E. E. Miller of the Vienna bakery, is the new proprietor of an U-4 Cadillac, the model of which is not visible though of ancient type. It is duly licensed to carry bakery goods throughout the business district. In early days it was one of the speedy machines at the hands of E. E. Phillips. It is a one passenger car, with chassis displacement capable of carrying bread loaves sufficient to feed a regiment. In the meantime Mr. Miller's familiar old Metz is in escrow while the Cadillac is making the rounds of the daily run.

S. P. Moss of Lakeside is visiting friends in the family of Attorney W.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—IN MEXICO

THRILLING DASH THROUGH HOSTILE VALLEY! NICK COLLARS BANDIT CHIEF!

No. 1—Once, while wandering about in Mexico I chanced upon an old gun carriage wheel lying neglected in the dust. I carried it to the mountain top!

No. 2—Sitting astride the hub, I directed my course toward a band of desperadoes at the bottom of the valley, engaged in plotting!

No. 3—Soon I had gained the speed of the wind! I struck down through the middle of the group of plotters, grasped the ring-leader as I flew past and carried him along!

No. 4—As I whirled past a cactus plant, I flung him directly at its prickly sides where he was impaled as punishment for his crimes!

J. Moore. He is one of the retired ranchers of that region, having settled in Lake county in 1872. Recent purchasers of new cars are E. N. Butler, who has secured a five-passenger Maxwell through the Powell agency of Medford. New Fords have lately been sold by F. L. Campa to Mrs. Dr. Fowler of Third street, E. F.
