FARMERS MUST BUILD UP OWN CREDIT SYSTEM

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 14 .- In an address on the need of rural credits before the National Fertilizer association convention here today, Myron T, Herrick, former ambassador to France, urged as a remedy for whatever trouble exists in rural communities, the establishment of cooperative organizations of farmers, He aserted that not one of the successful systems in operation in this country or in Europe owed its existence to the intervention of the government and that agricultural progrees was not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and population. A co-operative system to be successful, according to Mr. Herrick, must be built up by the farmers themselves without outside assistance.

Mr. Herrick began his address by saying the American farmers, having availed themselves of information and education, had become the most capable in the world, but that in spite Dunn is a mail carrier connected with of this, agricultural progress here is the Grants Pass postoffice. not keeping pace with the expansion of industry and the growth of population.

"The causes of these shortcomings," he continued, "are manifold, the absence of social pleasures is another. But the greatest of all is in my opinion the lack of organized selling and purchasing power.

"Organized selling and purchasoperation. Co-operative organization of farmers was so remarkably successful from its start over fifty years urely one. ago in Germany that bankers, meracknowledged its' wonderful benefits.

"Co-operation must be built up by at the grass roots and depuding on credit societies."

REVOLUTIONARY PLOTS

WASHINGTON, July 14-Evidence of revolutionary plots in China are inndicated in unofficial advices to ton, which told of the finding of bombs on two occasions near there during th last six weeks,
