Mrs. Noah Chandler was trading in Phoenix Thursday afternoon. George Alford of Fern Valley is having his well drilled deeper, the water having failed so as to be too low for pumping.

E. N. French and family were visiting Mrs. French's niece, Mrs. Dan Combs and family, of Wagner creek, last Sunday.

On Wednesday many of the old pioneers of the valley gathered at the church in Phoenix to pay final tribute to the memory of Mrs. Lizzie Lovenburg. Many beautiful floral tributes were heaped upon the last resting place of her whom all loved who knew.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Mrs. S. T. Hodges and Miss Harriet Hodges, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Hodges' sister, Mrs. J. W. Newlands at Roseburg, returned to their home in Gold Hill Saturday last.

Miss Lydia Dean, Miss Minnie Tuffo and Mrs. Cox of Grants Pass, visited with various friends in Gold Hill Sunday.

H. C. Ames and family arrived here last Friday from Tacoma, Wash. Before arriving here Mr. Ames nor his family had ever seen this place, but having read numerous descriptions and recommendations in various Rogue River valley booklets, decided it was the place he had been looking for. The move followed, and he doesn't regret it from what he has seen and heard since his arrival.

Mrs. J. F. Dietrich and daughter, Miss Nellie, were visitors of friends in Medford on Tuesday.

Charles Kay of Medford, has been in town several times within the past week.

Mrs. Riley Hammersley returned to her home in this city after spending a couple of weeks in Portland with her mother.

H. D. Reed, local postmaster, who had been attending the postmaster's convention in Portland, arrived home Sunday afternoon in time to attend the ball game on the local diamond between the "Rearless Fanshers," or as they are called by the fans, "The Dirties," and the "Cleans."

Dr. R. E. Howard, the local dentist, and Miss Lena Gibson were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage at Ashland on Wednesday afternoon. They returned to Gold Hill that evening. Mrs. Howard was formerly a resident of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Brockman of Merilo, relatives of the bride, were witnesses of the ceremony.

Prof. and Mrs. Burt A. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Harding, and Miss Dorothy Smith were Gold Hill people who enjoyed the play "Quality Street" in which Maude Adams stars, at Medford Wednesday night.

A "hiking bunch" composed of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Wharton, Rev. John C. Stelle, Misses Edna Proctor, Ida Starns, Florence and Marguerite Wharton, and Misses Donald Avery, and John and William Kealey, had a "sunrise breakfast" on the high line ditch Tuesday morning. All report a fine time.

Notice of a special recall election were posted this week. The election is the result of petitions circulated for the recalling of G. H. Patrick, councilman at large and C. S. Redfield, councilman of the first ward. Also for the electing of Silas Fleming and W. R. Walker for the respective offices. At a recent meeting of the city council Bert A. Adams resigned his chair of councilman of the second ward, and the action of the two above named councilmen in regards to the matter did not seem to coincide with the wishes of the people and the recall petitions followed. Several other incidents previous to this had started the talk of recall, which came to a head at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Gleason returned to their home at Napa, California, on Thursday. They have remained in Gold Hill for several months, during which time Mr. Gleason has had charge of the installation of the conical pebble mill at the Braden mine.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hurlb and family, arrived on Sunday morning from Thun, Switzerland. It was necessary for the mto carry French passports and come by way of Geneva, Italy. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hurlb are expert butter makers and are thoroughly competent to assume entire charge of the Sleepy Hollow dairy, for which position they came. We anticipate more of these industrious people as soon as these now here see the possibilities of southern Oregon for dairying.

Carpenters commenced the construction of a six room cottage for M. S. Johnson on his lots on Sixth avenue Monday morning. The work is going rapidly forward and it is expected to be ready for occupancy shortly.

Ward received Thursday afternoon at the local Southern Pacific office that L. Boyd of Holsey, Oregon, was the successful bidder for the Gold Hill station. The position was vacated several months ago by Mrs. M. R. Rice, who received a position in the Portland offices, since which time F. C. Waldron has been in charge.

Horn to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt at their home in Gold Hill on Tuesday morning, June 15, twin boys. They have been named Hans and Fritz, and weigh six and eight and one-half pounds respectively. Mrs. Schmidt was formerly Miss Edna Hayes.

Owing to the absence of Pete Myers on a vacation trip, Horton Beeman will be assistant clerk in the local Merrill & Co. store for the summer.

Rev. John C. Shille began a series of revival meetings at the M. E. church assisted by the local pastor, Rev. C. C. Wharton, Monday evening. Rev. Shille is of the St. Louis conference, but came to southern Oregon about six months ago in the interests of his health. Most of this time he has been "roughing it" up near Crater Lake, and seems to be so favorably impressed with the climate, he is considering remaining in southern Oregon permanently.

Arrangements are being made for an old fashioned picnic Fourth of July for those not disposed to attend the large celebrations at Medford and Grants Pass. Races and games are being arranged for and free lemonade is to be served. A ball game is also suggested.

Last Saturday evening the Grants Pass Odd Fellows were the guests of the Gold Hill lodge. They arrived about 8 o'clock in autos, motor trucks and auto stages. After the regular routine of business they were treated to a strawberry feed.

R. P. Tucker, chemist of the local plant of the Beaver Portland Cement company, returned from a business trip to Portland and eastern Oregon Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ben H. Gampman and daughter, Miss Caroline, were visitors at Medford Wednesday.
