagle Point Wednesday after a visit with her brother, Chauncey Flory.

Mrs. F. C. Smith spent the afternoon in Medford Tuesday. Postmaster Lewis Ulrich left for Portland Tuesday to attend the postmasters' convention being held there this week.

Mrs. W. T. Grievie and children are in Portland taking in the rose show. B. M. Collins was a business caller at Grants Pass one day last week. Mrs. Chas. Hines and family of Forest Grove are spending their vacation with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Devlin of Buch.

T. T. Shaw was among those from here who went to Portland to attend the rose carnival. Mrs. Lee Port has returned from a visit with relatives at Ashland. Henry Wendt and family have as their guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Steinmeyer, relatives from the east who are on their way to the exposition.

The following members of Adarel Chapter, O. E. S., attended the reception given for Grand Worthy Matron Mrs. McGowan at Medford Wednesday evening: Messdames James Cronemiller, Smith, Flich, Harbaugh, Lewis, Thompson, Keegan, Johnson and Misses Mollie Britt Lulu Williams and Kate Cronemiller and Geo. Lewis and E. P. Bower.

Mrs. Ed Lever and daughter of Grants Pass are guests at the home of Mrs. John Dunnington this week. The Jacksonville baseball team will cross bats on the home grounds with Tofo Sunday.
