Mrs. E. V. Coffin is visiting Mrs. C. J. Eastman of Oakland, Cal.

About 400 former Iowans representing nearly all parts of Rogue River valley gathered at the Ashland park Friday for their annual picnic.

As each arrival registered his name, present address, and former address in Iowa, he was given an old gold badge provided by Ashland Iowans. The time from 12 to 1:20 was spent in doing justice to the picnic dinner spread in the shade, in family and neighborhood groups.

Following this C. B. Lamkin of Ashland called the gathering to order at the round table, and introduced Mr. E. V. Coffin of Medford, who presided. Editor Wolff of the Ashland Record on behalf of Ashland made a witty address of welcome, which was responded to by a rising vote of the assemblage. Fred Mears of Medford spoke of the Hawk-eye state and its influence on western development.

Mr. Thomas of Talent thoughtfully reviewed the reasons why Iowa takes its high position, morally and economically. B. F. Mulkey of Medford followed in a 20-minute address on Iowa as seen from the outside. In this he well sustained his reputation as a public speaker.

The musical selections of the program, solos by Mrs. Wolff of Ashland, and Miss Iva Coffin of Medford, were excellently rendered and pleased the audience. No less pleasing was the martial music of the G. A. R. drum corps. At the close of the program a Southern Oregon Iowans Association was effected, the officers of which for the coming year are, president, C. D. Hoop, of Medford; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Boehling of Medford, with vice presidents in the various towns.

It is proposed to hold a mid-year gathering in Medford, and an annual picnic at place and time to be chosen later.

A program of sports was then carried out which was much enjoyed by all. The coffee and cream furnished by the Ashland contingent free to all, and the many other courtesies extended by them are much appreciated by all who attended.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Scott N. Holly street Thursday afternoon. Mrs. C. P. Buck was in charge of the meeting. The following program was enjoyed:

At noon on Thursday July 29, the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin at Rogue River was the scene of a pretty wedding in which the contracting parties were their son Geo. P. Martin and Miss Frances A. Nevel, also of Rogue River. As the strains of the wedding march were heard, Rev. James Martin, the officiating clergyman and grandfather of the groom, led the way from the house to the lawn where were gathered under a large spreading maple the family and a half dozen friends. Following the minister came the groom dressed in black and attended by his brother, Mr. David Martin of Seattle, Wash., and the bride daintily attired in white laces and her maid of honor also dressed in white and the nuptial knot was tied. Immediately after the dinner which was served the living room the couple left on No. 16 for Ferndale, Wash., where they will spend a few weeks, after which they will return to Rogue River to live. The couple are well and favorably known in the valley, the bride having been principal of the Rogue River high school the last two Megeerly, Oids and Rev. and Mrs. young rancher and a leader in civic improvement affairs. Both have a host of friends who esteem them highly and who join in good wishes for the happy couple. Those present were: Grandfather Rev. Rev. and Mrs. M. G. B. Pierce of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mrs. G. W. Lounsbury.

MEDFORD COLLEGE NOTES

Much interest was manifested in the regular contests in typewriting, spelling and rapid calculation, which were held Friday morning. First honors in typewriting were obtained by Hazel M. Putney and Gertrude Trautfeffer. Miss Putney wrote 55 words per minute, and Miss Trautfeffer, 50 words per minute, for ten minutes. Freida Binns and Elsie Olson received second honors in typewriting and Miss Binns also received an Underwood proficiency certificate.

In rapid calculation, Florence Ditsworth, Freida Binns, and Ben Forbes were awarded second honors, and third honors were secured by Elsie Olson, Leila Clark and V. M. Fint.

We miss from our classes Annie Bateman and Velma Woods who are on the sick list. We trust that they will be with us again in the near future.

Grace Taylor has also been absent from school the past week on account of her mother's sickness. We hope that she, too, will be with us soon.

Another interested member of our shorthand class is Freida Binns, who decided to add that subject to the other subjects which has been studying.

SAFETY FIRST

Don't risk injuring yourself and setting your home on fire by attempting to clean clothes at home. It is dangerous, and is not worth the risk to which you expose yourself. You can insure your own safety and the proper handling of your clothes by sending them for cleaning, pressing, dyeing to a plant which is modern, fire proof and up-to-date. Our charges are so low that it will not pay you to do your own work. For your own protection, call 244.

RICHEST YOUNG WOMAN IN THE WORLD WEDS YALE GRADUATE

Thirty million dollar bridal couple. Miss Catherine Barker, heiress, and her husband, Howard Spaulding, Jr., "snapped" in a hammock in the garden at Barker cottage, Harbor Point, Mich.

HARBOR POINT, Mich., July 31.—More than 300 guests from all parts of the country are here for the marriage at 4 o'clock this afternoon of Miss Catherine Barker of Michigan City, Ind., and Howard H. Spaulding, Jr., of Chicago. Miss Barker is said to possess a fortune of $30,000,000 and is an orphan. Mr. Spaulding is a son of Mrs. Howard H. Spaulding of Chicago; was recently graduate from Yale, and for several months has been secretary to the general manager of the Haskell and Barker Car company of Michigan City.

Some excitement was caused by a report that Miss Catherine Barker had received a threatening letter stating that unless she paid $75,000 immediately, Howard H. Spaulding, Jr., to whom she is to be married this afternoon, would be kidnapped.

The Barker residence is under guard.

(Staff Correspondence.) HARBOR POINT, Mich., July 24.—She is 19 years old, she has $30,000,000, she is going to be married on the last day of this month and she is busy just like other brides-to-be—Only more so.

For being a thirty-million-dollar heiress and an orphan—the richest orphan in the world—she has to look after her business affairs. And $30,000,000 is a lot of money to look after, especially when your head is so full of "him" and your trousseau.

She is Miss Catherine Barker of Michigan City, Ind., who on July 31 will become the bride of Howard H. Spaulding, Jr., of Chicago. Miss Barker's father, the late John H.

Barker, amassed a fortune as head of a huge car-building plant. Miss Barker inherited these car works.

The richest little orphan girl in the world and a host of girl friends—not forgetting her husband-to-be—are all down here at the Barker cottage, where the wedding will take place, "getting ready" for the big event.

Host of Girl Friends

The "Barker cottage" is the summer home of "Kitty Fitz," as Miss Barker is known to her intimate friends.

Friends are arriving and departing every minute, and there is a steady stream of "the curious," for every one wants to know just how the richest orphan girl in the world spends her days getting ready for her wedding.

Here is a typical daily program of this thirty-million Miss:

By 8 o'clock, while waiting for her guests to struggle down to breakfast, she is out in the garden picking flowers or playing about with her fiance. She is athletic and a great "tease," her friends add.

Breakfast over, she and her guests take a short ride in the "Katy Fitz," the $4000 motorboat, which has been named after its fair owner.

Making Wonderful Gowns

Then, while her other guests golf and play tennis, Miss Barker and her bridesmaids confer with dress-makers. For six wonderful gowns are being made in addition to her wedding dress for the bridesmaids.

Luncheon follows, and then the afternoon is given over to games and auto rides. But in between times

Miss Barker manages to slip away alone with her husband-to-be.

But there are also daily business affairs that demand attention. For James B. Forgan, of the First National Bank of Chicago, who is her foster father, insists upon it. She really is so busy that he will only give her one day in which to get married, and then she must cut short her honeymoon and hurry back to Chicago and do what—guess—why, make her will. Her foster-father says it will take two days to do it.

But afterwards the bridal pair will resume their honeymoon, going first to Canada, then to San Francisco to see the exposition, and then they will sail for a long, long stay in Honolulu, which is a veritable honeymoon land.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Also cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for literature, free.
