

ASHLAND PLANS PUBLIC MARKET PRIVATELY OWNED

ASHLAND, Aug. 9.—The community is to have a well-equipped public market, private enterprise anticipating any movement of the kind by the city on the municipal lot purchased sometime ago for that purpose.

considered good. The fleeces are Merino of extra quality. A laxative correspondent of the Tidings from Dallas, not lax however in appreciating the merits of the unrivalled equipment at the local automobile camp grounds, in the last issue of that paper allows enthusiasm to get the better of actual fact by stating that the premises are equipped with "ladies and gentlemen's toilets sufficient to accommodate at least one thousand people."

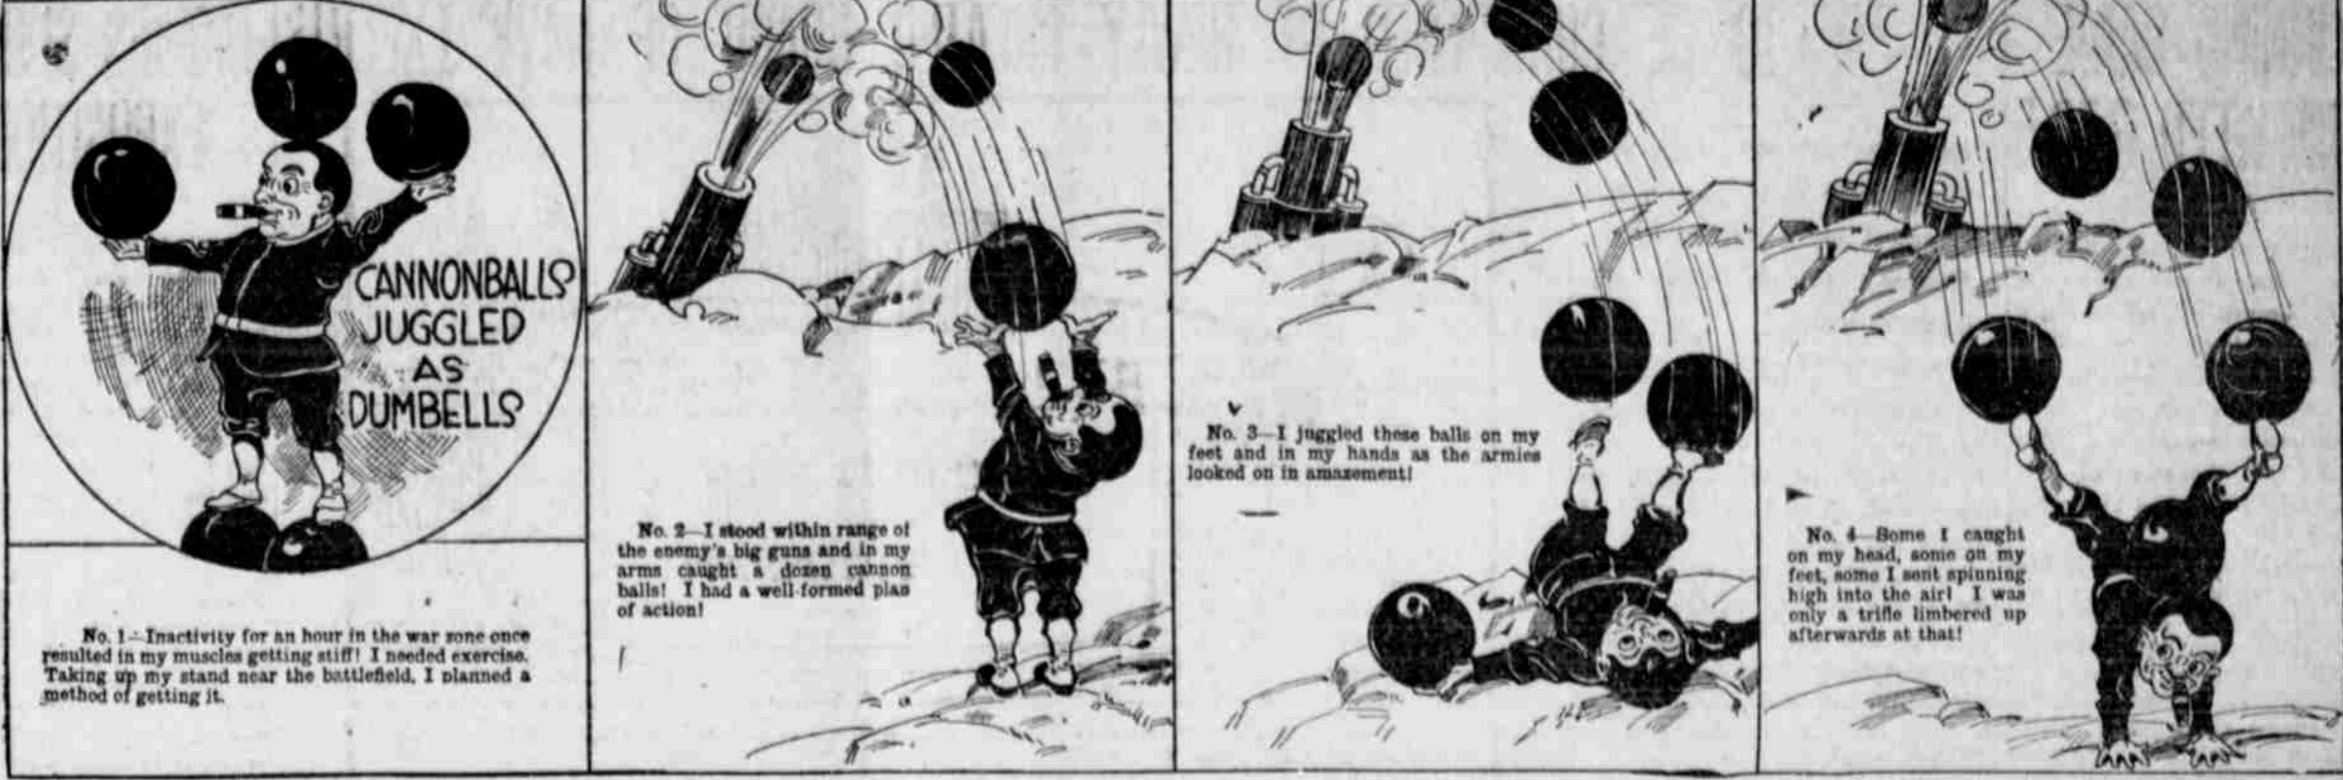

VULCAN PLACES LID UPON LASSEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The recent volcanic eruptions of Lassen Peak California, the most violent and destructive of which was the outburst in May, 1915, are reported by Geologist J. S. Diller, of the United States Geological Survey, to have reached their maximum.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—AT THE FRONT

No. 1—Inactivity for an hour in the war zone once resulted in my muscles getting stiff I needed exercise. Taking up my stand near the battlefield, I planned a method of getting it.

No. 2—I stood within range of the enemy's big guns and in my arms caught a dozen cannon balls! I had a well-formed plan of action!

No. 3—I juggled these balls on my feet and in my hands as the armies looked on in amazement!

No. 4—Some I caught on my head, some on my feet, some I sent spinning high into the air! I was only a trifle limered up afterwards at that!

sin, now local residents, still hold the banner for superiority in numbers over any other state, not even Ohio being excepted. This record was established several years ago at a chautauqua assembly, when a registration was made by states. The "banner" is a literal one instead of merely figurative, and can be seen upon application to either Tom Simpson or Frank McWilliams, custodians of the trophy, who flaunt it in the faces of Buckeyes, Jayhawkers or Hawkeyes.

Mr. Morgan and family and Mr. Moor and family have moved to town for the winter. Mrs. Keen returned last Tuesday from a visit in Ashland. Her granddaughter, Kee Buchanan, came with her.
