Medrin Altimus of Central Point enrolled this week for the stenographic course. He is making rapid progress in both shorthand and typewriting.

An examination in business English was given Tuesday, with the result that Freda Binns, Gertrude Traut-fether and Annie Bateman now have finals in that subject.

Sarah Henry has a final grade in office practice, as she passed the examination which was given Tuesday.

A new Gregg primary certificate class has been organized with Annie Bateman, Grace Taylor and Gertrude Traut-fether as members.

The Remington gold medal for proficiency in rapid, accurate type writing, which was won by Walter Hess a short time ago, was received from the Remington company, and duly presented. The medal is a beauty, and well worth working for. We predict that another will be won at the next contest.

Joan Whipple, one of our recent graduates writes us from Montana that she has secured an excellent position in a law office. She says that her M. C. C. training has proved to be thoroughly practical.

As Monday is to be observed as a holiday, school will not be in session that day.

Florence Williams was selected to edit our notes this week.

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved. Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my housework now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, Kennebago, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
