

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Vice-President E. O. McCormick of San Francisco, General Ticket and Passenger Agent Scott and General Freight Agent Hinchshaw of Portland, all Southern Pacific officials, arrived here Thursday, remaining until the schedule of No. 15 in the afternoon. In company with members of the springs commission, Publicity manager Duryea and George Kramer, local agent, the party lunched at the depot hotel and were afterwards taken for an extensive drive over springs territory and park surroundings. Agent Rosenbaum brought the party from Medford in an automobile.

A recent notable realty transfer is a finely improved ranch property in the vicinity of Evans creek, deeded by the Oxford Investment company, of which F. W. Streets of Medford, Stuart Saunders of Ashland and E. E. Bagley of Rogue River are incorporators, to E. E. Raymond of San Luis Rey, California, who with his son will occupy it. The tract comprises 160 acres. For postoffice facilities it is tributary to Wimer. Consideration was $11,000. Pending removal onto the property October 1, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Edwards, old-time Kansas friends, residing on Laurel street.

J. W. Lusher, former resident here, now of Portland, where he is employed with a Southern Pacific bridge building crew, and who was seriously injured by a fall while at work in the vicinity of Oregon City, is improved to the extent of being removed from the hospital to his home at 861 Francis avenue, Portland, where he is still nursing a broken arm and minor bruises.

W. F. Caldwell, former Western Union operator, and who broke his leg some time ago, is on the convalescent list acting as director of tourist movements at the automobile camp grounds in Lithia park.

Dr. W. E. Blake and family have returned from their outing in Douglas county accompanied by Mrs. Sina Grant. While there they visited relatives at Canyonville, where they were joined by the doctor's brothers, Geo. of Portland and Ed of Corvallis, who motored south with their families. Four deer fell before the prowess of the three hunters.

Traveling Auditor Coppage of San Francisco was checking up tickets and other supply features in the local S. P. passenger offices early in the week. He was accompanied by his wife who assisted in the work.

Hert Bryant, employee at the Nat. and who accompanied Guy Good and party on an outing to the Dead Indian locality recently, is credited with having shot the biggest deer secured in these parts this season. He was out popping at chipmunks in a desultory sort of a way when this particular deer appeared on the scene and was laid low with a 22 rifle at short range. The animal dressed 150 lbs.

The Siskiyou News, published at Yreka, F. Holbrook being proprietor, has moved into a building of its own, a brand new hootyope having been added to its equipment.

W. W. Usher, local telephone manager, has returned from the exposition at San Francisco.

R. N. Burt of Chicago is visiting the family of his granddaughter, Mrs. W. E. Fidler, residing on Fifth street. With associates he is introducing a novel heating device which is termed a "Seismo-Therm."

Hiram Danford who has been visiting his brother Thomas here for several months past, left on Wednesday for his home in San Diego.

E. N. Brushwood, living on Iowa street, has returned after a month's absence investigating mining prospects in Siskiyou county.

John Matters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Matters, came home on Wednesday from the Highland mine over beyond Yreka, for a vacation spell, being threatened with serious illness.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—AT THE FRONT

No. 1—No matter where I may be I always go fishing on Labor Day. That is my rule. Want to hear about my most remarkable fishing trip?

No. 2—I was fishing in a gulf. Suddenly I caught a huge sea bass on my hook! I tossed it high in the air!

No. 3—Snack! It flew directly into the mouth of a pelican flying overhead! However, I clung to my rod tenaciously!

(Artist's Note—Old Nick Nimble refused to tell of the windy of this adventure as it really happened! However, the sketch will give it to you straight.—Wells) been greatly improved by the application of several new coats of white-wash throughout, making them take on a subdued and spotless white appearance instead of the pronounced red light effects of former years.

Mrs. A. L. Harvey, residing on B street, has returned from a visit with her daughter at Klamath Falls, who is the wife of Nate Otterbein, an editor and publisher of one of the papers in that enterprising town.

W. G. Prescott, local fruitgrower, also Albert Johnson, of the Seven Oaks orchards, have lately been sending some extra fine peaches to be exhibited in the Oregon building at the San Francisco exposition. In the consignment were magnificent specimens of 28 Globe and 32 Elberta packs respectively.

Fishing is good even on Ashland lawns, irrigation penstocks furnishing the supply. On Wednesday, C. W. Nims, with the assistance of a plumber, landed a fine five inch trout from a valve fixture of his premises, 125 North Main street. A monkey wrench instead of a reel did the business.

Stockholders of the Granite City hospital held their annual meeting here Sept. 9.

If rigid government rules will admit of it, a parcel post exhibit will be made at the forthcoming county fair at Medford as a timely educational feature, a number of second rate postmasters having become interested in the project.

Col. Goethals, of Panama canal fame, passed through Ashland on Thursday, bound for San Francisco.

Motor cars bearing Florida pennants, recently camped here, covering a distance which is about the limit of any appearing on local grounds this season.

F. M. Anderson, a brother of Mrs. J. M. Wagner and a former well known resident here, arrived this week for a visit with relatives, accompanied by his wife. For sometime past they have been touring various northern sections of South America on a business mission as well as for pleasure. At one time Mr. Anderson was connected with the Southern Pacific as a geological expert in that corporations oil development work throughout California. The family home is at Berkeley.

Mrs. Emma Jack and her sister, Mrs. Ferguson, left for the Josephine county caves Thursday morning in their new Ford. By special invitation Rev. A. R. Blackstone and wife accompanied them on the outing, the pastor acting in the capacity of unlicensed chauffeur.

A movement having for its object the tendering of a reception to the school board and teachers of the Ashland district is under way. Rev. R. W. Farquhar, pastor of the Congregational church taking the initiative in the matter. The date proposed is on or about Sept. 10.

G. F. Easton of Prineville was here looking over the country in this section.

William Heckathorn of Yakima, Wash., was among the callers last Thursday, and on Friday went up to Thomas Farlow's and finally went up to his old home on Elk creek.

Dr. Emmons and Mr. Kidd, both of Medford, passed through here on their way to Crater Lake last Friday.

Last Saturday C. H. Willison and family were here for dinner and the way the traveling salesmen congregated here one would be led to think that our merchants were doing considerable business.

the family were, and Mrs. H. said that she could not think of leaving Eagle Point without taking a meal at the Sunnyside and meeting the author of the Eaglets, as she had been in the habit of reading them in her home in San Jose, Cal., for several years. The three ladies started on Tuesday evening on the S. P., accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Whitman and son. Mr. Whitman is the foreman on Mr. Hamilton's farm and orchard, and during his wife's absence he, Mr. Hamilton and his son are taking their meals at the Sunnyside.

In addition to the Hamilton family we had about twenty transients here for dinner, some of whom were strangers, but among them were R. L. Burdie, who has been buying up another earload of hogs for shipment to the California market. Walter Woods has been assisting him in making his purchases. They report that they have succeeded in securing sixteen porkers from Eugene Belows, thirty-five from L. D. Tucker, of Brownsboro and 115 from J. W. Wakefield of Medford.

Mrs. John Ashpole of Medford has been visiting her son, Roy, and family the past few days.

George Childreth came out from Medford Monday to visit his brother, Wesley L. Childreth.

W. L. Childreth has moved his supply of undertaking goods from the Ashpole building into a house just below the mill, and Roy Ashpole has moved his stock of hardware and dishes into his own building on Main street.

One of the barns on the place known as the Parton or Joe Rader place, took fire Sunday night about 11 o'clock and burned to the ground. I understand that there was about fifteen or twenty tons of hay in the barn at the time. The property had changed hands a short time before and is now owned by F. G. Mathison. I have not learned about the insurance or whether it was insured or not. I understand that there was quite a lot of farming implements stored in the barn. I believe that there was no one on the place when it burned.

R. P. Cornelius of Ashland was doing business in our town Monday and spent the night at the Sunnyside. Bert Higginbotham of Florence Rock was among the guests Sunday night.

Kenneth G. Hook, a brother-in-law of R. A. Whitman, is among the boarders at the S. S. hotel during the absence of his sister.

T. W. Osgood and S. E. Mountain were with us Tuesday for dinner, and so were M. E. Root, the Fruit and Produce association's man, and J. J. McMahon of Ashland was here with Mr. Bardie and Walter Wood Tuesday.

Tuesday afternoon three of the seven sisters known as the Perry sisters, to-wit; Mrs. Lobbie Whetter, Mrs. Nellie Simpson of Spokane, Wash., and Harriet Allen of Seattle Wash., arrived here to visit their mother, Mrs. F. M. Stewart, sisters and brother, Mrs. Nettie Grover, Mrs. Lottie McQuoid, Mrs. Della Nichols, Mrs. Emma Seine of Oakland, Cal., who has been here for several days, and William Perry of Butte Falls. The eight children aim to have a family reunion once each year, and they always have a good time, and I heard Mrs. Howlett say something about them inviting her to give a quilting party while they were all here together, as she generally does, and I suppose that she will, for she is about as young as any of them.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at its next regular meeting, September 7th, 1915, for a license to sell malt, vinous and spiritous liquors at his place of business, No. 63 N. Front street, Medford, Oregon, to December 31st, 1915.

Dated August 23rd, 1915.

B. S. RADCLIFF.
