

SUBMARINES SINK MANY STEAMERS OF VARIOUS NATIONS

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Spanish steamer Peria Castillo and the Norwegian steamer Sveresborg have been sunk by a submarine. Three members of the crew of the Peria Castillo were saved. The fate of the others on that craft and of those on the Sveresborg is unknown.

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Aug. 20, via London.—A German submarine stopped the Norwegian mail steamer Irna within Norwegian territorial waters yesterday, but the timely appearance of a Norwegian torpedo boat on the scene prevented further interference with the mail ship.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Two small British steamers, the Restormel and the Baron Erskine have been sunk by German submarines. Both crews were saved.

The Restormel, 1340 tons, was built at Greenock in 1901 and owned by J. Cory & Sons, limited, of Cardiff.

The Baron Erskine, 3565 tons, was built at Dumbarton in 1911. Her owner was the Hogarth Shipping company of Glasgow. The Baron Erskine sailed from New Orleans July 28 for Avonmouth.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Swansea Leader reports that the British steamer New York City has been sunk. The crew of the vessel has been saved.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The British steamships Samara of Glasgow, and Gladiator, of Liverpool, have been sunk.

The crew of the Samara is proceeding to port in a trawler.

Thirty-five members of the Gladiator's crew are in life boats which are being towed to port by a trawler.

WOMAN DRUNK FOR TWO WEEKS

Mrs. Laura Graves appeared again today before the police on a charge of drunkenness and gadding the streets at all hours of the day and night. The police allege that Mrs. Graves has been in a state of intoxication for two weeks, and that she sleeps in lumber yards, vacant buildings, and associates with tramps. Mrs. Graves denies all these allegations and avers that most of her woes are due to gossip, though not denying that she has an inherited fondness for liquor. The police warned Mrs. Graves that if she was again hauled before the police, she would be given a 30 day's sentence in the county jail. The woman told the police that she could "behave herself" if men with invitations to go "joyriding" would keep away.

According to the police Mrs. Graves was brought to this city from California by a middle aged man, and that they lived as man and wife on a five acre tract east of town for six months. Mrs. Graves' fondness for liquor caused complaint to be filed by neighbors, and disgusted her companion, who left without a farewell. Since then the woman has been living as best she could, as the hostess of alley "can rushing parties." She is a confirmed alcoholic, and about 30 years of age. She says she has a husband and two children "somewhere" in Arizona.

PEACE ORGANIZER VISITS MEDFORD

E. P. Rosenthal, organizer for the Christian Peace association is in the city today making arrangements for the holding of a meeting in this city in the near future. Rosenthal and assistants have been conducting a campaign in the Willamette valley, and meeting with good success. The theory of the association is that universal peace is closely linked with industrial peace and one cannot exist without the other. "Peace universal and peace industrial are closely allied," says Mr. Rosenthal, "and their separation is difficult. The solution to the one problem is the solution to the other. The cause of war between labor and capital and between nations is the same. It is my belief that we should establish trade schools and demonstration stations where all grades can be taught."

VISITING KNIGHTS SOUND PRAISES OF CRATER LAKE

Visiting Knights who attended the state grand lodge of Pythians at Crater Lake have returned to their homes sounding the praises of Crater Lake and Talisman lodge and firm in their purpose of bringing the national lodge meeting here next year.

The trip to and from the lake was attended with few accidents to autos, and none to the passengers. The roads were badly cut up but beyond the damage to tires, no serious injuries to cars is reported, though one or two have not yet returned.

Knights began arriving at the lake Monday. All day Tuesday there was a steady stream of autos. The camp was established under the hemlock grove above the new hotel and Tuesday evening the commissary led 300 Knights. After dinner there was a concert by the Medford band. Then the story of Damon and Pythias was staged in a natural amphitheater, huge bonfires furnishing the light. A dance in the newly completed assembly room of the new hotel, music being furnished by the band.

Wednesday morning the grand lodge and the candidates were taken by launch to Wizard Island, where in the extinct crater, the grand lodge assembled and the initiation ceremony were concluded. In the evening there was a farewell dance at the hotel, after speeches by officers of the grand lodge and visiting Knights. Early Thursday the return trip began, a stop for lunch being made at Prospect where a concert was rendered at Greive's hotel.

MANY FOREST FIRES RAGING

Forest fires are raging today in the Crater National forest reserve in the Steamboat district, and on the hillside one and three quarter miles southeast of Phoenix. The latter fire is visible from this city and is being combated by a force of citizens. It covers a small area. The fire in the Steamboat district is burning over an area of 500 acres, including some of the finest timber in Jackson county. A force of 25 men under the direction of Forest Ranger LePort are fighting the flames. No word has been received from the fire today, all wires to the ranger station being down.

Heavy forest fires are burning on Horse and Selad creeks and in the Klamath river country, on the south side of the Siskiyou. The sky is overcast with a heavy pall of smoke. The woods are as dry as powder, from the long drouth, and the forest fire season is now at its height.

TWO AMERICANS MISSING.

(Continue from Page One). was done today to assist the survivors, many of whom were without clothes or money. A number of the survivors are suffering from minor injuries but so far as is known none is in a serious condition.

With the main facts of the disaster established, the English public turned attention to the possible effect upon relations between the United States and Germany.

Awaiting Facts

While officials are keeping their minds open during the hours which will be required for assembling the official evidence they are thinking about these points:

Whether any Americans have been lost and whether the Arabic actually was torpedoed without warning.

Whether the Arabic, by having been conveyed on the beginning of her voyage had, under international law, partaken of the character of her convoy, and waived her right as a non-combatant.

Whether by proceeding to the vicinity of the steamer Dunsmuir, which has just previously been torpedoed, the Arabic's commander introduced any qualifying circumstances by violating the rule of the British admiralty, which forbids a ship to risk itself by attempting to assist another which has been torpedoed.

TRAPSHOOTERS SHOTT AWAY $30,000 IN SINGLE WEEK.

By Brown Helmes
More than $80,000 is being literally shot away this week by trapshooters attending the Grand American handicap tournament at Chicago. The event is the blue ribbon classic of the gun world. Every section of the country and every walk of life was represented in the entry list of 900 men and women which broke all entry records. The $80,000 represents the amount spent by shooters for the fun of feeling the kick of a gun, smelling powder and hearing the yell of the scorer calling out "Dead" after each "bird" is shattered into bits. Trapshooting is amateur sport pure and simple. The shooters not only provide their own guns and shells, but pay their own railroad and hotel expenses. And they travel hundreds of miles to reach the tournament city. Of the 900 shooters entered 700 live in cities outside of Chicago. The tournament was booked for five days, and figuring each shooter at $2 a day for lodging and meals, $7000 is spent for hotel bills. A fair average of the amount spent by each for railroad fare is $25, making a total of $17,500 for transportation. Shells cost $30 per thousand, and it was estimated 400,000 would be used during the tournament, making $12,000 for ammunition. The entry fee for a shooter going into every event is $60, but the average entry fee is $40, bringing that total for 900 shooters to $36,000. The treasury of the association was tapped for $10,000, for putting up tents, erecting traps, buying targets, etc., bringing a grand total of $82,500, which may be a low estimate, if anything. Men who follow the plow mingle with millionaires in this sport. One of the first to pull a trigger was W. E. Phillips of Chicago, and right beside him was R. G. Weir, a machinist from Freeport, Ill. There was a ranch owner from Texas and a painter from Denver. Then there was a Concordia, Kan., farmer, who was represented by a letter of regret. He said he couldn't come because he would be busy with his crops. Trapshooting is the most cosmopolitan sport under the sun.
