

SOCIETY

The ladies of the Methodist church met for their monthly Home Coming last Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. McNary, is visiting her mother in Michigan, and Mrs. Wiley acted as chairman for the business meeting. The usual reports were given and showed that good work is being done by every circle and department.

It was decided that the meeting for the month of July be held in the evening, and that it be in the form of an ice cream social. The chairman of the various circles were appointed as a committee to meet with the social president to arrange for this affair. Other committees were appointed and Rev. Hawkins made a short, encouraging talk.

The East Side circle had charge of the social hour and served tea and waters in the basement. They had also arranged the following program, every number of which was good and greatly enjoyed by all:

- Piano Duet, Mrs. Marsh and May Lindley.
- Reading, Helen Brown.
- Piano Solo, Catherine Edmeads.
- Reading, Mrs. Hawkins.
- Piano solo, May Lindley.

The members of the Greater Medford club entertained at a o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. John D. Sherman, chairman of the conservation committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Medford Hotel Friday afternoon.

After luncheon Mrs. Sherman gave a short, but interesting talk explaining the meaning of the conservation as it is used by the National Federation and the purpose for which this department was created.

Mrs. Mundy, president of the Greater Medford club, on behalf of the members, thanked Mrs. Sherman for the kindness in honoring them with her presence and for the very interesting and instructive talk.

Mrs. Sherman is on her way to Crater Lake returning to Medford Monday, when she will continue her journey to the Panama-Pacific exhibition.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist church will hold a quarterly missionary social on the lawn at the home of Deacon Davis, 402 South Central Wednesday evening, June 30, at 8:30 o'clock. All members of the church and congregation are urged to come and bring their lunch as this will be an excellent chance to get acquainted and hear the following program:

- Vocal Solo.....Miss Fidelus Moran
 - Personal Experiences.....Miss Bacon
 - Solo, "Homeland for Jesus".....Mrs. Lewis Bennett
 - "The Highest Form of Service".....Mrs. S. L. Bennett
 - Song "Make Me a Channel of Blessing".....Miss Olive Johnson
 - "Creating Missionary Interest".....Rev. F. W. Carstens
 - Song....."He Lifted Me"
- A special invitation is extended to all.

Miss Irma Dyer entertained a number of her friends at her home on Vancouver avenue Friday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday.

Various games were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Octavia Childs, Zelma Roberts, Zanta Roberts, Vergie Meadows, Josephine Lindley, Bruce Putnam, Fay Fryrear, Jeannette Richardson, Floyd Pickel, Willard Phelan, Perry Gregg, Lethew Meadows, Charlie Jackson, Walter Whisenant, Rupert Maddox, Ray Fryrear, Louis Richardson and Worth Hazelrigg.

Mrs. J. H. English and daughter, Margaret, left Wednesday for their former home in Trinidad, Colorado, where they will spend the summer visiting friends and relatives. They will stop at the exposition and visit with friends at Denver en route.

Mrs. Edward Soutter entertained Le Samedt Club at her home on North Orange street this afternoon. Mrs. Hendry of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Patterson of Dodge, Nebraska, who are visiting at the home of Mrs. Soutter were guests of the club.

The Loyal Order of Moose gave another of their popular dances Tuesday evening in the Moose hall. A very enjoyable time was had. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when refreshments were served by the ladies.

Mrs. I. Pew of Hebron, Neb., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Wicks. Mrs. Pew expects to visit the exposition and Southern California en route home.

Mrs. Godlove, 345 North Bartlett entertained the W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon. The following program was enjoyed:

- Song, Stand Up For Jesus.
- Prayer, by Mrs. Rosa Flemming.
- Scripture Lesson, Mrs. S. T. Leonard.
- Paper, by Mrs. Riley D. Henson.
- Vocal Solo, Miss Velma Woods.
- Address by Mrs. S. L. Leonard.
- Vocal solo, James Henson.
- Paper, by Mrs. Woods.
- Recitation by Master Stanley Rice Henson.

Special selection, read by Mrs. Flemming.

Paper, selected, Mrs. Rosa Ponting. Song, God Save the State. Instrumental solo, Miss Woods. Brief talk on the work, Mrs. C. P. Buck.

Mrs. Godlove served dainty refreshments assisted by Mrs. C. P. Buck.

One of the most enjoyable meetings this year of the Women's College club was held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Porter, on South Oakdale avenue, when a reception was tendered Mrs. John D. Sherman, chairman of the conservation committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

The rooms were transformed into a most beautiful bower, roses, daisies and honeysuckle being used in decorations. Mrs. Sherman gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the work the conservation committee is doing, urging that the places of natural beauty be preserved. Dainty refreshments, consisting of iced coconuts and cakes, were served. Many choice selections played on the graphophone added to the pleasures of the evening.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. J. A. Torney, chairman; Mrs. E. H. Porter and Mrs. Geo. Rebec.

The Philathea class of the M. E. Sunday school was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. S. Bliton, Wednesday evening at her home on West Main street. Mrs. Bliton was assisted by Miss Jessie Mordoff. After the business meeting games were played on the lawn, which was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. Punch was served from a table on the porch.

Later in the evening all gathered on a large rug and told stories, after which wienies, huns, coffee and pickles were served. About twenty were present and a very pleasant time was had by all.

General and Mrs. William Sooy-Smith entertained at dinner at the Country club Wednesday night in honor of their son Gerald's birthday. Following the dinner, bridge was played. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. S. Vilas, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Fiero, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl, Mrs. W. L. Holloway, Miss Louise Burke, Miss Margaret Hubbard, E. F. Guthrie, Dr. Deane and C. S. Newhall.
