

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

A company including Mrs. K. M. C. Neil of 'Ardenberg,' near Grants Pass, Mrs. Neil's daughter Marjorie, Walter Becker, of the State university, Miss Mary McArthur of Portland, and Phil Tobin of Winnemucca, Nev., motored over from Josephine county recently and were the guests of relatives and friends in Mrs. P. B. Whitney's family.

N. J. Reasoner of Palsade, Colo., a former real estate agent here, has been in town of late renewing old acquaintances. Rumor has it that since leaving Ashland he has entered the ministry of the Christian denomination.

A notable realty deal just closed by Allen & Phipps is the transfer by Miss Laura M. Spencer to Fred Lichens of Shasta Valley, of 140 acres on Williams creek, consideration $12,000.

Mrs. Shirley Keene, who conducts a dancing school with studio at Trinity parish house, has gone to San Francisco for a three weeks' stay. In order to visit the exposition and also to take note of any new development in the art terpsichorean which would be of advantage to a large patronage which she enjoys in the ranks of Ashland's fashionable and ultra exclusive smart set.

Bishop Sumner of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, who is in attendance upon the provincial synod now in session at Oakland, Cal., plans to make the Crater Lake trip from this section upon his return to Portland within a few days, or at least his friends here have outlined this detour for him.

Fred Putnam has returned from a month's work in hauling wheat from the Lamkin Bros. ranch near Montague. Other Ashland men employed there have been John Mauburn, sewing sacks, Charley Morgan, tending separator, and Clarence Mathes. H. R. Lamkin runs the combine harvester, 18 foot, cut, which is hauled by a caterpillar engine, cutting from 20 to 35 acres per day. The tract is nearly 100 acres, and the output this year will be from 7000 to 8000 bushels.

Frank May and wife of Newberg, Ore., are visiting Mrs. May's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Buskirk, preparatory to going to Greensburg, Kansas.

Missouri Pacific private coach "St. Louis," occupied by Director Chatham and party, went north on No. 16 Wednesday.

At the eleventh hour views of individuals are being aired in the local papers regarding the merits and demerits of the proposed electric light charter amendment. Councilman Cunningham presents a very fair statement on the question.

Mrs. Hal McNair, accompanied by her sisters, Helen and Gertrude Moore of Versailles, Mo., and Sam McNair left for an auto trip to Crater Lake on Thursday. Mrs. McNair being her own chauffeur.

Chit Tolman, member of one of old time families of the vicinity and pioneer in the development of Alaska towns, is visiting numerous relatives and friends hereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin went over to Montague early in the week to inspect harvesting operations. Jim Potter and wife accompanied them, also Miss Nellie Russell, who went as far as her ranch property near Steinman.

A boxing bout is scheduled for the Armory on Tuesday evening, Aug. 24, between Brad Shamrock of Seattle, and "Young" Eaton of Ashland, to be preceded by a preliminary bout.

Prospectors who have been investigating Dutch Cleanser prospects over on the hills above the Waite tract, report that seam is discernable on the ground where the oil was drilled for in the years ago.

Ashland will go ahead with its new jail project in spite of threatened injunctive proceedings. Inasmuch as this is a dry town the Record suggests that the goal of this new endeavor be limited to the metas and bounds of Water street instead of being entirely out of place on the Plaza.

More building material in front of the Enders block is a reminder that "improvement" is the watchword of the new firm, which now includes a triple alliance in the persons of Henry, the senior, Henry Junior and John.

Ad Graham, former resident, was a big man physically and is credited by the Gold Hill papers with raising potatoes which are prodigies as to size.

While Bill Mier was returning from a recent trip to Crater Lake, the route being via Ager, Cal., he found a suitcase in the middle of the highway near Hornbrook. A close inspection developed clues as to its owners, who were auto tourists from Minneapolis, Minn., bound to various portions of California, with a lengthy stopover at Alameda, California. Correspondence and mutual explanations followed, with the result that Bill shipped intact the whole lot of lingerie and bric-a-brac to its rightful owners. Southern Pacific and Wells Fargo schedules on this sort of contraband being prohibitive, the shipment was made in bond through government channels by parcel post. The charges were 38 cents without rebate, and for his interest and prompt action in the matter, Bill was rewarded by the grateful owners in the sum of five plunks, which circumstance is another reminder that "honesty is the best policy."

Mrs. R. C. Wiley leaves for the exposition this week. While in the Bay City she will attend sessions of the Christian Science association at Oakland, more particularly Dr. Francis J. Fluno's classes dealing with that cult.

Miss Cora Williams of Lexington, Ky., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. C. Wiley. She has been to Crater Lake, and in connection with this trip visited her niece, Miss Jessie Rose, who combines the employments of rancher-teacher in the neighborhood of Fort Klamath, her country residence being "Pinewood Place."

J. W. Lasher, of Portland, former well known resident here but now connected with a S. P. bridge crew, accidentally fell the other day, and is injured to the extent of being a patient at the Good Samaritan hospital in the metropolis.

Mrs. Sarah E. Sargent died at the residence of her son, P. D. Sargent, residing on Auburn street, Monday morning, aged 77 years. She was a native of Morgan county, Kentucky, and had resided in Colorado for a number of years, to which state her remains were sent for interment in the vicinity of Pueblo. Her son residing here is in the government entomological service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Connor of Klamath Falls are here visiting friends and attending to business matters. The former is an engineer on the S. P. branch from Weed to Klamath. Phil Rose is conducting the Model business college at the exposition. When the school term opens he will engage in teaching at Riverside, Cal. having accepted a fine engagement there.

Rev. John F. Dolphin of Portland is the new priest over the Catholic parish of the Church of the Holy Rosary, succeeding Father Leo. Father Dolphin's initial appearance here was at last Sunday's services. He is a native of Massachusetts and has served the church in both clerical and educational capacities in various portions of the country. He was a priest in Minneapolis, when Archbishop Christie of Portland, was a bishop. He was also president of St. Thomas' college located midway between Minneapolis and St. Paul, and for a number of years was post chaplain at Fort Snelling by virtue of a regular army assignment. Since coming to the coast he has filled appointments at Seattle and Portland, his last parish before coming here having been at Milwaukie. He is a gentleman of liberal views and an extensive traveler, having visited Hawaii, New Zealand and Australia, and is a walking encyclopedia of facts concerning the history and traditions of those distant lands.

Local attorneys visiting Medford recently announce the departure of Judge Calkins and Court Reporter Davis for Gold Beach to attend a session of circuit court of Coos county, where the Judge presides in place of Judge Calkins. They were to have started Friday of this week in their autos by the way of Crescent City. Rival complications in the fishing industry at the mouth of the Rogue river constitute a chief contention which will be brought up before the court.

Automobile tourists visiting the exposition, eager to make expeditions ferry trips across the bay from Oakland to San Francisco, might do well to remember that the carrying ca-

BUTTE FALLS BUBBLES

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jackson of Eagle Point, who have been visiting the latter's parents here, have returned home.

Mr. Gleason has gone back to his home in Michigan. Katie Buchanan is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Kee at present.

Grandpa Clark died last week of heart trouble. He always had a smile and a cherry greeting for everybody and we will miss him very much. He took an active part in the civil war and could tell many interesting war happenings and jokes. He leaves in Butte Falls a wife and married daughter, Mrs. U. S. Morris, who have our deepest sympathy.

George Smith is in Butte Falls again after having spent two or three years in Canada. Mrs. Simmerville went to Medford last week to receive medical aid. Mr. Simmerville accompanied her, returning Sunday.

Mrs. O. B. Morris and Cecile Peeler made a business and pleasure trip to Medford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fredenburg and family are spending their vacation at Crater Lake and Klamath county's interesting points.

John Seiler left Monday for Klamath county to resume his work there. Mrs. Higginbotham of Derby visited Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Abbott.

Mrs. M. Baker and Mildred Patton were in Medford Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Woods received a phone message Monday that her husband who was working in a saw mill in Klamath, had been killed by a falling tree. She and children went to Medford that evening and their relatives, Mrs. Dooms, and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Moor, went Tuesday to attend the funeral which was held in Medford.

Mr. Boltz is in Butte Falls at present on business. Mr. and Mrs. Sears and children, Romer and Margaret, who have been camped at Lodge Pole, have returned home.

Dr. Holt came up Tuesday to see Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Doubleday returned to her home in Medford Tuesday.

Mr. Barker made us a hurried visit the first of the week. He is spending his vacation in Lake county but was on his way to Frisco.

Reedith Jones of Medford is visiting Alice Smith.

Mrs. Fox and children are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Collins returned from a trip to Crater Lake last Thursday and consider it one of the best outings they have ever taken, being simply awe-struck with the grandeur of the lake.

L. E. Caton is delivering 500 bushels of wheat to Central Point parties, for which he receives one dollar per bushel.

The Arrow Heads initiated two new members at their last regular meeting.

Miss Mildred Russell of Medford, Cal., is visiting old friends in Table Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hull returned from their wedding trip Monday.

Melburn Atkins of Millville, Cal., is visiting friends and relatives in this district.

The Vincent threshing outfit finished work here Tuesday morning and moved to the Antioch.

ing. A very delightful evening was spent after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. James Pendland and James Reese of this place and Henry and Will Gregory of Agate and Joe Boswell of Central Point are taking a hunt in the Umpqua country.

L. E. Caton and family expect to leave next Sunday on an extended camping trip. They will go the river road to Crater Lake and return through Klamath county.

O. Pendland and family of Talent and M. G. Atkins of Redding, Cal., spent Saturday night and Sunday with relatives and friends in this district.

Inspector Ross Cline was doing business among our orchardists last Tuesday.

Mrs. Hollenbeck of Prospect visited relatives here last week. She reports that there is the largest crop of huckleberries in the mountains this year there has been for many years.

Earl Hoover who owns a fine home-stand near Mt. Rock, Lake county, spent a few days here with old friends this week, and although a booster for his own country he couldn't help but admire our district and admitted that the sight of green trees, corn and alfalfa fields was good for the eyes.

Harry Nealon is getting to be an expert driver with his tin lizard, although about all the time he has to practice is before breakfast and after supper.

The Arrow Head Literary society gave an entertainment and ice cream social last Saturday night, which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

The ice cream was the best grade made and the cakes were furnished by the Arrow Head ladies, which speaks for their quality. Everyone was in the best of spirits and seemed to have a fine time. By the time the last of the refreshments were sold everyone had had their fill. So successful was the affair that they are planning another in the near future, the money realized to be used in paying for their piano.

Mrs. Nettie Green of Central Point who has been doing some work in the dressmaking line for Mrs. A. L. Vincent, returned to her home Wednesday.
