

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

An informal meeting to discuss contemplated irrigation matters was held at the Commercial club rooms on Tuesday evening.

James E. Ewer, an attorney of Boston, arrived Thursday for a visit with Professor and Mrs. H. G. Gilmore, old-time friends of his in the east.

Miss Edna Metcalf of Portland, on her return from summer school at Oakland, Cal., stopped off here to visit her friend, Miss Josephine Saunders, a fellow student of her's at Reed college in the metropolis.

Dr. F. P. Walker of St. Joe, Mo., accompanied by his wife and two children, have been recent visitors in the family of W. J. Dougherty.

Frank Dean, S. P. engineer, accompanied by Gardner Johnson of Chicago, are on a hunting expedition in the Dead Indian sector.

Couriers are coming in daily from the dozen or more Ashland families now camped in the Dead Indian neighborhood, reporting vital statistics concerning the nomads and requisitioning supplies from urban residents on whom they levy with a heavy hand.

Mrs. A. A. Holmes of Superior, Ia., mother of Mrs. B. H. Hinthorne, local photographer, who has been visiting her daughter here for some time past, will be joined by Mrs. J. C. Smith, also of the same Iowa town, before her return to the central west.

The first tragedy of the present hunting season in territory nearest Ashland occurred early in the week when James Hoover of Yreka, 22 years old, was fatally shot by his brother, W. C. Hoover, while a party were after deer in the vicinity of Fall creek.

Local Presbyterians are interested in the circumstance that Rev. Chas. T. Hurd of Portland has been called to the pastorate of the church of that denomination at Klamath Falls.

Jim Graham of Fort Klamath and Arthur Maher of Klamath Falls, who were brought over here early in the week by Charley McWilliams in an auto from the Falls, in company of G. E. Jackson, deputy United States marshal, are being held in Portland to appear before the next federal grand jury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosier, former residents, who went to live at Westwood, Cal., some time since, have been shipped from the government arsenal at Benicia, Cal., merely for the use of the contingent of the O. N. G., stationed in Lane county.

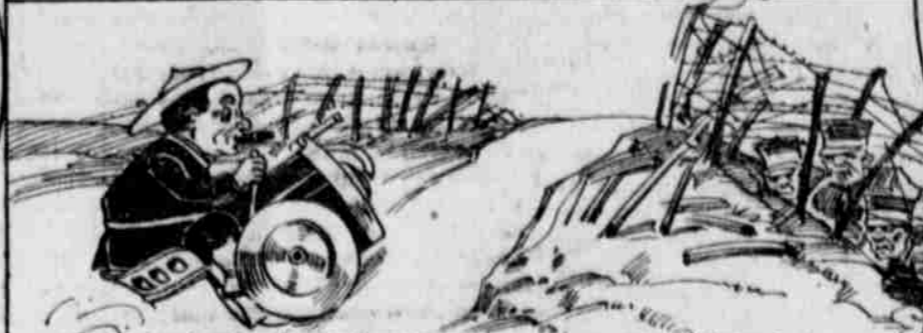

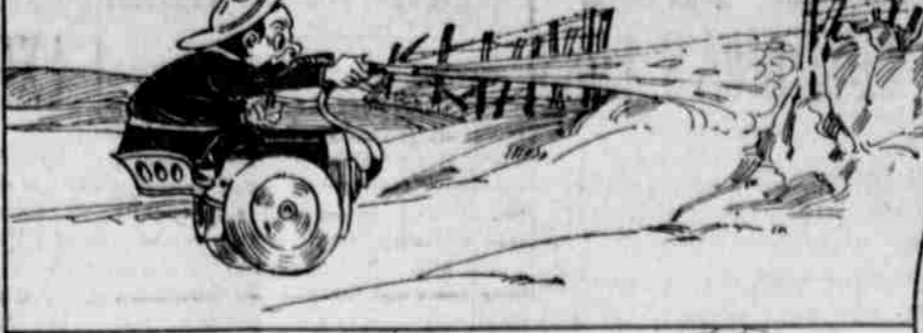

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—AT THE FRONT

NICK BUILDS PATHWAY OVER DEADLY BARBED WIRE!

No. 1—Once, seeing a host of brave soldiers manning in barb wire entanglements, I set out with my concrete mixer shortly after!

No. 2—I approached the enemy's cruel wire barrier and immediately sent a stream of cement over it!

No. 3—I made a clean, hard pathway in a few moments, over which I rode in safety. The enemy was waiting!

No. 4—AS I CAME OVER THE TOP OF THE HILL, I LET FLY A STREAM OF CEMENT AT THEM!

chanic street. Mr. Mosier, who is an invalid, made the trip from Westwood to Chico by automobile, thus avoiding a number of railway changes.

W. W. Usher, manager of the local telephone exchange, left on Tuesday for a visit to the San Francisco exposition.

Verne Pendleton and Earl May returned from the Evans Creek district last week with a fine buck.

The Vincent threshing crew are working in the Foothills creek district this week.

A letter from G. P. Hall, formerly of this place, but now of Garfield, Kan., states that they are having heavy rains there, which are doing considerable damage to grain crops.

Water Superintendent Chase states that his job is not an enviable one these days, when everyone is shouting for water at the same time.

Glen Conwell and wife of Medford were guests of the Lydiards last Sunday evening.

L. E. Eaton and family and Carl Beebe left last Sunday morning for Crater Lake and Klamath county.

The Glass Bros., threshing outfit is expected to arrive in this community the last of the week to thresh the crop of grain on the Norwick ranch.

The Lydiard party returned from their camping trip last week and report a most delightful time.

The stork in making his rounds left a bouncing baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wilson.

The Arrow Heads will give another of their popular ice cream socials next Saturday night, August 28. A good program is promised and an invitation is extended to all.

APPLEGATE

Maud O'Brien visited Gladys Rose a couple of nights last week. She expects to return to Portland from Medford the first of the month.

Panc, the man who was staying with Herman Offensbacher, was working on the threshing machine and died from over-heat last Thursday, August 12.

Ben Collins and family were out here visiting friends a few days previous.

Owing to the fires on the nearby mountains this valley is smoky. The fires are under control now and we will expect clear weather again for a week or so.

Mr. Worth's brother is making him a visit of a couple of weeks.

us, and here is hoping that you will all join us next Sunday.
