

MOB PLANS TO CAPTURE FRANK; WORK PERFECT

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Aug. 17.—A well organized party of armed men who came in five automobiles, took Leo M. Frank, serving a life term for the murder of Mary Phagan at Atlanta, from a dormitory and escaped with him.

Five men went to the house of Warden J. T. Smith, awakened him and made him prisoner. At the same time a small squad of men went to the home of J. M. Burke, superintendent of the farm. Burke was forced to go with them to the gate nearest the dormitory. The party rushed in, got Frank and hurried him to one of the automobiles. He was forced down into the car, while a member of the party is said to have flourished a rope in front of him. Those who had been guarding Warden Smith left him and joined the party at the gates. The automobiles then started off in a northerly direction.

With only a limited number of guards at the prison and wire communication with Milledgeville interrupted, immediate pursuit was impossible.

Frank was sufficiently recovered from the wound in his throat, inflicted by another prisoner a month ago, to leave the prison hospital Sunday.

"I was called to the door just as I was preparing to retire," said Captain J. M. Burke, superintendent of the state prison farm today. "Two strong men grabbed me and snapped handcuffs on my wrists. Four others stood guard over me. I remonstrated and they declared it was no use for me to squirm as they had come for Leo M. Frank and were going to get him."

"I was marched up to the penitentiary building by a guard which was doubled as we proceeded. When we reached the building a demand was made for the gate to be opened. Meanwhile one of the men began cutting the wires and informed the prisoner on guard that if he did not open it he would be killed as soon as an entrance was made. The gate was unlocked and a night guard came forward, but he was immediately covered and ordered to throw up his hands. When half way up the steps a dozen men rushed by me and made a dash for Frank's room. One prisoner declared that four men took Frank by his arms and legs, while a fifth grabbed him by the hair and he was dragged and bumped down the stone steps.

"Frank did not utter a word, but apparently was suffering intensely and groaned from pain inflicted in handling him in his wounded condition. The affair was all over within five minutes, it seemed to me.

"During the entire time I was handcuffed and under guard. The whole procedure was well ordered and methodical and only a few words were spoken. A leader did all the talking. Only two of the men were masked, but I did not recognize any of them. The leader said, 'Now, boys, for the swamp.' In less time than it takes to tell it, they were off."

HILLYER BARRED FROM TRIAL OF STRIKERS CASES

DENVER, Aug. 17.—The supreme court of Colorado today issued a writ of prohibition barring Judge Granby Hillyer from presiding at future trials resulting from disorders in the recent strike of coal miners. The writ was granted on application of counsel for the United Mine Workers of America, who alleged that Hillyer was a former attorney for coal mining companies and therefore prejudiced against former strikers.

The court reserved its decision on the request of Lawson's counsel that he be released from jail on bond until after briefs are filed in September. The motion to bar Judge Hillyer from presiding in future trials growing out of the recent strike of Colorado coal miners was filed in the state supreme court on June 28. The motion specifically applied to the murder cases against John Burke, Charles Haines and Kayalo, growing out of the fighting around Walsenburg in the spring of 1914. The avowed purpose of the defendants' attorneys, however, was to raise issues on which they hoped to prevent Hillyer presiding at any future strike cases.

The motion was based mainly on the alleged fact that Judge Hillyer was formerly an attorney for the Colorado coal mine owners, was therefore prejudiced against the accused strikers. It was charged that the mine owners employed a force of attorneys and detectives to secure convictions of strikers, and that Granby Hillyer before his appointment as judge belonged to this force. The motion was argued in the supreme court July 12.

Judge Hillyer was appointed by Governor George A. Carlson after the legislature at its session last winter enacted a statute authorizing an additional judge in the third judicial district, which includes Trinidad and Walsenburg. He presided at the trial of John R. Lawson in which the labor leader was convicted of first degree murder.

YANKEE DOLLARS RULE WORLD; RATES DROP

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The American dollar ruled the financial world today with an iron grip. Pounds sterling, francs, liers, virtually all foreign exchange went down to new depths in a torrent of bills that poured into the exchange markets from American manufacturers seeking pay for the big war contracts of munitions and other supplies purchased here by the warring nations of Europe. Incidentally with the startling decline in exchange rates, came the assertion from an unimpeachable source that every contract made by the American manufacturers for supplies sent abroad called for payment in American dollars and not English pounds sterling which have heretofore been the standard of finance the world over. The immense losses, therefore due to the decline in foreign exchange rates will be borne, to the last penny, by the foreign buyers and will not be sustained by the American manufacturers—a situation exactly the opposite of what had been heretofore the popular belief.

The maximum depreciation today in pounds sterling was 4 1/2 per cent below normal; in francs, 19 per cent below normal; in Italian liers 25 per cent. In the money markets today the pound sold for only $4.64; 6.02 francs equalled a dollar; and a dollar purchased 6.48 liers. These were the quotations while rates were at the lowest ebb during the early afternoon. In the last hour of the business day, the presence in Wall street of J. P. Morgan for the first time since the attack on his life six weeks ago and an informal conference of bankers to reconsider the exchange situation, sent rates upward.
