THE WHOLE STORY TOLD
IN A NUT SHELL.

Store Must Close---Money Has to be Raised Quickly.

When a man's house is afire he does not stop to figure the cost of extinguishing the flames How then can we stop to figure the cost of getting abreast of present financial difficulties?

We are disposing of the entire stock of BRANDED HIGH GRADE MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, SHOES, HATS AND FURNISHING GOODS ever sold in the state of Oregon and at a vast sacrifice. Sorry enough to be compelled to do so, but 'tis an ill wind that blows good to no men—and the men of Medford and vicinity now will reap the benefit. EVERY ARTICLE IN THE ENTIRE STORE MUST AND WILL BE CLOSED OUT no matter how great the sacrifice.

San Francisco, Cal., July 20, 1915.

Louis Shafsky,
Care Wardrobe, Medford, Ore.

Further extension of time positively refused, demand made and must be paid on time or everything goes to ruin. I tried to raise money in the bank but failed to do so. The only way out of it is for you to give a sale, turn the merchandise into cash as quickly as possible, close out the store at Medford and come back to California.

Albert Shafsky.
