A fair-sized audience gave unus nal attention to a splendid program given under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' circles in the high school auditorium Friday afternoon. Mrs. D. Perozzi of Ashland gave a most comprehensive and inspiring report of the national convention of the congress of mothers, which met in Portland in June. The mothers who heard this report were indeed fortunate. Mrs. Perozzi also suggested active plans for the meeting of the district convention of Women's Clubs to be held in Medford, September 23, Following this address, Miss Theiss sang two numbers beautifully. Mr. Hillis, superintendent of the city schools, was then introduced and addressed the circle, in which he advocated the extension of the school Or., and Mr. George a business man course along vocational lines. A violin solo by Riley Davis, accompanied by Mrs. Calkins, was very much enjoyed, as was also the first number, n piano duet, by Mrs. Van Scovos and Miss Vroman.
