FATHER ALLEGES GIRL BOUND TO TREE BY YOUTHS

Lara Simpson, a 15-year-old boy was committed to the state industrial school this afternoon by the juvenile court. He lives in Ashland with his parents, upon whose application the lad will be sent away. They said he would not stay at home, preferring instead to roam with hoboos, and that his favorite pastime was to start a "roughhouse" with his mother. His father said the only law he recognized was physical force. The last year he went to school two weeks and worked a week. He was a witness in a brutal murder trial in California last winter, wherein a tramp murdered his boy companion.

Kenneth Jerome, Peter Corum, Henry and James Medley, Alfred Raymond, Torney, and Jack Helms were haled before the court this afternoon to answer to the complaint of the father of Pearl Thorndyke, a 14-year-old girl, that they kidnaped and tied the young lady to a tree in an orchard in the south part of the city, while she was walking with her companion, Lonnie Dalley. The girl alleges that she was blindfolded and led through the fields and orchards until she lost all sense of direction returning home at a late hour which caused a parental investigation.

The young men claim that they are the victims of a fanciful tale of a young girl, and that they can prove their complete lack of complicity in the alleged kidnapping. All the young men above were released this afternoon the girl failing to appear.

MEDFORD COLLEGE NOTES

Friday was monthly contest day at the M. C. C. A great deal of interest was manifested and the contestants worked hard to better previous records. The following awards were earned: First honors in spelling, Grace Taylor. Miss Taylor's grade was 99 1/2 per cent. Third honors in spelling, Gertrude Trautfether. First honors in typewriting, Florence Ditsworth. Miss Ditsworth, who has a stenographic position, is attending night school. She wrote fifty-four words net per minute for ten consecutive minutes. She also won an Underwood proficiency certificate. Hazel Putney secured second honors in typewriting, and Grace Taylor third honors. An O. G. A. emblem pin for proficiency in artistic shorthand writing was won by Marcus Vertin. A Remington penman for proficiency in typewriting was presented to Freida Binn, who won it in a previous contest.

At the completion of the post-test, George A. Briscoe, who has had charge of the teachers' review class, addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of promptness, truthfulness and perseverance. At the conclusion of his address Mr. Briscoe presented, in behalf of the school, the various honor awards. The work of the teachers' review class was completed Friday afternoon, at which time a social hour was enjoyed by the faculty and students. The teachers and the students of the commercial and shorthand departments entertained the students of the review course by serving ice cream and cakes.

Roland Flaherty of Central Point entered Monday for the last week of the teachers' review course.

RUSSIAN MINISTER OF WAR RESIGNS NO DECORATION FOR SINKING LUSITANIA

LONDON, June 26.—General W. A. Soukhomloff, the Russian minister of war, has resigned, according to a dispatch from Petrograd to Reuter's Telegram company. It is understood that General Polivanoff, a former assistant minister of war, will succeed General Soukhomloff. BERLIN, June 26.—The report published abroad that Captain Hensing of the German navy had received the Order of Pour Le Merite, the highest Prussian military decoration, for sinking the Lusitania, is untrue. Captain Hensing was decorated for taking a submarine boat past Gibraltar. This statement was made today by the Overseas News Agency.

Advertisement for Diamond Squeegee Tires. Text: "Facts don't blow out. —Mr. Squeegee. The people who built the Pyramids did a job that has never been beaten. From foundations to cap-stones they were constructed to endure. There was no overweight anywhere and no part was too weak or too light to match the other parts. Hence the lasting qualities of the Pyramids. Diamond Tires are built, as the Pyramids were built, to last. Every part is made to wear just as long as the other parts endure. Consequently Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires made a record in 1914 that has never been matched. Send for our book of letters from dealers who sold Diamond Tires in 1914. It tells how more than 99 out of every 100 of the more than half a million Diamond Tires sold last year gave maximum service at minimum mileage cost. It is yours for the asking.
