

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Wanted—The address of the party or parties who almost daily beg, borrow or steal publications from the commercial club's reading room table. It is the plan to keep a file of the Oregonian, Journal, Mail Tribune, Examiner, Sacramento Bee, as well as the local papers, for the convenience of members and visitors, yet not a day passes but what some of these are missing. Sometimes they are carried off one day and returned the next, a circumstance which is exasperating to those who try to keep tabs on the war news and Bill Bryan's movements. Nothing personal is meant in these remarks. They are simply made in the hopes that he who reads these lines may desist.

In connection with big hotel enterprises here due to springs development project, report has it that Emil Peil was offered $50,000 for his properties fronting on the plaza and Mill street, provided he would accept the entire amount in stock. Emil agreed to take half the amount in stock, but stood pat on the demand that the other half should be payable in cash.

Sheldon Volkman, traveling representative of the Great Northern railway, headquarters at Portland, visited Ashland on Thursday. Bert Greer, chairman of the springs commission, hitched up his big touring car, and in company with Publicity Manager Durvea, showed the visitor a touch of high life up on the scenic drives, also other attractive surroundings including springs and park development improvement work.

Headed by Ben Sheldon, Messrs. Rosenbaum, Hill, Bell and Latta, all of Medford, were here Wednesday in conference with local commercial club officials over the inauguration of a community of interests plan whereby excursionists will be shown over the twin cities and valley. The congressional appropriations committee visitors coming early next week, will be first among those to be shown courtesies under the new arrangement. Their time is limited, although traveling on No. 14's schedules instead of the Shasta. They are due here Monday morning, June 21. After being welcomed here they will be taken to Medford in automobiles.

Without even going into executive session over this particular question, the city council at its last meeting arbitrarily turned down the request of the Ashland Garage, near the intersection of Main and Second streets, to erect an illuminated sign on that corner. This design would have been a work of art, eminently classy and in accordance with progressive measures to light up the town to best advantage on its principal thoroughfares, in keeping with the example set by Peil, the Elks' club, both the theatres and other places. Moreover it would have made the corner in question a landmark in that locality of the great white way. Evidently the council prefers the present ornate bill board erected by the same garage, which depicts a cop of heroic proportions advertising the merits of "Puritan Motor Oils," an exercise in itself a glimpse of which would be sufficient to stampede a yoke of oxen.

Mrs. Howell Isaacs, accompanied by her daughters Ruth and Hope, left Wednesday to join husband and father at Los Angeles, where Mr. Isaacs fills an important position as musical director of a large chorus numbering over 1000 voices. They went by the way of San Francisco. A reception will be tendered Rev. P. K. Hammond and family, Friday evening, June 18, by Trinity Episcopal church.

Beebe & Kinney's big store on the Plaza is closed temporarily, pending arrangements being made for a "quick riddance" sale which begins Saturday morning, June 19.

The Winter family left this week for southern California, where they will linger indefinitely in the lap of perpetual spring. On this trip they will test the capabilities of their fine new automobile.

Bruce Evans, evangelist, is still with us and his meetings are overflowing ones. He is especially winning his way into the hearts of the little folks and has planned, outside of the regular meetings, sundry diversions for their entertainment. Certain kids who, contagion upon good behavior, were recently promised to be taken to the moving picture shows by their parents, yelled in unison, "We'd rather go and hear Bruce Evans."

Mill street is to lose its identity as far as name is concerned by being called Park street. This change is in keeping with numerous improvements now going on in connection with the park system. Inasmuch as a big new milling enterprise is being launched on Water street, why not call that thoroughfare Mill street?

During temporary indisposition of Charley Johnson, John Maxson is filling the vacancy on the city police force as night patrolman.

A forgery and bogus check renaldence is upon us. One Joe Thomas is accused of being the guilty party.

GUESS IF THEY ARE MARRIED

I HEAR TOM COMING—YOU PEOPLE HIDE IN HERE AND I'LL PRETEND THAT YOU DIDN'T COME— WE'LL SURPRISE HIM.

TOM, WHAT DO YOU THINK? OUR DINNER GUESTS DIDN'T COME.

FOR MY PART I'M DOGGONE GLAD THEY DIDN'T COME! THEY'RE A COUPLE OF POOR MUTTS ANYWAY.

WHO ROCKED THE BOAT?

several local dealers being the victim. If the forgery charge sticks, Joe's case will assume a serious phase inasmuch as this business has been worked overtime throughout this section for quite awhile in spite of protectographs. The young man was brought here from the vicinity of Seio, in Linn county, on Wednesday, by Constable Irwin. He waived examination and was taken over to Jacksonville to be committed to jail pending action by the grand jury.

Joe Fournier, storekeeper of the Southern Pacific supply car, with headquarters at Sacramento, has been in town this week. With the assistance of one helper, Joe distributes miscellaneous supplies over the system embraced on the Sacramento, Shasta, and Portland divisions, covering about 3000 miles of territory, a trip being made every month.

Otto Klum and Miss Mildred Applegate were married here on Wednesday. They stole a march on their friends and motored to Medford for the ceremony, taking No. 13 for San Francisco and Berkeley. During the train stop here they were showered with rice and congratulations at the hands of mutual admirers. Klum will teach in Medford, beginning with the fall term. The bride has been a recent teacher in rural schools.

Two regular army officers were here on Wednesday after one Charley Dodge, said to have deserted from Vancouver Barracks recently. The soldier boy was being detained at local police headquarters pending developments. There is said to be a standing reward of $50 offered for the apprehension of deserters, although the government does not advertise this fact in its glowing posters calling for enlistments. It is not thought the offender deliberately intended to desert and that the result of his escapade will be a formal charge of "overstepping the bounds of leave of absence."

J. W. Looher, former well known resident, now a Southern Pacific employe in Portland, was in town this week on business and renewing the acquaintance of many friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant returned Tuesday from Portland, where she had been visiting with relatives for the past five weeks.

Dewey Sackett is another express helper out of this station, who makes the trip between Ashland and Dunsmuir and intervening points.

At a meeting of the Business Men's association Monday evening $50 was appropriated to assist in the picnic features here July 4. The matter of choosing a secretary is still undecided, though indications point to the selection of Rev. M. C. Reed.

The Ideal Opera Co., which means Ed Andrews and his pleasing associates, held forth at the Vaude Wednesday evening. The "Mikado" was the attraction and it fulfilled traditional reputation. Andrews, as Ko Ko, was the matchless comedian, while the blase and emotionless demeanor of A. C. Burgess, as Poo Pah, was a part carried out to perfection. As a whole the cast of characters left nothing to be desired. The charm of the production is its exotic and oriental atmosphere which prevails in the midst of appropriate Jap settings. Incidents are less important than the characters and manner of presentation, meretricious reigning supreme. It is fortunate that the "Mikado" and allied operas have fallen into the hands of the Ideal players who have abiding faith in the good things pertaining to the dramatic and operatic stage, meritorious productions that inhere in amusement audiences throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Among store interiors, Ed Butler has made the Plaza confectionery an ideal place. Further improvements are contemplated in the way of new floors or linoleum covering. Briggs & Shinn have also fallen into line with attractive remodeled windows. In the way of exteriors the annex to the Enders block occupied by the Hotel Columbia, especially the sun parlor and adjacent space on the of, is an example of what good taste can accomplish in the arrangement of shrubs and flowers.

structure will be built right over the creek, extra heavy timbers being laid on concrete foundations.

The case of Bateman vs. Eske, involving foreclosure proceedings, in connection with an orchard property east of town, has been passed upon with little result that the decision bids fair to turn the tables to the extent of making Eske the plaintiff instead of defendant. Bateman, however, has been granted further time in which to submit additional evidence.

United States Senator Oliver of Pennsylvania, accompanied by his wife and a party of friends, occupying an elaborate private car of the Pennsylvania lines, passed through Tuesday afternoon, northbound. During the usual stop, here a spokesman in behalf of the party asserted that the average Keystone knows the Ashland rose.

Dr. F. G. Swedenburg left for San Francisco on Thursday on a visit which mingles business with a glimpse of the exposition.

NEW TODAY

700 acres only seven miles from Medford, plenty of hay land, good springs and a large barn in good shape. This is a place for someone to make a stockman's paradise. Fine outrange. The price? It is $15.00 per acre.

Nearly 14 acres right close to the car line. The most scenic spot in Medford, and yet it lays outside the corporation. It is conceded to be worth much more, but is offered at $2000.00.

Face Eruptions Have Deep Significance

Often They Indicate Impurities Deep in the Tissues.

The results shown by S. S. S. in clearing the skin reveal how scorchingly and how deeply this famous blood purifier attacks blood troubles. Facial eruptions are more often significant of internal nutrition resulting from faulty elimination of body wastes. Most people realize this to be true. And yet it is a difficult matter to convince such people they should avoid these harmful drugs such as mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic and so on. S. S. S. gives just as good effect without the destructive results, because it is more searching. It goes deeply into the circulation wherever the blood flows, but it does not remain to clog the system. And its effect is complete and thorough as indicated by blood tests. One of the strange things today is that so many people are wedded to the notion that mercury is the one antidote. It is not so. There is in S. S. S. a product of nature that is rated one of the most potent principles known for the complete elimination of blood troubles. Wherever you go there are people who know this to be true from their own experience, for it has been clearly shown there is one ingredient in S. S. S. as essential to health if the blood be impure as the nourishing elements of the grain, squares and salts of our daily food. Get a 1/2 lb. of S. S. S. today of any druggist, but insist on S. S. S. accept no substitutes. And if your case is peculiar or of long standing, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 161 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
