FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion. Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. (Paid Adv.)

ATTACK ON NOGALES DUE TOMORROW

NOGALES, Ariz., July 23.—Carranza troops advancing to attack Nogales, Sonora, came into contact with a Villa outpost at Santa Barbara, ten miles south, today. The outpost hurried back to Nogales. Governor Jose M. Madero, the Villa leader, received a report today that 2000 Carranza troops left Culiacan this morning with 31 machine guns and 15 field pieces to aid in the attack on Nogales. General P. Elias Calles, the Carranza commander, is said to have declared that he would take the town tomorrow.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The first registration made in books at the automobile camp grounds, which records are kept for auto tourists only, was by W. H. Sarvis who with three others constituted a party from Orionville, Bigstone county, Minn., on the western borders of the state. They camped on the grounds Wednesday night and speak in highest terms of the environment and accommodations found there. Mr. Sarvis and associates left home May 29 and have toured the intermountain region, Oregon and California, visiting the Grand Canyon en route. They left here Thursday morning, the Yellowstone park being an objective point on the home-trip. Their car was a 32 Buick. Although a fierce hail storm passed over the Little Shasta valley in Siskiyou county recently, no Ashland parties owning extensive properties in that locality report any damage, their lands being mainly snow to wheat. Ladies of the Chautauqua Park Club have elected Mrs. Sarah Patterson president; Mrs. Etta Lamkin and Mrs. Annie McWilliams, vice presidents; Mrs. Lillian Miller, treasurer, and Mrs. Jennie Greer, secretary. vice, leave this week for a two months' trip into various sections embraced in the extensive reservations. At Episcopal services next Sunday evening, Verne Blue, who is visiting in Ashland on a return trip from Hawaii, will review church and educational work with which he is identified in the islands. J. C. Barnard, pedagogue, has resigned as a director of the Fruit and Produce Association owing to school duties out of town, and N. C. Dozier has been elected to fill vacancy on the board. Discarding carpets, the Methodist church has installed an extra quality of cork linoleum as a floor covering. This substantial improvement cost over $200. Early pledges towards anew Chautauqua building foot up an amount approximating $1500. These subscriptions were made at the recent assembly during its closing hours, no formal canvass all over town having yet been made. Fred Lockley, staff correspondent for the Portland Journal, is in town noting Ashland's extensive improvements. In company with Publicity Manager Duryea, on Thursday, he made trips to the springs and park sections, also visiting the ranch of D. M. Lowe, wizard in the cultivation of dry farm products. The city council is working extra sessions these days over a contract with the California-Oregon Power Company which seems to be advantageous to the municipality. It is understood that the corporation will retire from the field, waiving any claims as to a franchise, the present action in court against the company to be dismissed. In return the corporation will wholesale current to the city at reduced rates, a minimum of $700 to be charged for a minimum 70,000 kilowatt hours per month, the current to be available for all purposes except heat. These overtures on the part of the company are made on the basis of a twenty-year period. Another benefit to the city will be the free use of current in working pumps at the mineral springs stations. They more often used the cheaper, and a sliding scale has been submitted for more kilowatt hours than above indicated. Bob Goodyear, of Berkeley, Cal., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jennie Goodyear, and various relatives. Mrs. Olivia Schilling and Chester Wolcott were married on Wednesday by Rev. R. W. Farquhar, of the Congregational church. The ceremony occurred at the home of Roy Walker, on the Boulevard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Poland. Mr. Wolcott is a business man of Marshfield, for which city newly married couple left Wednesday evening, going by the way of Roseburg. Charley McWilliams was over from Klamath Falls Wednesday with two passengers bound for Portland. He reported that his 'Reo' behaved splendidly over the Green Springs road which is improved in sections. His brother Elvidge returned with him Thursday morning. Tom Wright, recently employed in the big department store of the McClelland Lumber Co., has returned to his home in the Nob Hill district of Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Vincent, Mrs. Groves, Miss Jessie Ballard and Miss Ruth Hedges, all of North Yakima, Wash., were of a motor party which camped on the automobile grounds early in the week, bound for San Francisco and San Diego. On the return trip they will visit Crater Lake. Miss Hedges is a niece of Ralph Hedges of this city. Their car was one of the biggest which has yet put in appearance at the camping place, a restful spot which excited the admiration of the excursionists. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hodgson, accompanied by their daughters Marion and Margaret and son John, started this week in the family Ford for a trip to Crescent City, going by the way of Grants Pass. An innovation in church circles will be a composite address by three business men at the Baptist church on next Sunday morning in lieu of a formal sermon by the pastor. The theme will be "Why I Am a Christian," the speakers being a banker,

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinckham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Mrs. JOHN TETRAULT, Box 116, Sterling, Conn. MARRION, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinckham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinckham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYERS, Box 74, Massena, N. Y. Young Girls, heed this advice. Girls who are troubled with painful irregular periods, headache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinckham's Vegetable Compound.
