ASHLAND AND VICINITY

From the colossal proportions and rustic effects which the springs water pavilion at the depot is assuming. one might be led to infer that the structure is to be a replica of the Oregon building at the fair grounds in San Francisco. Some big logs are entering into the construction.

Attorney Ed Van Dyke and bride, of Grants Pass, were here Saturday on their return from a honeymoon trip to San Francisco. Mrs. Van Dyke was formerly Miss Quinlan, sister of W. P. Quinlan, secretary of the Grants Pass Commercial club.

The remains of Professor Karl Eugena Gathe, who died here last Friday, will be taken to Riehmond, Va., for burial where relatives on the paternal side of his family reside. The body, accompanied by the widow and two children, left here Sunday, and they will be met at Chicago by an elder son of the deceased.

Floyd Cadillac and Ciri Ford got into an altereation on the Piaza last Friday afternoon over concession privileges in transporting sightseers to the Medford fair. The former is a duly registered chauffeur. The latter resented the imputation of being a "seab" and put a muffler on Cadbounded by the N E 1/4 N W 1/2 S 1/2 of the solar plexus.

Ashland teachers now employed at Gold Hill report great preparation under way for the industrial fair to be held in that town next Friday and Saturday, September 17 and 18. Schools will be "let out" on Friday in order that all pupils may partielpate in the festivities.
