

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

A concise and neat little booklet, as well as unique, is the latest publication gotten out by the Commercial club under the supervision of Morris J. Duryea, manager of its publicity department.

Among 179 accidents in the last report of the State Industrial Commission, T. J. Birmingham, Wells-Fargo messenger with terminal stop-over here, is reported as having sustained a mashed toe.

Mrs. Gertrude Murphy and her son Murphy are paying an annual visit to the huckleberry patches way out beyond the Dead Indian neighborhood.

Mrs. Mary Dickey and sister, Miss Sarah Fox, returned home this week after a month's visit at Newport with relatives in the R. A. Payne family.

Former odds and ends belonging to the old Polytechnic school equipment of subsidized memory, will be closed out at auction on Saturday, August 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeo returned early in the week from a visit with relatives at Los Angeles. On the homeward trip they also inspected the exposition at San Francisco, having visited the San Diego affair while in the former city.

Mrs. Sallie B. Crenshaw, of Coleman, Sumter county, Florida, together with her niece, Mrs. Annie Fulgham, of Red Bluff, have been recent visitors with relatives in the family of E. W. Fidler, Southern Pacific passenger brakeman, who resides on Fifth street.

Mrs. George W. Dunn and son Horace, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ira Nelson, of Roseburg, in the latter's car on their way home from a visit to Douglas county, met with an amusing if not exciting experience on the western outskirts of the city on Sunday evening.

Local police are on the lookout for a party giving the name of L. A. Perry who passed a bogus check of some 20 odd dollars on Kirk Roberts, restaurant man near the depot, a few days ago.

Asland voters are reminded that on August 25 will occur a special election to either adopt or reject a proposition to amend the city charter looking towards the issuance of a $25,000 bond issue to take over such portion of the California-Oregon Power company's equipment as lies within city limits.

Ed Farlow, now visiting with his family in Southern California, is exploiting the Ashland idea as to the practical benefits of the local camping grounds to prospective visitors headed this way.

Geo. T. Collins of Medford, who has recently returned from a business trip to Crescent City, reports having met Rev. H. A. Carnahan there with his family, they being located on ideal camping quarters near the ocean beach.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Johnson, of Chicago, the former a nephew of C. W. Nims, are visiting relatives here on their way to both expositions at San Francisco and San Diego.

The funeral of Brice Martin, prominent rancher of the Little Shasta valley section, who died recently as the result of accidental injury, was held last week in that locality.

The customary water restrictions have gone into effect. The major portion of the city is now allowed water for irrigation purposes from 5 to 10 a. m. and 5 to 10 p. m.

Well-grounded rumors are to the effect that Portland parties are negotiating for the lease of both Ashland theaters, the Vining and the Lyric.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—AT THE FRONT

NICK TOW? FLOATING ISLAND! STRANGE UNDERWATER VOYAGE!

No. 1—Once a peaceful, unprotected island in the North Sea was threatened! I swam out to it!

No. 2—I swam under water and found that the island was of the floating variety and was held in place by huge roots!

No. 3—I made haste to remove the roots from the ocean's bed and swam off with the island trailing behind me!

No. 4—Know what happened? The hole left in the ocean's bed where I tore out the roots sucked the water in, leaving the enemies' cruisers stranded on dry land!

manages the former and E. R. Lawrence the latter. Overtures are being made by these parties from the metropolis, and in the event of taking over the properties they will control a circuit of amusement places throughout southern Oregon.

To Ed Phipps is given the credit for being the first Ashland man who secured a deer in the open season beginning last Sunday morning.

The University of Oregon Quartet, which are giving a series of entertainments throughout southern Oregon, having appeared at the Vining on Monday evening, were the recipients of courtesies while here at the hands of the A. M. Beaver and E. D. Briggs families.

Local police are on the lookout for a party giving the name of L. A. Perry who passed a bogus check of some 20 odd dollars on Kirk Roberts, restaurant man near the depot, a few days ago.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Born, August 12, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hart, and eight and a half pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Rippy of Portland are here visiting Mrs. Rippy's mother, Mrs. R. G. Brown and sister, Mrs. Wm. H. Brown.

Since my last J. H. Carleton, wife and daughter, Mr. Clark Rippy, wife and son, Earl Webb and wife, Clarence Lovering, and wife, and Mrs. Lottie Van Score have taken an auto trip out to Crater Lake, Fort Klamath, Klamath Falls, Shoel creek Springs, Hornbrook, Ashland, etc., back home.

John Rader and wife were doing business in our town Monday. C. W. Clements and wife and J. Frank Brown and wife started for Crescent City Monday afternoon in Frank's auto.

Mrs. Ed Pence of Klamath county is here visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Knighton.

Mrs. Leabo has moved into the Mrs. Thomas house in the lower end of town.

Herman Meyer and wife, John Terrel and wife of Lake creek and John Terrel Jr., and wife of Medford, started for the coast last Friday to see the big pond.

Mrs. Leola Lewis of Reno, Nev., is here visiting the family of Frank Lewis and so is Miss Leada Magley of Rogue River, and Chauncey Flory and family of Jacksonville, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, were met at the train last Saturday by the Lewis family.

Miss Fern Lewis has returned from Jacksonville where she has been visiting relatives.

Since I wrote my last for the D. M. T. I have come into possession of some of the facts with regard to an out doors dance that was given at Brownsboro on Saturday night, the 7th.

Among the callers since I last wrote was A. Lindgren of Chicago, Ill., representing the Great Northern Manufacturing company, and Fred Tibbin of Portland of the American Central Insurance company.

The Daily American, of Aberdeen, S. D., announces the engagement of Miss Louise Lager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lager, former well known residents here, to Mr. Stephen J. Ware, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, civil engineer by profession.

Announcement was made at a luncheon given by Miss Louise a number of her girl chums August 9. The wedding will occur this fall.

Falls, R. W. Watson of Seattle, Wa., and Ed Dutton, beside several whose name I didn't learn.

Mr. Rice, the mayor of Roseburg, was among the business callers in our town.

J. T. Sullivan, his son Jack and Mr. Patrick Welch and N. E. Griffin of Seattle, Wa., called Sunday morning for breakfast on their way to Fish lake.

C. E. Whistler and H. F. Corleis have been visiting the family of F. M. Corleis on the All Vista orchard.

Miss Hazel Rader, a member of the faculty of the University of Oregon, has been here visiting Miss Francis Heath, one of the pupils of the institution.

R. B. Fairley of Portland, sales engineer of the Kelly Switchboard & Supply company, and Mr. M. McGuerk with the Oregon Central Cigar factory of Medford, were with us for dinner Monday.

Mrs. Marguerite Simpson, nee Marguerite Florey, is engaged as an assistant in the Eagle Point postoffice during the absence of the postmaster, W. C. Clements.
