

WILLOW SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson were shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mr. Kelso of Gold Hill was a pleasant caller at the Hoagland ranch on Sunday.

William McKee has been in Klamath Falls for several days and returned via Crater Lake and Prospect. Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and daughter were calling on friends in this district Sunday.

The Grange will have their regular meeting at the school house Saturday, September 11, at 7:30.

D. W. Stone has started the picking of his peaches on his place this week. He expects to have several cars of fruit this year.

The Willow Springs school was opened in due form Tuesday morning, and Miss Hazel Taylor will preside during the coming year.

The Parent-Teachers' club will be entertained Saturday, September 18, by Mrs. W. A. Thompson and Mrs. P. M. Palmer at the home of the former. Miss Helen Parker, who has accepted a school several miles from Derby, left for that point Saturday.

Sunday a record was kept of the automobiles traveling on the hill road and there were sixty cars during the day. Why should not we have good roads in Oregon?

E. T. Neal and family were in the district Monday on route from Los Angeles, where they spent the summer, to Corvallis, where Miss Martina Neal will attend O. A. C.

Paul Lake and family and Frank Hammond and family returned to their home after a very pleasant six weeks' camping trip to Crater Lake and vicinity. They were well rewarded by getting two deer.

The Misses Ethel Dean, Nora Watkins, Elmer Crowder and Leah Parker and Messrs. Russell Harris, Everett McKee and Frank Dean of this district are attending high school in Central Point this year.

Kenneth Kennedy of Los Angeles arrived Wednesday to accompany his father, brother and brother-in-law, G. M. Kennedy, Ray Kennedy and Fred Wilson, on a camping trip to Curry county for several weeks.

G. Moody and B. Moody of Chicago, Ill., are visiting their cousin, William Tacklam. They expect to remain several weeks.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Guy Dunkin of California has been visiting his relatives at Beagle and returned home last week.

Dell Morrison and wife came out to the Huth ranch this week to haul his hay.

The Antioch school started Monday with nearly all pupils present. The Chaparral school also started Monday.

W. C. Chapman and wife have been gone for a trip to Crescent City for some time.

There was a bad accident happened on the Glass threshing machine. Fred Clark got hurt racking, but we don't understand just how. The doctor was called and he is getting along all right.

Miss Myra Askew hauled a load of grain to town last Tuesday.

Claude Chapman is working for Theodore Glass topping his corn.

Mr. Routy and Clay Conley started for Crescent City last Monday for a vacation. They have been working at the Modoc orchard for some time. They started in a car, Jesse Phomail as driver.

Mrs. Armstrong died at her home last Thursday. The funeral service was held at the San's Valley cemetery. She leaves many relatives to mourn her loss and she leaves many friends.

Pericy Chapman has been hauling his grain to Central Point this week.

A number from this section attended the circus at Medford Thursday. They all report a fine time and one worth seeing.

Mrs. Arthur Jones was a pleasant visitor at Mrs. Theodore Glass' Sunday.

Misses Viola and Myrtle Chapman were visitors at Cooper's last Monday.

The Glass threshers are still threshing. They are at Mr. Bigham's now. They will soon be through for this season.

Mr. Hall of Medford motored back from the hills Sunday from a hunting trip, but failed to get any deer.

FLOUNCE ROCK FRILLS

Mr. Afford and wife of Medford came up Wednesday and took their nephew, Mr. Applegate, home with them. He had been ill at Mr. Dittsworth's, but was slightly better.

Mr. Nye's family, Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Manning and Margery Eskline, left Wednesday for a berry patch near Diamond Lake.

Robert Dawson and wife visited at Elmer Dawson's Thursday. Elmer Dawson brought his sister, Mrs. A.

OLD NICODEMUS NIMBLE—IN MEXICO

OLD NICK GOES TO HELP SETTLE AFFAIRS IN MEXICO!

No. 1—After punishing the bandits by driving him in among the thorny cactus, I decided to hunt down his nearest rival!

No. 2—I found this blustering braggart killing and robbing the people. I hastily painted a line of U. S. soldiers on canvas and grasping it in my hands ran towards the coward and his men!

No. 3—They scattered in all directions! I ran down the leader and repaid him for some of the suffering he has caused the poor people!

SPLENDID RECOMMENDATIONS

TEACHER OF EXPRESSION

To Whom It May Concern:

It is a pleasure to recommend Mrs. Lynette Hovious to your attention. She is a graduate of this school and one in whom we have the utmost confidence. She is a well bred, womanly woman, of high ideals, intelligent and with excellent tastes. She is well taught and well adapted to her chosen line of work. She is a good reader, natural, simple, sincere and effective. She will read what an audience will be glad to hear and which will uplift as well as entertain. I believe she will prove an excellent instructor.
