

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ray Langois the watter fined $15 for fighting with John Briner, states that he began the fight when Briner spit in his face, and that he did not spit in Briner's face, as erroneously published.

This country has not gone to the bow wows as the partisan calamity howlers would have you believe. The Crane Grocery Co. has been in business a month as successors to D. H. Sturtevant and so far no laborer, mechanic or business man has asked for one cent credit and sales have increased over 100 per cent. This store is growing in popularity and volume of business because it specializes on Chase — Sanborn coffee, Fisher's Art and Blend flour, Heinz vinegar, fruits of all kinds, and guarantees every article leaving their store to be satisfactory in every particular.—Central Point Herald.

Austin Edgeworth of Lincoln, Neb. is a visitor in Medford.

Drink Celso Kola "First for throat" 5c at your favorite fountain.

Miss Fanny Taylor of New Zealand is a guest at the Holland hotel.

William Vawter Page afternoon and evening.

Paul Blanchard of Grants Pass was a recent visitor in the city.

See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office Mail Tribune Bldg.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wilson spent Friday morning in Jacksonville looking after property interests.

Velvet ice cream at De Voe's.

"Andy" Crum who was shot to death in a jail in Osceola, Ark., yesterday is said to have lived in Medford several years ago. Thomas Hoff states that he remembers Crum. His name is not listed in the city directory.

I take pride in making your watch keep perfect time. I have every facility for doing fine watch repairing. Johnson the Jeweler.

Officer W. H. Crawford motored to his orchard home in the Griffin creek district Thursday afternoon.

When that auto wheel cracks and pops it needs fixing. We make as solid as new, at a small expense. Billings Carriage and Auto Works.

Peter Westerlund, father of J. A. Westerlund of this city, left yesterday for his home in Orion, Ill. after a three weeks' visit in Medford.

William Vawter Page afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Halcorn and family contemplate moving to Little Shasta Valley, Cal., where Mr. Halcorn has rented a dairy farm.

De Voe carries the best line of five cent cigars in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. David Finley have gone to San Francisco where they will remain for several days attending the exposition.

Johnson, at the Book Store, an expert watch repairer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ilsen of Hood River, arrived in this city this morning for an indefinite stay.

Chocolates, 20 cents lb. De Voe's.

Miss Edyth Finley has returned from a visit to friends in Grants Pass.

Meekhan's Lunch, 25c. The Shasta.

Frank Thelon of the Bear Creek orchard district, transacted business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

"Taxi-323" 15c anywhere in city.

Formerly Alec Taxi. Now office Nash Hotel, Phone 333.

Miss Grace Pearson spent Thursday afternoon with friends in Ashland.

William Vawter Page afternoon and evening.

Anita Brownell of Graden City, Ore., is visiting with Emerson Merrick of this city.

Weston Camera Shop for first class Kodak finishing and Kodak supplies.

Stanley Haight leaves Saturday to rejoin his ship at San Francisco, for the return trip to the Annapolis naval academy, after a three weeks' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Haight of this city. He will return by way of the Panama canal.

For flour or feed phone Medford Roller Mills, Phone 507.

Harry Beall of the Roxy Ann district, transacted business in Medford this morning.

Loganberry sherbet. The Shasta.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Thompson returned last evening from a visit to San Francisco and the fair.

Safety and service. We give both. Holmes, the Insurance Man.

Miss Giddie Reynolds of the Ruch district, is spending the week end with friends in Medford.

Fresh roasted peanuts at De Voe's.

Howard Taylor returned this morning from a business trip to Portland and other northern points.

Quick service for your Kodak finishing. See Weston's Camera Shop.

Ernest Carlton, a prominent rancher of San's valley, is spending the day in Medford.

Get your butter, eggs, cream, milk and butter milk at De Voe's.

Chris Storey of Talent spent Friday morning in the city visiting with friends and acquaintances.

Walter Casten of Ashland, is a Medford visitor today.

H. M. Nettles of Portland is among the many out of town business visitors in the city.

Take your watch to Johnson, the Jeweler, you will receive unusually good service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jacobs of Salem arrived in Medford this morning to remain a few days with friends.

J. O. Gerking, the best all around photographer in southern Oregon. Always reliable. Negatives made anywhere, time or place. Studio 228 Main St. Phone 320-J.

P. J. Blosser and wife and son John of Chillicothe, Ohio, and Rollo Marchant of Washington Court House O., arrived in Medford, Friday to spend the month hunting and fishing in the Crater Lake country.

Have you tried one of those 50 milk shakes at DeVoe's?

Miss Bertha Yob of Applegate, is visiting with friends in Medford.

Jack Frederick of the Whiskey Peak district, is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

The Mother's Home Made Bread at your grocers. Newtown Bakery, 146

The Irrigation dam being built at Fish Lake by the Rogue River Canal company, is expected to be completed by November 1st, according to information given out by Manager J. T. Sullivan. Between 70 and 80 men are employed in the construction work.

Another of the popular picnic excursions to Butte Falls will be run Sunday, August 15th. Butte Falls on this occasion offers added attractions in the shape of broncho busting, horse races, bucking bulls, mule races etc. Train leaves Pacific & Eastern depot 8 a. m., returning leave Butte Falls 5 p. m. $1.00 round trip. Auto bus leaving Ashland 7 a. m., Talent 7:15, Phoenix 7:25 a. m. will connect with train.

Acreage signed by the water committee Thursday brought the total for the campaign up to 13,675 acres. A strenuous effort will be made to bring this number to 20,000 before the last of next week.

All who are to have copy of ads for the Jackson County fair premium list please have it ready this morning when called for.

W. Taylor Smith, formerly of this city, now of San Francisco, where he is circulation manager for the Orchard and Farm publication, expects to be in Medford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edmondson have returned to their home on Williamson creek after a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Hurd of this city.

Miss Della Beck of Woodburn, Ore. is the guest of Mrs. Ernest McKee, of Vancouver Ave.

B. Martin, a prominent land owner of Shasta valley, California, died the first of the week. Mr. Martin was well known in this city. He is said to have died of ailments incident to old age.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Stater of Agate are spending the day in the city.

James Hansen has returned from a trip to Cottage Grove.

A special story hour for children will be held at the library Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. If the weather permits the stories to be told in the park.

Ora Dickson, arrested the first of the week on charges of being cruel to dumb animals, was taken seriously ill yesterday, and will be exempt from facing the charge.

Furniture for the new Barnum hotel is expected to arrive in a few days. The hotel will be opened the first of next month.

Grover Renshaw has returned from a business trip to Pendleton and other eastern Oregon points.

Miss Hattie Vaughn has returned to her home in the Gold Hill district after a brief visit with friends in Medford.

Lloyd Williamson and Wesley Judy are planning on a trip to Crater Lake.

Chester Parker and family are enjoying an outing at Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kelley of Portland passed through the city this morning on an auto tour of the state. They plan to visit Crater Lake.

Floyd Hart expects to leave the first of the week for Blue Canyon where he will remain until early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goodman of Albany are visiting with friends in Medford.

Arrangements are being made for a ball game in this city next Sunday between the Athletics and the Jacksonville club.

The work of grinding grain at the Old Davis mill will be started the first of next week, according to present arrangements. The old mill has not been operated for over five years.

Nick Ootman of Roxy Ann district spent Thursday afternoon in Medford on business.

H. T. Taylor, a business man of San Francisco, is spending a few days in the valley inspecting conditions. "For the past six months," states Mr. Taylor, "business men in California have been retrenching wherever possible. A good fall is anticipated, however." Mr. Taylor is the owner of the Taylor Hardware company of San Francisco.

The jewelry stolen from the home of Mrs. Lou Jones of this city six week ago by yeggmen now in the Placer county, California, jail, will be returned to the owner, according to local authorities, after the trial of these people. The jewelry was recovered at Reno, Nev.

Thomas R. Pearson has returned from three weeks' sojourn in California.

Several wanderers who made themselves objectionable by loitering on the streets of the city, were ordered out of town this morning. A menacing brush fire is reported to be raging near Grants Pass.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Collins of this place and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Collins of Jacksonville left Tuesday for Crater Lake going by automobile.

W. R. Byrum and L. Fitzpatrick were business visitors in Central Point Tuesday.

Miss Alene Wilson of Medford is enjoying a few days of country life at the Nealon ranch.

During the last few days many parties looking for real estate have been seen in this district.

W. R. Byrum is busy constructing a new granary for his large crop of grain.

The Arrow Heads held their regular meeting last Saturday night, and a good program was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Mr. Lester of Agate was over on way last Wednesday looking for hog buyers.

The following Table Rockers were business visitors in Medford Tuesday J. C. Pendleton and son Verne, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. May, James Reese, H. R. Nealon and R. E. Nealon.

We bet a new hat that there would not be another wedding in Table Rock before the middle of August, but we are afraid we've lost it.

The Arrow Head Literary society will give an entertainment and ice cream social next Saturday evening. The program promises to be something extra. If you don't come out, you're going to miss a treat.

Some 12 head of hogs disappeared from the Canton ranch about three weeks ago and so far Mr. Canton has failed to find any trace of them.

Mrs. Evelyn Gleason and children of Tacoma, Wash., are visiting relatives and friends throughout the valley. Mrs. Gleason is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davis who formerly resided here and are now living at Toho.

The "Tablets" of last week stated that the rattler killed by Chrono Middlebush was 42 inches in length. Mr. M. informs us that it measured 44 inches from tip to tip and had 18 rattles and a button.

Several hunting parties are being fitted out in this vicinity so as to get to the hills in time for the first shot, we sincerely hope they are "mighty" sure of what they are shooting at before they pull the trigger.

Miss Leo Anderson of Spokane, Wash., and Mr. Elmer Hall of this place were quietly married last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Tucker of the "Cotton Club" in Medford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Blain who formerly resided here where Miss Anderson attended school for several years and by her charming manner won a place in the hearts of all who met her.

Mr. Hall is the foreman of the Meadow orchards to which position he worked up to by his efficient work and strict attention to business.

The happy couple will reside at the Meadow orchard where they will be at home to their many friends on their return from a wedding trip to California points.

With Medford trade to medford made.

Alice Brady, daughter of Wm. A. Brady, in "Kaiserbocker feature," "The Cup of Chance," Page Theatre, Friday and Saturday.

COULD BE A MOVIE STAR PREFERS TYPEWRITER

Ruth Purcell, crowned queen of beauty at the San Francisco exposition, who refused to be a leading movie lady because she prefers her typewriting job.

TYPOS DEFEAT ACT TO CURTAIL BOOZE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 12.—A recommendation that members of the Typographical Union abstain from the use of liquor was defeated by the convention by an almost unanimous vote. The recommendation was offered by Delegate Hill, of Fresno and the unfavorable report of the committee on laws was upheld, only four votes being raised in favor of the recommendation.

TOTAL ACREAGE FOR WATER NOW 12,685 ACRES

Acreage signed by the water committee Thursday brought the total for the campaign up to 12,675 acres. Those signing for the day were:

Farmer	Orech
Frank A. Reed	7
A. N. Wright	2
M. J. McKay	5
Alfred Mestler	26
Wm. J. Ferns	10
A. E. Ferns	10
N. L. Ferns	21
A. Rowman	5
Mrs. R. G. Van Dyke	150
J. P. Gassett	15
N. E. Childers	16
Elizabeth Laurents	20
Robert Kyle	5
	5657
	8018
	8018
Grand total	12675

FINISH FISH LAKE DAM BY NOVEMBER FIRST

According to J. T. Sullivan, manager of the Rogue River Canal company, the irrigation dam being built at Fish Lake will be completed by November 1st. There is, according to the manager, enough material on the grounds to complete the dam. Between 70 and 80 men are employed. Those in charge of fitting the masonry working night and day so as to have everything in readiness when the fitting in work is begun. Already several miles of ditch work has been done.

Kaiser Wilhelm an "Ump." BALTIMORE, Aug. 12.—Living (Kaiser) Wilhelm, a pitcher of the Baltimore Federal League club, has been appointed umpire in the same league. He will officiate for the first time this afternoon.

DISTRIBUTE FISH IN RECORD TIME; AUTOISTS ASSERT

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock a carload of fish for distribution among the streams of Southern Oregon was received at the Medford station and within one hour after same was received all of the fish were loaded in automobiles and were on their way to the several streams in which they were planted. The promptness with which this work was accomplished was due to the kindness of the following named persons who volunteered their cars and services in taking these fish to the said several streams of southern Oregon: Miles Cantrall, A. L. Hill, Louis Ulrich, Ernest McKee, Gus Newbury, Wm. I. Vawter, Ed Lamport, California-Oregon Power Co., A. J. Vance, Dr. E. H. Porter, Mert Emerick, Walter Bowne, Jr., Perry Ashcraft, E. C. Gaddis, Joe Smith, Wm. T. Grieve, Dr. E. B. Pickle, Jack Morrill, Geo. Trisheiler, Geo. Mansfield, T. E. Daniels, W. V. B. Campbell, A. S. Rosenbaum, Toggery Bill. And the Rogue River Fish and Game Protective association desires to thank the several parties above named who contributed their cars and their time in delivering these fish and also desires to thank the Medford Ice & Storage Co. and the Weinhard Ice Co. for the ice which they contributed free of charge and which was necessary to the proper conducting of the fish to these streams. The Medford Mail and the Medford Sun generously advertised the coming of this car and the association desires also to thank them for the publicity which they gave the matter. Very respectfully, ROGUE RIVER FISH AND GAME PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION. By W. F. ISAACS, President.

APPLEGATE

Mr. Agee and Wood Jeter of the Steamboat district, reported that game is very scarce in through these mountains. No deer to speak of and bear are very scarce, and all other game the same. The play was well attended last Tuesday night and we are hoping that Dr. Reddell will visit us again. Thelma McDaniel is a visitor in Jacksonville.

Among those who autoed through here last week, were George Grant and family, Henry Barnes and family from Albany. Also three families from Portland on their way to the fair and was more than pleased with the crops throughout this valley.

The Offenbacher threshing machine has started to work and is expected to take in ten following ranches in this vicinity, Kubiles, Mansfield, Benedict, and Grabl & Rose.

Robert Winghamam of Forest Creek was down this way doing some plumbing.

Hop picking is thought to start some time around the date of the 20th of this month.

Mr. Potter from Brown town, was out setting supplies last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bonediet made a trip to town the first of the week.

James Roberson and his daughter, both from Medford, stayed over night at the Rose house Tuesday.

Mr. Camperon of Union Town spent Sunday at Kubiles.

Maud O'Brien has returned from Portland to Medford and many of her old pupils are counting on seeing her as she visits her friends of this place.

Mr. Agee of Steamboat has gone to Roseburg for a couple of week's stay. Ben Harriott and wife are in Jacksonville for a few days stay.

The Walters family spent Sunday with the Thurstons.

Beatrice O'Brien spent Saturday in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hannum and son Willard of Murphy passed this morning on their way to Steamboat for a few days' outing.

Mrs. W. E. Finney and Lyle Mee of Jacksonville are visiting with W. E. Finney on Hamburg this week. Mr. Finney is in the fire service.

SLAVS ESCAPE KAISER'S TRAP. (Continued from page one)

ports the main line of communication between the Polish capital and Petrograd has not been cut through. It will be cut if the Germans were to take Dvinsk.

The approaching meetings of both the Greek and Serbian parliaments gives promise of bringing the Balkan situation to a head, though for the moment Greece and Serbia remain obstinate in their refusal to concede territory.

PIONEER EUGENE CITIZEN DEAD

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 12.—S. H. Friendly, for 50 years a resident of Eugene, for 47 years a business man at the same location here, a member of the board of regents of the University of Oregon since the early 80's, once mayor of Eugene and one of the most widely known men in Oregon, died here this morning aged 75. He had intended leaving for the Panama-Pacific exposition today. Heart disease was the cause of death.

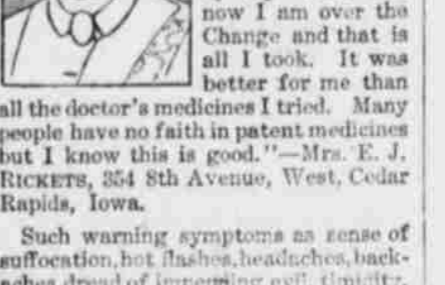

Standard Oil Increases

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 12.—Mechanics and laborers employed at

IOWA WOMAN TELLS OTHERS

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Carried Her Safely Through Change of Life.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"At the Change of Life the doctor said I would have to give up my work and take my bed for some time as there was no help for me but to lie still. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am over the Change and that is all I took. It was better for me than all the doctor's medicines I tried. Many people have no faith in patent medicines but I know this is good."—Mrs. E. J. RICKERS, 254 8th Avenue, West, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

COOLEST STORE IN TOWN.

An emblem of sentiment and joy, should be a Solitaire Diamond, flawless, perfectly cut and brilliant! Let us show you some beautiful gems of various sizes, ready for mounting to order, or in correct settings ready for use. Watch and Jewelry Repairing, Diamond Setting and Engraving Our Specialty. MARTIN J. REDDY THE JEWELER 212 E. Main St.

TRY POWER GAS AT OUR EXPENSE

On Saturday, Aug. 14 all purchasers of five or more gallons of gasoline will receive free Power Gas. We do this to demonstrate the wonderful qualities of this product. Increased mileage, perfect lubrication and a preventative of carbon. This offer good on Saturday only.

C. E. GATES

—when you have a prescription filled why not get the best—

MEDFORD PHARMACY
Squibb Drugs
Phone 10

WANTED—A night man to dry prunes. Phone 7-F4, Geo. B. Young R. R. No. 1, box 12, Orchard Home, 1294.