

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

E. V. Carter has also been appointed by Governor Withycombe as a delegate from this vicinity to confer with a legislative committee which meets at Salem, September 16, to adopt a procedure regarding land grant matters. Over 100 horses and mules, belonging to Pacific highway contractors, continue to be the inspiration of a pastime party for the week-end indefinitely, on Charley Lindsay's ranch in the Dead Indian country. Some of these animals are ordinary plugs while others belong to the smart set. It takes over three tons of prime hay per day, in addition to fortal and various rough forage, to feed the beasts. If the internment continues indefinitely, Lindsay will reap the revenues that fall to the lot of a government contractor.

The tax rate in the neighboring county of Siskiyou has been fixed at $1.90 on the $100 assessed valuation basis.

These visitors were near neighbors in Astoria of the Anderson family which met such a tragic fate in an automobile railway accident near Granada, Cal., recently. The Andersons camped here for a day or two on their return from Crater Lake, just previous to leaving for California last Tuesday morning.

R. L. Burdick is exhibiting specimens of mammoth peaches grown on his home premises, 117 Laurel street. The Berean mission on Fourth street is actively supported throughout the year and the attendance at time exceeds the capacity of a "full house." Laymen as well as local pastors conduct the services.

Lunch goods, ice cream, etc., are now to be obtained on the automobile camp grounds, W. F. Caldwell, caretaker, having secured the concession.

There will be a mass meeting in the Commercial club rooms, Friday evening, September 19, to discuss railroad land grant matters and further necessary steps to be taken by actual settlers in filing on such lands in accordance with the terms of the original grant. F. L. Caton and family returned last Saturday from a trip to Crater Lake and Klamath county some what tanned but much pleased with their trip.

Owing to former depredations committed by hunters in these parts most of our land owners are taking precautions to prevent hunting on their premises, those that do permit hunting should instruct parties as to the boundaries of their holdings and thus avoid trouble.

Mr. Croft of Trail was taking orders for several household conveniences through here last Tuesday.

Our exhibit committee headed by J. C. Pendleton have managed to gather a few samples of farm products from nearly every farm in the district and have arranged them for inspection at the county fair. The work of gathering this exhibit was no small task as many of our citizens seemed to take but very little interest in such things and although some of the finest grain grown in the district was raised here this year scarcely any samples of it were saved.

Several from here attended the show in Medford last Thursday and were well pleased with the performance.

T. C. Law of Willow Springs made a business trip to these parts last week.
