

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Della Nichols and her mother, Mrs. F. M. Stewart, called on Mrs. Howlett Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kind of McCormack, Washington, came out on the P. & E. Tuesday and took a room at the Sunnyside and remained until Friday morning, taking passage on Ford with L. H. Osaman to Portland.

Mr. Kind had traded for a ten-acre tract of land on the Stoddard, the old John Williscroft tract, known as the Eagle Heights that he had never seen so they concluded to come out and see it.

While they were here they took a walk around our town and when they came back to the hotel he asked if this was incorporated town and on answering in the affirmative, remarked "Why don't the authorities keep the walks open? Why the weeds and grass have almost taken the town and the foxtail and hourhound is a fright!"

Miss Frances Heath, daughter of one of our merchants, has returned from Eugene where she has been attending the state university. Last Wednesday was quite a busy day with Mr. Harnish as he had to make four trips to Medford that day.

Miss Louisa Blass, who went to San Francisco to the fair has returned to our town again. J. P. Hughes of Butte Falls, who has been out to Medford on business came out Wednesday evening and spent the night with us.

There were about twenty-five men passed through here the first of the week on their way to work on the Fish lake district road.

Senator Von der Hellen was in complaining about the poor mail service we have since the Pacific & Eastern have changed their schedule. Now we have the regular train but three times a week and that leaves us with no Sunday mail and the result is that we don't receive the Mail Tribune until the next day after it is published, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and on Monday we get the Morning Sun the Saturday and Sunday Journal, Evening Telegram, Sunday Oregonian, etc., so the news in most of the papers is old by the time we can read it.

Walter Painter and G. W. Denny took a stroll up the Big Butte to spend a few days fishing.

F. J. Ayers, one of our prosperous farmers and stockraisers, passed through here Thursday with his two Ford. He had with him his two daughters, Mrs. F. T. Newport, Mrs. Roy Smith and his little granddaughter, Miss Lucile Newport.

M. P. Colliston, the local agent for Paritan Taylors of Chicago, was out Wednesday soliciting and took dinner with us.

E. L. Radcliffe of Griffin Creek came out with his family on the P. & E. Thursday and were met by Mrs. C. C. Tadewy and went on up to the Pelouze farm where M. Tadewy's friends of Frank Castor gave him and his family a farewell party last Wednesday night.

J. H. Gustin of Medford was out on business connected with his farm just above here Thursday.

H. D. McDonald of Trail passed through here Friday morning on his way to Medford.

Mrs. Stevens of Ashland motored up here Thursday and brought three of Mrs. Leabo's grand children the Misses Aida and Zella and James Heer of Ashland to visit their grandmother.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—AT THE FRONT

PRES. WILSON.

No. 1—President Wilson knows me well. Often asks me for help and advice. He's been worried about mines and torpedoes lately. Here's how I showed one way of protecting ships.

No. 2—Borne on the wings of my marvelous Magirip, I flew over to the North Sea!

No. 3—Suddenly my practiced eye spied a neutral liner making fast time ahead!

No. 4—Looking down I likewise saw a torpedo beneath the waves, aimed at the ship! dove!

No. 5—I landed directly astide the torpedo!

No. 6—I swerved it upwards, harmlessly, into the air! Then I regained my seat as the crowd cheered!
