600 PYTHIANS TO ATTEND CONCLAVE AT CRATER LAKE

HERE'S "THE GIRL WITH THE MUFF"—SHE SHOWS YOU STYLES FASHION HAS SET FOR WINTER

Miss Pearl Germonde of the Heslen Follies De Vogue posing for Mail Tribune in foot ball muff and scarf, designed by Mayer Miller; and at right Miss Germonde posing in cross-fox muff and "heads and tails" neck piece.

muff is the football muff, and "pig-skin" was never rounder than the striped fox muff Miss Germonde carried when she posed for the picture shown at the left. The ball of fur is lined with flaming orange satin and it extends in deep frills at either end of the muff. The scarf a ribbon-pike affair of fox is finished with an exceedingly natural looking head and tail. This too is designed by Mayer Miller.

Fashion no longer is satisfied with half a fox to keep its hands cozy—it demands the whole animal, fluffy tail, nose, ears and all. It was one of those life-like little Reynard's Miss Pearl Germonde—she who trips so airily in Heisen Follies de Vogue at Chicago—wore when she posed the other day in this stunning set of furs designed by Mayer Miller, Chicago's exclusive furrier. The muff is a cross-fox; notice the cross on his shoulders, and the fox is all there from the tip of his "brush" to his little black nose. As the interior of the animal muff is seen as often as the exterior it's lining must be decorative. Gold lined satin thickly shirred lines this muff. A big bow of flowered yellow ribbon nestles beneath Mr. Fox's nose. Just as popular as the "animal" killed a few days ago. McGuire was the first soldier to lose his life during the raids. Pasano said that the leg was captured but his captors offered to let him go. He was taken to jail and later was released. After Pasano had returned to his home he saw a posse coming through his lands and called some of his friends to help him resist what he expected to be his arrest. He said this posse was not looking for Pasano. The latter's friends, however, opened fire. McGuire was killed in this fight and the Mexicans took to the brush. Pasano asserted that the only person injured besides McGuire was a small Mexican boy who was shot in the leg so badly that the limb had to be amputated. Pasano then came here with the leg for burial.
